Modern Catholic Social Teaching Joe Holland, 2003 The impact of the industrial revolution on the social structures of industrialized nations posed a difficult challenge to the Catholic Church and its Popes In the struggle for human and economic status should the Church side with the new working class or with capitalist barons who along with the old aristocracy identified themselves as upholders of Christian civilization In this history of papal social teaching Joe Holland tells how the popes at first backed the status quo Then with the accession of Pope Leo XIII in 1878 a seismic shift took place Leo's encyclical Rerum novarum was the first authoritative Church voice to declare that laboring people have rights the right to fair wages to decent living conditions the right to organize labor unions and even to strike Henceforth the notion of civilization at least for the Church would be grounded in the lives and aspirations of working people Modern Catholic Social Teaching traces this historic shift as it played out in the writings of Leo and the popes who followed him Pius X Benedict XV Pius XI and Pius XII These popes supported Leo's encyclical and even elaborated it as European history experienced the emergent

Go and Do Likewise Mia Crosthwaite, 2006-03 Our call as Christians is to live as neighbor to everyone to treat each person with mercy and compassion is part of the call to discipleship But how do we do this In clear concise language the author discusses each of the principles of the Church's social teaching then offers a wide variety of creative ideas for living them out Some of the ideas take only five minutes others take ten minutes and still others take twenty minutes This is an excellent resource for both individuals and family members for peace and justice committees for RCIA teams catechists teachers and parish ministers
