The Last Witness:

The Last Witness John Matthews, 2001 Elena Waldren has kept a secret for twenty nine years Kept it from everyone including herself Then when memories of her own past are stirred up by her fears for the safety of a young girl she sets out on a desperate quest to uncover the truth she has hidden from for so long But desperate starts to become deadly when Elena s quest takes her across the Atlantic and she discovers that the key to her past is deep in the heart of a powerful Montreal crime family the Lacailles The family is in bloody turmoil at the centre of which is Georges Donatien a good man trapped by violence and deceit and the last witness to a murder that could bring the Lacaille empire crashing down With time fast running out for Georges Elena is horrified to discover that the key to her past might now be lost for ever The Last Witness Judith S. Kestenberg, Ira Brenner, 1996 Special attention is paid to the effects of the Holocaust on children who were in hiding and the experience of adolescent children as described in the diary of an adolescent girl Midnight Cry Lesa Carnes Shaul, 2024-10 Close to midnight on May 17 1951 four north Alabama lawmen drove to a bootlegger s home to serve an arrest warrant Before the clock struck twelve the bootlegger lay dead in front of the house he shared with his wife and eight children and three of the four officers were also dead Afterward a sixteen year old boy would face a series of trials that would divide a county and thrust the state of Alabama into the national spotlight In this good old fashioned true crime story Lesa Carnes Shaul draws on court documents trial transcripts newspaper articles and personal interviews to weave together a rollicking and illuminating tale of murder and revenge Besides the shooting itself and the subsequent trials the narrative explores the cultural shifts that occurred after World War II in the United States the Deep South and the state of Alabama in particular Immediately after the war many southern states still recovering from the lingering effects of the Great Depression stood poised to advance toward a progressive New South yet struggled with the legacy of race and class inequities retrograde government policies and a stubborn resistance to change Sand Mountain represented a kind of land that time forgot during this era even as nearby cities like Huntsville and Birmingham sought to claim a place on the national stage in technology industry business and medicine Through her investigation of this murder trial Shaul reveals the backwoods justice at play in this isolated area of the American South Hearings United States. originally a Royal Navy light cruiser is now permanently moored on the Thames in London One of ten Town class cruisers she saw service on the icy Arctic convoys during the Second World War and was also present for the bombardment of the D Day beaches in 1944 Later she saw service during the Korean War As is the case for many historic ships however there is a surprising shortage of informative and well illustrated guides for reference during a visit or for research by enthusiasts ship modellers naval buffs historians or students This new series redresses the gap Written by experts and containing more than 200 specially commissioned photographs each title takes the reader on a superbly illustrated tour of the ship from bow to stern and deck by deck Significant parts of the vessel for example the gun turrets and engine rooms are given detailed coverage both in words and pictures so that the reader has at hand the most complete visual record and explanation of the ship that exists In addition the importance of the ship both in her own time and now as a museum vessel is explained while her design and build and her career prior to exhibition are all described No other books offer such superb visual impact and detailed information as the Seaforth Historic Ship Series a truly groundbreaking concept bringing the ships of our past vividly to life As seen in Discover Britain Magazine Asiatic Journal and Monthly Register for British and Foreign India, China and Australasia ,1820 Annual Register Edmund Burke,1876 Reports from Committees Great Britain.
