God has communicated with his people throughout the ages in many ways. Adam and Eve encountered him directly in the Garden of Eden. Teresa of Avila experienced him through visions and Francis of Assisi heard his voice in nature. This book gives practical advice for connecting on a deeply personal level with God. It uncovers new places to look for God while providing reflection questions and activities to reinvigorate communication with God in such traditional areas as prayer and Bible study. Divided into twelve chapters conveniently organized for individual or group study, each section explores a different area in which we can deepen our individual communion with God. The Renovar Spiritual Formation Guides created by Richard J. Foster and the team that developed The Renovar Spiritual Formation Bible and the longstanding A Spiritual Formation Workbook provide tangible lessons that help us become spiritually formed, conformed, and transformed into the image of Jesus Christ. Geared for either individual study or use in small groups, each Renovar Spiritual Formation Guide explores one facet of our life with God, providing readings from Scripture as well as classic and contemporary works of spirituality. The combination of readings, reflection questions, exercises, and activities makes these books invaluable interactive guides that prompt true spiritual growth. Spiritual Formation in Emerging Adulthood David P. Setran, Chris A. Kiesling, 2013-08-15 The shift from adolescence to adulthood, a recently identified stage of life called emerging adulthood, covers an increasing span of years in today's culture, roughly ages 18-30, due to later marriages and extended education. During this prolonged stage of exploration and self-definition, many young adults drift away from the church. Here, two authors, both veteran teachers who are experienced in young adult and campus ministry, address this new and urgent field of study, offering a Christian perspective on what it means to be spiritually formed into adulthood. They provide a practical theology for emerging adult ministry and offer insight into the key developmental issues of this stage of life, including identity, intimacy, and sexuality, morality, church involvement, spiritual formation, vocation, and mentoring. The book bridges the gap between academic and popular literature on emerging adulthood and offers concrete ways to facilitate spiritual formation among emerging adults. Life in the Spirit Jeffrey P. Greenman, George Kalantzis, 2009-11-11 This volume, edited by Jeffrey P. Greenman and George Kalantzis, marks another compilation from the Wheaton Theology Conference 2009's event, produced the wealth of work represented here, exploring the theological foundations for a faithful approach to the church practices that contribute to spiritual formation, that is, to our sanctification in the power of the Holy Spirit. Including essays from keynote speakers Dallas Willard and Gordon Fee, as well as contributing essays by noted presenters such as Chris Hall, David Gushee, Linda Cannell, Cherith Fee Nordling, and Lawrence Cunningham, this book offers a stimulating exploration of the historical, biblical, and theological dimensions of spiritual formation. It will be of special interest to those who serve as pastors, spiritual directors, church ministry leaders, and Christian educators.
