David Raizman

Sixties Decade Of Design Revolution:

The Sixties Lesley Jackson, 1998 Lesley Jackson traces the transition from the contemporary design of the 1950s to the pure geometry of the look and the styles that proliferated throughout the momentous events of the 1960s The Sixties David Mellor, 2002? Sixties Britain Mark Donnelly, 2014-01-14 Sixties Britain provides a more nuanced and engaging history of Britain This book analyses the main social political cultural and economic changes Britain undertook as well as focusing on the silent majority who were just as important as the rebellious students the residents of Soho and the icons of popular culture Sixties Britain engages the reader without losing sight of the fact that the 1960s were a vibrant fascinating and controversial time in British History Summer of Love Christoph Grunenberg, Jonathan Harris, Jonathan P. Harris, 2005-01-01 Though more than a generation has passed since the revolutionary fervor of the Summer of Love of 1967 the 1960s in many ways seem with us still From recurring debates over the war in Vietnam to the perpetually appealing music of the Beatles and the Rolling Stone to the concern about youth drug use the legacy of the 1960s is ubiquitous in contemporary life The Summer of Love brings together an impressive group of historians artists and cultural critics to present a rich and varied interpretation of this seminal decade and its continuing influence on politics society and culture The Summer of Love which accompanies an exhibition at Tate Liverpool pays particular attention to the wildly creative psychedelic art of the era Perceptive essays on psychedelic comics graphic design and typography light shows and film successfully rescue psychedelic art from the fog of nostalgia and unjust critical neglect Distinguished contributors also explore the role of 1960s fashion and architecture and they consider anew the central influence of hallucinogenic drugs on the art of the era Running throughout the essays are the elements of epochal change from sexual liberation to student revolutions that still form the backdrop of our collective consciousness of the 1960s An incisive collection of writings on all aspects of 1960s art and culture tempered by time and critical distance The Summer of Love will be indispensable for those who wish they had been there or for those who were but can't remember it Made in Canada Alan Elder, 2005-02-14 The red maple leaf is the quintessential symbol of Canada and the flag that popularized it throughout the world was designed in the 1960s as a result of government legislation aimed at creating a vital new Canadian national identity through objects events and building projects Made in Canada looks at the development of Canadian craft design and culture through ambitious government programs meant to reinforce the country's identity as a modern sophisticated and autonomous nation As well it documents the demise of a singular notion of modern life and its replacement with a focus on personal identity and consumerism Changes in the 1960s included the building of modern airports first space satellite and new national symbols such as the maple leaf flag Canadians embraced this heightened sense of individuality and demanded products that were equally individual As a result pop culture objects sat on cool furniture influenced by Scandinavian modernism while handmade crafts reflected a growing concern with environmental issues Expo 67 was the turning point one final expression of optimism before Canada was rocked by social change and varied struggles for identity Made in Canada examines national dreams and expressions of individuality in thoughtful and illuminating essays Contributors include Sandra Alföldy NSCAD University Paul Bourassa Mus e des beaux arts de Qu bec Brent Cordner designer and educator Toronto Douglas Coupland artist and author Vancouver Bernard Flaman Government of Saskatchewan Rachel Gotlieb freelance curator and writer Toronto Michael Large Sheridan College Institute of Technology and Advanced Learning and Michael Prokopow Design Exchange
