The Languages of Criticism and the Structure of Poetry R. S. Crane, 1967 The Languages of Criticism and the Structure of Poetry Ronald S. Crane, 1953-12-15 These vigorous lectures deal with some of the many ways in which the question of structure in poetry here synonymous with the whole range of artistic creation in words can be discussed Criticism has never been Professor Clare argues a single discipline but a collection of more and less distinct conceptual languages within any one of which a literary problem takes on a special solution The Alexander Lectures for 1952 Criticism and the Structure of Poetry R. S. Craue, 1955 The Languages of Criticism and the Structure of Poetry Ronald Crane, 1953-12-15 These vigorous lectures deal with some of the many ways in which the guestion of structure in poetry here synonymous with the whole range of artistic creation in words can be discussed Criticism has never been Professor Clare argues a single discipline but a collection of more and less distinct conceptual languages within any one of which a literary problem takes on a special solution The Alexander Lectures for 1952 The languages of criticism and the structure of Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk, 1993-01-01 The last half of poetry R. S. Crane, 1967 the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it I R Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume Their work is organized into three parts In Part I forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address Part II focuses on individual theorists It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory It identifies significant complex terms places them in context and explains their origins and use Accessibility is a key feature of the work By avoiding jargon providing mini bibliographies and cross referencing throughout Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture A Study in Critical Theory, Literary Theory and Criticism Patricia Waugh, 2006 This volume offers a comprehensive account of modern literary criticism presenting the field as part of an ongoing historical and intellectual tradition Featuring thirty nine specially commissioned chapters from an international team of esteemed contributors it fills a large gap in the market by combining the accessibility of single authored selections with a wide range of critical perspectives The volume is divided into four parts Part One covers the key philosophical and aesthetic origins of literary theory while Part Two discusses the foundational movements and thinkers in the first half of the twentieth century Part Three offers introductory overviews of the most important movements and thinkers in modern literary theory and Part Four looks at emergent trends and future directions Speech and System Peter Bornedal, 1997 In this investigation creative writing and philosophy are shown to be specific types of language games distinct from speech as used in communicative interaction between individuals The author deals with thinking speech and systems respectively I Thinking is understood as a soliloguy preceding any kind of creative activity and any kind of writing The author analyses thinking as a subject s listening to its own voice with a split between I and me close to Derrida's notion of difference as a condition for the production of meaning II Analyzing with reference to Benveniste Austin and Searle what speech is the author deduces the so called pragmatic subject in contrast to the first section's reflective In its elementary speech act the pragmatic subject does constitute itself in rudimentary ways III In dealing with the product of reflective activity the author finds the so called textual inconsistence or logical aporias inherent in any logical or pseudo logical system to be in line with Goedel's incompleteness theorems and he rejects the tendency to use deconstruction to understand these aporias as is usual in Western metaphysics The author's philosophical position is closest to that of Paul Ricoeur and Jacques Derrida but on crucial issues he advances his own ideas on the relationship between speech and writing also establishing a criticism of metaphysics that may be more radical than what has previously been developed Arthur S. To The Scholars And Literary Critics Reason and the Nature of Texts James L. Battersby, 2016-11-11 Many of today s most prominent critics and teachers of literature insist on the endless deferral of textual meaning and on the social construction of meaning and thought Against these markers of current critical theory James L Battersby argues for the authorial construction of determinate textual meaning insisting that to think about anything at all we must be able to refer to it and that such references are necessarily the semantic consequences of an author's deliberate intentional acts Propelling Battersby's argument is his use of principles and arguments drawn from current philosophical literature on language and mind Battersby reveals the philosophical shortcomings and argumentative weaknesses of some of the most prominent and influential doctrines in critical theory today especially and principally those that inform and define postmodernism in both its linguistic and historicist materialist modes As he argues for a fresh conception of our understanding of language mind and meaning Battersby probes the critical positions of among others Stanley Fish Mikhail Bakhtin Paul de Man and Jacques Derrida Making room for an alternative and Battersby asserts more intellectually appealing framework requires a skeptical dissection of the linguistic and historicist tenets that form the foundation of poststructuralism The striking outcome of his effort is a book as lively erudite theoretically informed and provocative as his earlier Paradigms Regained Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This text is an introduction to the full range of standard reference tools in all branches of English studies More than 10 000 titles are included The Reference Guide covers all the areas traditionally defined as English studies and all the field of inquiry more recently associated with English studies British and Irish American and world literatures written in English are included Other fields covered are folklore film literary theory general and comparative literature language and linguistics rhetoric and composition bibliography and textual criticism and women s studies The Cambridge Companion to American Modernism Walter Kalaidjian, 2005-04-28 The Cambridge Companion to American Modernism provides a comprehensive and authoritative overview of American literary modernism from 1890 to 1939 These original essays by twelve distinguished scholars of international reputation offer critical overviews of the major genres literary culture and social contexts that define the current state of Modern American literature and cultural studies Among the diverse topics covered are nationalism race gender and the impact of music and visual arts on literary modernism as well as overviews of the achievements of American modernism in fiction poetry and drama The book concludes with a chapter on modern American criticism An essential reference guide to the field the Companion offers readers a chronology of key events and publication dates covering the first half of the twentieth century in the United States and an up to date bibliography of further reading organized by chapter topics The Living Milton (Routledge Revivals) Sir Frank Kermode, 2014-10-14 Various aspects of Milton are explored in this collection of essays by scholars whose reputations were at the time of publication in 1960 perhaps largely based on their writings on more modern subjects This had the advantage of demonstrating that Milton as a poet is alive and that other attempts to represent him as irrelevant to the interests of the modern reader had failed The essays offer to admirers of Milton and of modern poetry cogent and mature arguments for restoring a great poet to his proper authority in our literary life The Languages of Criticism and the Structure of Poetry Stephen Crane, 1964 Routledge Library Editions: Higher Education Various, 2021-03-29 The volumes in this set originally published between 1964 and 2002 draw together research by leading academics in the area of higher education and provide a rigorous examination of related key issues.
