The Impact of Public Policy on Consumer Credit Thomas A. Durkin,Michael E. Staten,2012-12-06 As both the twenty first century and the new millennium opened and the old eras passed into history individuals and organizations throughout the world advanced their listings of the most significant people and events in their respective specialties Possibly more important the turn of the clock and calendar also offered these same observers a good reason to glance into the crystal ball Presumably the past is of greatest interest to most people when it permits better understanding of the present and maybe even limited insight into the outlook In keeping with the reflective mood of the time the staff and friends of the Credit Research Center CRC at Georgetown University s McDonough School of Business noted that the beginning of the new millennium also marked the beginning of the second quarter century of the Center s existence The Center began at the Krannert Graduate School of Management at Purdue University in 1974 and moved to the McDonough School of Business at Georgetown University in 1997 The silver anniversary of its founding offered the occasion for creating more than another listing of significant past accomplishments and milestones Rather it offered the opportunity and indeed a mandate for CRC as an academic research center to undertake a retrospective and future look into the status of research questions pertaining to consumer credit markets For this reason the Center organized a research conference which was held in Washington D C

Handbook of Research on International Consumer Law Geraint G. Howells,I. Ramsay,Thomas Wilhelmsson,2010 This is a truly international effort and one with a strong commitment to human rights by the highly reputable authors coming from different jurisdictions The many facets of today s consumer law are presented to the reader including developing countries a fascinating effort in a dynamically emerging field of law We are comprehensively informed about such bread and butter areas as advertising unfair terms consumer guarantees product safety and liability consumer credit and redress But traditional consumer law concepts and remedies are facing challenges in more complex areas like services of general internet where consumers and private users should enjoy equal access to universal services with the internet where speed must not be a pretext to eliminate standards of fair dealing with risky investment services under the problematic paradigm shift from investor protection to investor confidence A book to read to think about to work with for everybody interested in the future of consumer markets and law in a time of economic crisis Norbert Reich University of Bremen Germany This is a richly interesting collection of essays written by leading names in the field It offers a thoroughly reliable survey of key tensions and challenges in modern consumer law and brilliantly combines thematic overview with detailed analysis It will stimulate comparative thinking it will provide a source of information and it will be welcomed by consumer law scholars all over the world Stephen Weatherill University of Oxford UK Consumer law and policy has emerged in the last half century as a major policy concern for all nations This Handbook of original contributions provides an international and comparative analysis of central issues in consumer law and policy in developed and developing economies The Handbook encompasses questions of both social policy and effective business regulation Many of the issues are common to all countries and are becoming increasingly globalised due to the growth in international trade and technological developments such as the Internet The authors provide a broad coverage of both substantive topics and institutional questions concerning optimal approaches to enforcement and the role of class actions in consumer policy It also includes comparative insights into the influential EU and US models of consumer law and relates consumer law to contemporary trends in human rights law Written by a carefully selected group of international experts this text represents an authoritative resource for understanding contemporary and future developments in consumer law This Handbook will provide students researchers and policymakers with an insight to the main policy debates in each context and provide models of legal regulation to assist in the evaluation of laws and the development of consumer law and policy

Personal Insolvency in the 21st Century Iain Ramsay, 2017-05-04 Since 1979 the world has witnessed a remarkable cycle of personal insolvency law reform Changes in capitalist economies financial crises and political interest groups all contributed to this cycle of reform This book examines the role of interest groups and distinct narratives in shaping reform in different countries while drawing attention to the role of timing path dependency and unintended consequences in the development of personal insolvency law The book presents case studies of personal insolvency law in the US France Sweden and England and Wales It then analyses how following the Great Recession of 2008 international financial institutions paid greater attention to the significance of household debt in contributing to financial instability and the role of individual insolvency law in providing a fresh start Personal insolvency law reform became part of EU responses to the eurozone crisis and the EU has proposed harmonisation of individual insolvency law to promote entrepreneurialism This book examines the extent to which these developments represent an emerging international commonsense about personal insolvency and its relationship to neo liberalism Finally this book discusses whether the international emergence of individual personal insolvency law represents a progressive step or a band aid for the costs of neo liberal policies where a significant number of people live close to the precipice of over indebtedness European Energy Law Report I Martha M.

Roggenkamp,Ulf Hammer,2004 This book presents an overview of the most important legal developments in the field of EC and national energy law as discussed at the European Energy Law Seminar in 2003 Whilst this book covers four different areas of legal developments the general theme of the book is security of supply The first section concentrates on issues of competition law The next section of the book deals with the development of offshore wind parks in the North Sea area The third section concentrates on security of supply in the stricter sense The final section deals with underground storage especially underground storage of gas Back cover
