It has been 17 years since the first edition of Navigating Human Service Organizations was published and about twenty years since Margaret Gibelman began working on a unique and engaging textbook that has been used in many dozens of classrooms. I did not participate in the initial writing of the book; I joined the project later. Yet shortly after it was released, I reviewed it for possible adoption for a practice class so can semi-dispassionately reflect upon the initial notes I made about the latest book of the director of the doctoral program from which I graduated.
