The Korean Spirit Heerak Christian Kim, 2007. A collection of poems that captures the hopes and the fears of ethnic Koreans around the world. This volume also reflects the Korean han angst relating to Korean history and past such as the Japanese occupation of Korea 1910-1945. Indian Traces in Korean Culture Renata Czekalska, 2024-10-24. Indian traces in Korean Culture examines the enduring cross-cultural discourse between India and Korea over the centuries, emphasizing the transformative power of cultural exchange beyond geographical and temporal constraints. The book analyses how symbols transcend sensory realms and embody spiritual content and suggests that Indian associations in Korean culture reflect a hybridized nature seamlessly blending cultural elements. The author presents various facets of the cultural exchange between India and Korea, covering Princess Hwang-ok's legendary Indian origins, shaping Korean identity, Ilyun's strategic documentation of Buddhism's transmission, the influence of Indian figures such as Gandhi and Tagore, an exploration of literature from ancient Buddhist verse to modern poets like Kim Yang-shik and Shiva Ryu, and a study of cultural exchange in K-pop. Facilitating a possible alternative to Huntington's theory of the clash of civilisations, this book provides evidence that the multifaceted encounters between cultures are a historical process that co-shapes civilisational change on a global scale. The first monograph solely dedicated to India-Korea cultural connection from antiquity to the present, this book offers a paradigm shift, inviting readers to explore fresh insights and reshape their understanding of cultural exchanges. It will be of interest to researchers in intercultural communication, Cultural Studies, Cultural History, and Asian Studies, in particular Korea and India. Chapters 1 and 5 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives (CC BY-NC-ND) 4.0 license.

This issue contains the verse of twenty-four poets. From 1924 when Hsieh Chun-mu first published four poems in Imitation, the development of new poetry in Taiwan has a history of almost one hundred years. The roots of new poetry in Taiwan, with its twin flower bulbs to use the phrase coined by Chen Chien-wu, has now bloomed and borne fruit. It manifests diversified themes and places great stress on both artistic expression and social concern. It recognizes globalization as the major trend of the times and maintains a dynamic balance between nativist consciousness and the sensibilities of the Chinese cultural diaspora. Taiwan literature and its new poetry written in Chinese should have a place in the Chinese world community as well as in the history of world literature. Limited by the space allowed for the journal, we could only select works related to local and quotidian writing. Yet we hope to observe through these works the manner in which the unique charm and gracefulness of contemporary poetry from Taiwan has blossomed in the garden of world literature. 1924 Korea Journal, 1961
