Lasko Tangent Richard North Patterson, 1979 Lasko Tangent Richard North Patterson, 1985-07-01 Mr Patterson is a natural storyteller Fast moving A handsome job THE NEW YORK TIMES William Lasko is a self made millionaire who s got an eye for wealth and influence the ear of the president and a talent for using both to get what he wants Now the Economic Crimes Commission wants the corrupt untouchable Lasko brought down and U S Attorney Christopher Paget is tapped to take on the job To gather enough evidence to nail Lasko without alienating the White House Paget s got to go by the book But Lasko makes his own rules And eliminating enemies is William Lasko s golden one The Lasko Tangent; Degree of Guilt Richard North Patterson, 2005-05 William Lasko is a self made multimillionaire who s got an eye for wealth and influence the ear of the president and a talent for using both to get what he wants The Richard North Patterson

Collection (6cass) Richard North Patterson, 2000 Over the Top Adrian Flanagan, 2018-03-08 Only one person has ever sailed vertically around the world Adrian Flanagan Sailing horizontally is difficult enough crossing thousands of miles of ocean only to get near land at the Capes and battle treacherous currents However hundreds of sailors have still managed it Adrian became obsessed with the idea of sailing vertically around the world as a boy before he even knew whether it was possible Thirty years later he managed it This is his own account of his remarkable adventure It was an epic challenge sailing through the perilous waters around Cape Horn and across the remote hostile stretch of the Russian Arctic He survived being washed overboard capsizing a close encounter with pirates and also managed to treat not one but two dislocated wrists all of this alone a thousand miles or more from anyone who could help him complete his quest It wasn t all high drama however Adrian experienced moments of awe inspiring beauty being accompanied by a pod of whales and swimming with dolphins This is a timeless and unique story pacily written with a sense of humour but which captures the zeal and determination required to accomplish something nobody else has ever done before Justice Denoted Terry White, 2003-09-30 White provides the most comprehensive scholarly compilation of fictional work of legal suspense in existence Primarily a bibliography of novels it also annotates plays scripts for film and television novelizations and short story collections about lawyers and the law The idea behind the principal of selection is to disdain labels that reduce the variety of the legal thriller to a subgenre of mystery fiction Novels that range from suspense thrillers through science fiction to the philosophical novel are included if justice is thematically important It is therefore an eclectic reference source beyond a compilation of books about lawyers as protagonists Its biographical and scholarly information about authors major and minor and their novels or works is traditionally encyclopedic and objective regardless of whether the work has been genre defined or worse deified as a classic or denigrated as a bestseller Many novels included are long out of print but historically interesting for their contribution to the lineage of the courtroom drama showing that the history of the legal thriller is one of the major branches of modern literature since the Age of Reason The criterion of justice denoted moves beyond the fact of lawyers and courtrooms to select seminal novels like Robert Travers Anatomy of a Murder as well as the romantic potboiler Among the more than 2 000 works are the Perry Mason novels of Erle Stanley Gardner John Mortimer s Rumpole series along with a staple of fiction by major authors of the genre like John Lescroart Lisa Scottoline Margaret Maron Scott Turow and John Grisham There are also individual works by Shakespeare Goethe Kafka Camus and Twain delineating humanity s obsession with the law as its shining prop of civilization and alternative b te noire of the common individual caught up in its maw The appendices include comments by lawyer novelist Michael A Kahn a historical introduction to the legal thriller craft notes by writers and prominent trial lawyers responding to author and lawyer questionnaires bibliography of critical sources and articles series characters and the legal terminology found in courtroom dramas and novels An essential reference tool for scholars researchers as well as the occasional reader of legal thrillers

The Washington, D.C. of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2006 In The Washington D C of Fiction A Research Guide James A Kaser provides detailed synopses for nearly four hundred works published between 1822 and 1976 and bibliographic information for hundreds more published since Plot summaries names of major characters and location lists are also presented Although this book was written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries have enough detail for general readers so they can develop an understanding of the way attitudes toward Washington and what the city symbolizes have changed over the years Similarly the biographical section demonstrates the wide range of journalists politicians society women and freelance writers who were motivated to write about the city

BOOK JACKET

Private Screening Richard North Patterson, 1986-06-12 Thrilling PRIVATE SCREENING succeeds on all counts It s a footrace of a read daring you to put it down ATLANTA JOURNAL CONSTITUTION The nation is stunned silent when presidential hopeful James Kilcannon is shot dead in front of his rock star girlfriend Stacy Tarrant Fiercely independent attorney Tony Lord dares to defend the shooter but the already bizarre plot takes another twist As America watches a mysterious and ruthless figure known only as Phoenix takes to the airwaves and takes the wife of a wealthy newspaper mogul and Stacy s manager as his hostages Phoenix mounts a televised trial of his own in which Stacy Tarrant and Tony Lord are helpless defendants millions of viewers are jurors and unless his chilling demands are met Pheonix is the unstoppable executioner

