Treason on the Airwaves Judith Keene, 2008-12-30 This work traces the extraordinary journeys of three World War II radio broadcasters in Germany and Japan whose wartime choices became treason in Britain Australia and the United States John Amery a member of a well connected British family joined Hitler's propagandists in Berlin He was executed for treason by Britain after the war Charles Cousens was a soldier in Japanese captivity when he was put to work on Radio Tokyo with a team of Allied POWs Cousens was later tried as a traitor in Australia Iva Toguri better known as Tokyo Rose was an American student visiting Japan when war broke out She broadcast her English show on Radio Tokyo out of necessity rather than conviction The United States jailed Toguri for treason Through these powerful stories this work not only sheds new light on the history of wartime radio broadcasting in Germany and Japan but also examines the laws of treason in Britain Australia and the United States and the ways in which trials such as these helped shape modern day treason trials All three accounts provoke thoughtful questions as to the nature of justice and the justice of retribution This work traces the extraordinary journeys of three World War II radio broadcasters in Germany and Japan whose wartime choices became treason in Britain Australia and the United States

That was also the invasion of the russian army in Germany Lothar Hans Schreiber, 2021-02-02 Guten Abend good evening were the first words that two Soviet soldiers addressed in German to the frightened population when they marched into Knoblauch a small villiage near Berlin They were these words which took away the pent up fear of the people intimidated by the propaganda and coverage of the terrible events of the war Personal experiences during the time between the end of the war and the immediate post war period in and around Berlin of a boy and his mother who had previously fled West Prussia and who had experienced the heavy bombing raids in the last phase of the Second World War show a partly different picture than that whatever has always been presented as historical facts The Pacific Dental Gazette ,1917 The Dental Cosmos J.
