Christopher Garrison, 2001-12-05 From the FOREWORD by Dan G Blazer M D Ph D Professor of Psychiatry Duke University Medical Center Occasionally a writer on psychology and biblical faith comes along who can work from the center J Christopher Garrison is such a writer Let me explain what I mean by working from the center No person who is thoroughly committed to his or her religious faith can really put that faith aside and work with scientific objectivity in blending the essence of that faith with the subject matter of empirical science Even if someone could I doubt that the project would be of great interest Such a person would not be someone I would define as working from the center A person who can work from the center in blending psychology and biblical faith is a person who can work not so much from the center of extremes as from the center of their being from their spirit if you will This ability shows itself when one has opened his or her innermost being to the Spirit of God and his or her mind and reason to modern psychology and truly grasped as a result the principles and concepts of what psychology is really about This is what Garrison has achieved In Garrison s Psychology of the Spirit psychology is not so much integrated as it is enriched Reading the end product deepens one s faith and one s understanding Such a psychology is not the mere providing of formulas for meeting daily life crises It is instead the total unfolding and renewal of one s inner being The Spirit Catches You and You Fall Down Anne Fadiman, 1998-09-30 Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award for Nonfiction The Spirit Catches You and You Fall Down explores the clash between a small county hospital in California and a refugee family from Laos over the care of Lia Lee a Hmong child diagnosed with severe epilepsy Lia s parents and her doctors both wanted what was best for Lia but the lack of understanding between them led to tragedy Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award for Nonfiction the Los Angeles Times Book Prize for Current Interest and the Salon Book Award Anne Fadiman s compassionate account of this cultural impasse is literary journalism at its finest _____ Lia Lee 1982 2012 Lia Lee died on August 31 2012 She was thirty

Race, Language and Culture Franz Boas, 2022-08-16 In Race Language and Culture Franz Boas rigorously interrogates the interrelations between these three fundamental aspects of human society Written in the early 20th century Boas employs an anthropological lens enriched by his advocacy for cultural relativism asserting that culture is a primary influence on human behavior rather than inherent racial characteristics His analytical style combines empirical evidence with philosophical inquiry challenging the scientific racism prevalent in his time and positioning culture as a dynamic entity shaped by historical context and social interactions Franz Boas often referred to as the Father of American Anthropology forged his theories against the backdrop of a rapidly evolving understanding of human diversity Influenced by his extensive fieldwork and linguistic studies he championed the idea that cultures are not hierarchically organized but are distinct yet equally valid expressions of human experience Boas's commitment to social justice and his opposition to racial bias shaped his scholarly endeavors underscoring the importance of evaluating human cultures on their own terms This seminal work is essential reading for anyone interested in anthropology sociology or the intersections of race and culture Boas's profound insights encourage readers to critically engage with preconceived notions about race and to appreciate the rich tapestry of human diversity making this book not only intellectually stimulating but also socially relevant

The Spirit and Service in Spirit Witness

Lee, 2001-01-01 The Bible reveals that the believers service to God including our worship prayer fellowship and work for God must come from the source of the divine Spirit in our human spirit Only the service that comes out of this kind of contact and fellowship is the service that God wants and only this kind of service is acceptable to Him In The Spirit and Service in Spirit Witness Lee shows that true Christian service is a matter of believers serving worshipping contacting and fellowshiping with the Spirit of God in their regenerated human spirit To this end we must deny ours self with its natural faculties and contact God dealing with Him thoroughly and inwardly Only then can we render service which is from God which takes God as its source which relies on God and which is for God
