of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic Tranquillity, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

Article I

Section 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of the most numerous Branch of the United States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and when elected, he shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen.

Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States, which may be included within this Union, according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, including those bound to Service for a Term of Years, and including as well three fifths of all other Persons. The actual Enumeration shall be made within three Years after the first Meeting of the Congress of the United States, and in every subsequent Term of ten Years, in such Manner as they shall direct. The Number of Representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty Thousand, but each State shall have at least one Representative; and until such Enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations three, New York nine, New Jersey five, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware six, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

When vacancies happen in the Representation from any State, the Executive thereof shall fill the Vacancies by electing Representatives. The House of Representatives shall choose their Speaker and other Officers; and shall have the sole Power of Impeachment.

Section 3. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for a Term of six Years; and the Senators shall have one Vote.

Immediately after they shall be assembled in Consequence of the first Election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three Clauses, each of which shall have the Qualification of the Senators of the United States for the second Year, of the second Year, of the third Year, and of the fourth Year, so that one third may be chosen every second Year; and if Vacancies happen by Resignation, or otherwise, during the Course of the Session of any State, the Executive thereof may fill the Vacancies until the next Meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill the Vacancies.

No Person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and when elected, he shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State, for which he shall be chosen.

The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no Vote, except they be equally divided.

The Senate shall choose their other Officers, and also a President pro tempore, in the Absence of the Vice President, or when he shall exercise the Office of President of the United States.

They shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose, they shall be on oath or affirmation. When the Chief Justice shall preside, no Person shall be convicted without the Concurrence of two thirds of the Members present.

Judgment in Cases of Impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from Office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any Office of Honor or Trust, or to exercise any Privilege or Immunity of the United States.

Atlantic Reporter ,1920 Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1995 The History and Topography of the United States of North America John Howard Hinton,John Overton Choules,1850 Property v. Equality Mack Ott,2023-11-13 The tension between property and equality as the Founders expressed it or liberty and equality as commonly expressed today has been a central issue for democracy since its beginning in Athens The US founders addressed the problem with commitments to the protection of individual liberty and to equality of opportunity Central to these commitments are private property rights and their enforcement recognizing the diversity of individual interests and abilities and their rights to develop both as they choose As James Madison put it in The Federalist Papers the protection of the faculties of men and their diversity the original source of the rights of property is the first object of government That this is the greatest obstacle to a pursuit of a uniformity of interest as it would imply an equality of outcomes instead of opportunity Thus a political commitment to the pursuit of equality fosters continual questioning of its achievement and on what terms In his new book Property v Equality America s Enduring Political Rivalry Mack Ott weaves the history of our democracy with the evolution of its political parties the role of voting its government and its institutions with the central concern for the evolving tension of equal liberty with various and different levels of property From the outset Ott argues the problem of slavery presented deep moral and political problems The importance of political compromise between the states to secure the adoption of the Constitution led the founders to put off abolition and settle initially for an end to importation of the enslaved in twenty years Most states outlawed slavery well before 1860 but the end of slavery did not come easily It was the presidency of Abraham Lincoln and his restoration of the Union that removed the biggest obstacle to liberty and equality Ott explains that Lincoln also had a full agenda of other policies Lincoln's fair chance aimed to provide Federal assistance to the emergence of greater equality He successfully introduced three programs to enhance public welfare and the common good assistance to develop roads and a federal highway system the Homestead Acts to aid people to acquire property and residences at subsidized prices and the Land Grant College program to assist states in developing institutions of higher education for young people Lincoln's notion of a fair chance reflected his desire to expand the Federal role in promoting the common good and the enhancement of economic equality The Civil War also brought to the center of political attention a practical obstacle to the achievement of balance between liberty and equality according to Ott This was the inability of federal revenue to provide a growing revenue base to support economic growth and intervention in major shocks especially war Except for a brief period during the Civil War income taxation had not been available because it was viewed to be unconstitutional In 1913 the Supreme Court ruled that direct taxation of citizens did not violate the Constitution In the implementation of the Sixteenth Amendment Congress allowed for progressive taxation people of higher incomes would face higher tax rates than those with lower incomes Lincoln laid the basis for an expanding Federal role in the economy and showed the way to progressively fund the Federal government Perhaps the second major challenge to the pursuit of liberty and equality led to the election of Franklin Roosevelt To confront the Great Depression Roosevelt embarked on a major expansion in the Federal role in the American economy and control of much of the private sector His success led to new debates over that role in which liberty versus equality issues were central With the death of Roosevelt and end of the Second World War the political economy continued to expand the role of the government and to stabilize the structure of Roosevelt's new institutions The nation's success in war expanded its role in the world and dominated political and economic life allowing the end of state regulated economic inequality under Jim Crow and the end of the separate but equal regime established with Plessy v Ferguson 1896 with the Supreme Court's Brown v Board of Education 1954 The latter established the possibility for racial equality in education Much further progress toward racial equality ensued in the 1960s with civil rights reforms across all aspects of public life from voting to housing employment and other aspects of public life The 1970s stagflation amplified the nation's concerns with inflation and growth It was compounded by energy price shocks that permanently lowered productivity and real incomes well into the early 1980s An equality of general decline in virtually every aspect of life settled in Ott traces the shift in economic policies that ended stagnation and restored economic growth from the 1980s to 2000 Ott outlines the forces that led to the slower growth of population the labor force capital formation and innovation in the first two decades of this century forces that threaten the advance of liberty and equality in the future and the growth of federal revenue necessary for the continuation of a larger Federal role in that struggle Deteriorating indicators of economic equality raise doubts about the nation s ability to protect the public These developments suggest to Ott that the role of government has become overstretched and that its ability to widen the pursuit of liberty and economic equality has become tenuous Two recent developments advances in artificial intelligence AI coupled with the proposal for a universal basic income UBI may offer a way out Linking the possibility that AI could renew major advancements in productivity and the standard of living with suggestions for a government provided UBI might provide a floor for future gains in income But Ott also notes the difficulties of moving forward toward either AI or UBI without seriously damaging liberty and whether they would enhance equality The issues posed by our pursuit of property and equality will continue will likely do so on new ground

Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Key To The Constitution Of The United States : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. The Key To The Constitution Of The United States : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
