How America Lost
the Secret War in North Vietnam

Spies Commandos:

Spies and Commandos Kenneth Conboy, Dale Andradé, 2000-03-16 During the Vietnam war the United States sought to undermine Hanoi's subversion of the Saigon regime by sending Vietnamese operatives behind enemy lines. A secret to most Americans, this covert operation was far from secret in Hanoi: all of the commandos were killed or captured and many were turned by the Communists to report false information. Spies and Commandos traces the rise and demise of this secret operation started by the CIA in 1960 and expanded by the Pentagon beginning in 1964. In the first book to examine the program from both sides of the war, Kenneth Conboy and Dale Andrade interviewed CIA and military personnel and traveled in Vietnam to locate former commandos who had been captured by Hanoi, enabling them to tell the complete story of these covert activities from high level decision making to the actual experiences of the agents. The book vividly describes scores of dangerous missions including raids against North Vietnamese coastal installations and the air dropping of dozens of agents into enemy territory as well as psychological warfare designed to make Hanoi believe the resistance movement was larger than it actually was. It offers a more complete operational account of the program than has ever been made available, particularly its early years and ties known events in the war to covert operations such as details of the 34 A Operations that led to the Tonkin Gulf incidents in 1964. It also explains in no uncertain terms why the whole plan was doomed to failure from the start. One of the remarkable features of the operation, claim the authors, is that its failures were so glaring. They argue that the CIA and later the Pentagon was unaware for years that Hanoi had compromised the commandos even though some agents missed radio deadlines or filed suspicious reports. Operational errors were not attributable to conspiracy or counterintelligence, they contend, but simply to poor planning and lack of imagination. Although it flourished for ten years under cover of the wider war, covert activity in Vietnam is now recognized as a disaster. Conboy and Andrade's account of that episode is a sobering tale that lends a new perspective on the war as it reclaims the lost lives of these unsung spies and commandos.

Death Zones and Darling Spies Beverly Deepe Kever, 2020-02-17 Chosen for 2015 One Book One Nebraska. In 1961, equipped with a master's degree from famed Columbia Journalism School and letters of introduction to Associated Press bureau chiefs in Asia, twenty-six year old Beverly Deepe set off on a trip around the world. Allotting just two weeks to South Vietnam, she was still there seven years later, having then earned the distinction of being the longest serving American correspondent covering the Vietnam War and garnering a Pulitzer Prize nomination. In Death Zones and Darling Spies, Beverly Deepe Kever describes what it was like for a farm girl from Nebraska to find herself halfway around the world trying to make sense of one of the nation's bloodiest and bitterest wars. She arrived in Saigon as Vietnam's war entered a new phase and American helicopter units and provincial advisers were unpacking. She tells of traveling from her Saigon apartment to jungles where Wild West styled forts first dotted Vietnam's borders and where seven years later they fell like dominoes from communist led attacks. In 1965 she braved elephant grass with American combat units armed with unparalleled technology to observe their valor and their inability to distinguish friendly farmers from hide and seek guerrillas. Keever's trove of tissue thin memos to editors along with published and unpublished dispatches for New York and London media provide the reader with you are there descriptions of Buddhist demonstrations and turning point coups as well as phony ones. Two Vietnamese interpreters self described as darling spies helped her decode Vietnam's shadow world and subterranean war. These memoirs at once personal and panoramic chronicle the horrors of war and a rise and decline of American power and prestige.

Spies, Lies & Red Tape Amit Bagaria, 2019-10-09 The Gang of Six were clinching their fists under the 21 seater oval teak table in the PMO in New Delhi. How could their Prime Minister speak to them like that? How does the Constitution of India allow such people with just 35 seats out of 543 in the Lok Sabha to become the PM? The Indian PM's aircraft took off from Islamabad Airport at 7 45 am IST and was scheduled to land at the Indira Gandhi International Airport IGIA in New Delhi at 9 10 am IST. When the aircraft started deviating from its scheduled route there was panic at the IGIA air traffic control tower. By 9 15 am IST the aircraft was seen heading south when it became out of range of the radars at IGIA. Had the PM's aircraft been hijacked? Was it headed to Sri Lanka or the Maldives? The defence minister, external affairs minister and the NSA had accompanied the PM to Islamabad. In their absence the best men to contact the Indian Air Force Chief were the cabinet secretary or the defence secretary. Both men tried to get hold of him but to no avail. He was not answering his office or mobile phone. They tried the Vice Chief and got no response either. What in hell was going on? By 9 45 am IST Indian Army soldiers in battle gear began arriving in army trucks at North and South Block and at various other ministry buildings spread across Lutyens Delhi. Hundreds of soldiers also arrived at the residences of the union ministers in the 28 7 km² Lutyens Bungalow Zone. At 9 45 pm Pakistan Time about five hours after the Indian generals had finished the press conference in New Delhi and about two hours after millions had started demonstrating on roads across fifty plus Indian cities Prime Minister Irfan Khan chaired a meeting of Pakistan's National Security Council. A plan of action was framed.

Commandos Frank Walker, 2015-07-28 Amazing revelations and extraordinary exploits of Australia's elite secret warriors. There was something unique about Australians and New Zealanders in war that prompted World War II Allied commanders to turn to ANZAC soldiers, sailors and airmen to carry out the most dangerous and virtually impossible missions behind enemy lines. Paddling canoes 4 000 kilometres to attack enemy ships in Singapore, lightning raids on Rommel's forces in the deserts of North Africa, flying bombers at tree top level deep into Nazi Germany to destroy vital targets, rescuing sultans and future US presidents from under the noses of the Japanese and playing crucial roles in the greatest commando raid of the war at St Nazaire, the Aussies and Kiwis were there. The special forces showed incredible bravery in the face of overwhelming odds. They were determined to complete their missions. Often alone and far behind enemy lines they demonstrated resourcefulness, spirit and a humanity that inspired others to follow them. Frank Walker, author of bestselling books on the Vietnam War and the British atomic tests in Australia, brings to life the amazing exploits and extraordinary
