Spirits & Cocktails of Upstate New York: A History Don Cazentre, 2017 From the Hudson Valley to the Niagara River Upstate New York has a long and grand history of spirits and cocktails Early colonists distilled rum and pioneering settlers made whiskey In the 1800s a fanciful story of a tavern keeper and a cock's tail took root along the Niagara River and the earliest definition of the cocktail appeared in a Hudson Valley paper The area is home to its share of spirited times and liquid legends and the recent surge in modern distilleries and cocktail bars only bolsters that tradition Author Don Cazentre serves up these tales of Upstate New York along with more than fifty historic and modern cocktail recipes

Experiencing Religion Clara Saraiva, Peter Jan Margry, Lionel Obadia, Kinga Povedák, José Mapril, 2016 The various ethnologists and anthropologists contributing to this volume focus on the self perspective in relation to religion and spirituality on how religiosity is personally thought dreamt imagined created felt perceived and experienced in its various subjective forms The personal motive and practice in religion is here put to the front One can see this perspective also reflected in today's society in the ways people most strongly in the West are nowadays dealing with religion religiosity or spirituality often drifted far away from the institutional church organizations As a deeply personal experience it is amazing how little effort is undertaken in a scholarly way to put the personal reflections utterings and experiences into words A wide variety of personal religious or spiritual experiences Christian and non Christian recent and historical are now described and analysed in this fascinating volume Clara Saraiva is a senior researcher at the Lisbon Institute for Scientific Tropical Research in Lisbon a researcher of the Center for Research in Anthropology CRIA and a Professor at the Department of Anthropology Faculty of Social and Human Sciences Universidade Nova de Lisboa Peter Jan Margry is Professor for European ethnology at the University of Amsterdam and Senior Research Fellow at Meertens Institute KNAW Amsterdam Lionel Obadia is professor in anthropology at the University of Lyon Kinga Povedak is assistant research fellow at the HAS Research Group on Religious Culture at Hungarian Academy of Sciences Jose Mapril is lecturer in Anthropology at the New University of Lisbon and a research fellow at CRIA New University of Lisbon Centre for Anthropological Research Series Ethnology of Religion Vol 1 Subject Religious Studies Sociology Anthropology

The Globalization of Addiction Bruce K. Alexander, 2008-07-03 The Globalization of Addiction presents a radical rethink about the nature of addiction Scientific medicine has failed when it comes to addiction There are no reliable methods to cure it prevent it or take the pain out of it There is no durable consensus on what addiction is what causes it or what should be done about it Meanwhile it continues to increase around the world This book argues that the cause of this failure to control addiction is that the conventional wisdom of the 19th and 20th centuries focused too single mindedly on the afflicted individual addict Although addiction obviously manifests itself in individual cases its prevalence differs dramatically between societies For example it can be quite rare in a society for centuries and then become common when a tribal culture is destroyed or a highly developed civilization collapses When addiction becomes commonplace in a society people become addicted not only to alcohol and drugs but to a thousand other destructive pursuits money power dysfunctional relationships or video games A social perspective on addiction does not deny individual differences in vulnerability to addiction but it removes them from the foreground of attention because social determinants are more powerful This book shows that the social circumstances that spread addiction in a conquered tribe or a falling civilisation are also built into today s globalizing free market society A free market society is magnificently productive but it subjects people to irresistible pressures towards individualism and competition tearing rich and poor alike from the close social and spiritual ties that normally constitute human life People adapt to their dislocation by finding the best substitutes for a sustaining social and spiritual life that they can and addiction serves this function all too well The book argues that the most effective response to a growing addiction problem is a social and political one rather than an individual one Such a solution would not put the doctors psychologists social workers policemen and priests out of work but it would incorporate their practices in a larger social project The project is to reshape society with enough force and imagination to enable people to find social integration and meaning in everyday life Then great numbers of them would not need to fill their inner void with addictions

The Oxford Handbook of the Study of Religion Michael Stausberg, Steven Engler, 2016-11-17 The Oxford Handbook of the Study of Religion provides a comprehensive overview of the academic study of religion Written by an international team of leading scholars its fifty one chapters are divided thematically into seven sections The first section addresses five major conceptual aspects of research on religion Part two surveys eleven main frameworks of analysis interpretation and explanation of religion Reflecting recent turns in the humanities and social sciences part three considers eight forms of the expression of religion Part four provides a discussion of the ways societies and religions or religious organizations are shaped by different forms of allocation of resources Other chapters in this section consider law the media nature medicine politics science sports and tourism Part five reviews important developments distinctions and arguments for each of the selected topics The study of religion addresses religion as a historical phenomenon and part six looks at seven historical processes Religion is studied in various ways by many disciplines and this Handbook shows that the study of religion is an academic discipline in its own right The disciplinary profile of this volume is reflected in part seven which considers the history of the discipline and its relevance Each chapter in the Handbook references at least two different religions to provide fresh and innovative perspectives on key issues in the field This authoritative collection will advance the state of the discipline and is an invaluable reference for students and scholars

The Globalization of Addiction Bruce Alexander, 2010-03-04 Addiction is increasing all around the world and the conventional remedies don't work The Globalization of Addiction argues that the cause of this failure to control addiction is that past treatments have focused too single mindedly on the afflicted individual addict This book presents a radical rethink about the nature of addiction

Countercultures and Popular Music Sheila Whiteley, Jedediah Sklower, 2016-05-13 Counterculture emerged as a term in the late 1960s and has been re deployed in more recent decades in relation to other forms of cultural and socio political phenomena This volume provides an essential new academic scrutiny of the concept of counterculture and a critical examination of the period and its heritage Recent developments in sociological theory complicate and problematise theories developed in the 1960s with digital technology for example providing an impetus for new understandings of counterculture Music played a significant part in the way that the counterculture authored space in relation to articulations of community by providing a shared sense of collective identity Not least the heady mixture of genres provided a socio cultural political backdrop for distinctive musical practices and innovations which in relation to counterculture ideology provided a rich experiential setting in which different groups defined their relationship both to the local and international dimensions of the movement so providing a sense of locality community and collective identity

Abiding Faith Scott Cowdell, 2014-06-26 Australian theologian Scott Cowdell explores how having faith has changed under the influence of modernity and post modernity in the West Following the understanding of faith typical of Saint Paul the Fathers and the medieval monastic theologians faith is returned from pious sentimentality and arid philosophy of religion to the realm of participating knowing paradigmatic imagination and personal transformation where it belongs as a form of life shaped by encounter with Jesus Christ and worked out through the Eucharistic community