Protect and Defend Richard North Patterson, 2003-08-12 On a cold day in January President elect Kerry Kilcannon takes the oath of office and within days makes his first most important move appointing a new Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Kilcannon's choice is a female judge with a brilliant record And a secret While the Senate spars over Caroline Masters's nomination an inflammatory abortion rights case is making its way toward the judge and will explode into the headlines Suddenly the most divisive issue in America turns the President's nomination into all out war And from Judge Masters to a conservative war hero senator facing a crisis of conscience and a fifteen year old girl battling for her future no one will be safe

What Mommy Said H. Paul Jeffers, 2014-09-30 During a swimming accident nine year old Sebastian Duncan stops breathing While others attempt to resuscitate him he has a near death experience wherein he meets his mother who died the previous year from an overdose of sleeping pills She tells Sebastian that her own death was not the suicide that people believed it was and that he must return to tell his grandmother that she was in fact murdered At the insistence of Sebastian's grandmother chief investigator Arlene Flynn is assigned the task of re opening the year old case to determine whether the death was the suicide it was originally believed to be or if there is a very clever murderer on the loose Did the boy actually have a legitimate near death experience or did he simply suppress some memory of the murder only to have the trauma of his accident bring it back up to the surface With no evidence to indicate murder no credible witness making such a claim and a great deal of political pressure Arlene Flynn must tackle the most challenging case of her career in H Paul Jeffers's thrilling What Mommy Said

Eyes of a Child Richard North Patterson, 1996 A high powered San Francisco defense attorney becomes the defendant in a scandalous murder case involving accusations of adultery and sexual abuse divorce an ugly custody battle extortion and conflicting loyalties

In the Name of Honor Richard North Patterson, 2010-06-22 An absolute humdinger of a murder mystery unrelenting suspense and a close look at the dysfunctions of military justice and of one particular family Scott Turow 1 New York Times bestselling author of Presumed Innocent A riveting legal thriller by the 1 New York Times bestselling author of Trial Publishers Weekly starred review The McCarrans and the Gallaghers have been close for decades ever since Anthony McCarran now one of the army's most distinguished generals met Jack Gallagher a fellow West Pointer later killed in Vietnam Now a new generation faces combat and Lt Brian McCarran the general's son has returned from a harrowing tour in Iraq Traumatized by experiences he will not reveal Brian depends on his lifelong friendship with Kate Gallagher who's married to Brian's commanding officer Capt Joe D Abruzzo But D Abruzzo also seems changed by the experiences he and Brian shared in Iraq growing secretive and remote Tragedy strikes when Brian shoots and kills D Abruzzo on their Virginia army post He pleads self defense Kate backs him up saying her husband had turned violent and abusive But Brian and Kate have their own secrets and now Capt Paul Terry an accomplished young JAG lawyer must defend Brian in a high profile court martial Before the case is over Terry will become deeply entwined with the McCarrans and learn that families like war can break the sturdiest of souls Powerful Patterson long ago established himself as one of the nation's best writers of serious thrillers and his latest novel burnishes his reputation Richmond Times Dispatch Readers will find themselves engrossed as well as pleased by a twist revealing that there's more to this powerful yet seemingly straightforward story than first meets the eye Booklist Patterson's insights into PTSD are fascinating but never interrupt the story's flow to its explosive ending and his courtroom drama is as intensely engaging as the most action filled thrillers Library Journal starred review Dark Lady Richard North Patterson, 2013-01-16 In Dark Lady Richard North Patterson displays the mastery of setting psychology and story that makes him unique among writers of suspense and one of today's most original and enthralling novelists In Steelton a struggling Midwestern city on the cusp of an economic turnaround two prominent men are found dead within days of each other One is Tommy Fielding a senior officer of the company building a new baseball stadium the city's hope for the future The other is Jack Novak the local drug dealer's attorney of choice Fielding's death with a prostitute from an overdose of heroin seems accidental Novak is apparently the victim of a ritual murder But in each case the character of the dead man seems contradicted by the particulars of his death Coincidence or connection The question falls to Assistant County Prosecutor Stella Marz Despite a traumatic breach with her alcoholic and embittered father she has risen from a working class background to become head of the prosecutor's homicide unit A driven woman she is called the Dark Lady by defense lawyers for her relentless sometimes ruthless style in seven years only one case has gotten away from her and only because the defendant took his own life She has earned every inch of both her official and her off the record titles and recently she's decided to go after another to become the first woman elected Prosecutor of Erie County But that was before the brutal murder of her ex lover Jack Novak Novak's death leads her into a labyrinth where her personal and professional lives become dangerously intertwined There is the possibility that Novak fixed drug cases for the city's crime lord Vincent Moro with the help of law enforcement personnel and perhaps with someone in Stella's own office the bitter mayoral race which threatens to undermine her own ambitions her attraction to a colleague who may not be what he seems the lingering complicated effects of her painful affair with Novak the growing certainty that she is being watched and followed Making her way through a maze of corruption deceit and greed trusting no one Stella comes to believe that the search for the truth involves the bleak history of Steelton itself a history that now endangers her future and perhaps her life For his uncanny dialogue subtle delineation of character and hypnotic narrative critics have compared Richard North Patterson to John O Hara and Dashiell Hammett Now in the character of the Dark Lady he has created a woman as fascinating as her world is haunting Dark Lady is his signature work
