Hermeneutical Community C. S. Barefoot, 2024-12-23 Many Western initiatives exist for theological development in the majority world but how often do practitioners from the West pause to examine the role they should play in that endeavor Missions history and church history have revealed inadequacies of imposing foreign theology on local churches yet the alternative of withdrawing from local theological development appears equally problematic If therefore the outsider's role is neither to impose theology nor withdraw from the task then what is his or her role Hermeneutical Community addresses this fundamental question and seeks to lay a sound missiological foundation for local theological development

A Liberation for the Earth A.M. Ranawana, 2022-11-30 In the encyclical Laodato Si Pope Francis describes the earth as the new poor opening it up as a place in need of liberation The fate of the poor the marginalised and those on the wrong side of the western colonial project is inextricably tied up with the fate of the planet In A Liberation for the Earth Anupama Ranawana explores the nexus between climate race and the liberative potential of the cross Reflecting on the entanglement between colonialization and the destruction of the planet she considers how this entanglement is played out and resisted within faith based and secular ecological justice movements in Canada Sri Lanka and the United Kingdom

The Story of Christian Spirituality Gordon Mursell, 2001 Beautifully illustrated throughout The Story of Christian Spirituality is a readable and vivid guide to the spiritual riches of one of the world's most influential religions Faith, Race and Inequality amongst Young Adults in South Africa Nadine Bowers Du Toit, 2022-07-04 For many young South African adults often called born frees who were born just before or just after the demise of political apartheid the ongoing realities of poverty and inequality bring to light the question of whether they truly are free in contemporary South Africa Their lived experiences of poverty and inequality seem to be in conflict with theologically laden concepts that remain prominent in social and political life such as reconciliation forgiveness justice and restitution This leads to a bi directional process of contesting and being contested by such notions and discourses Furthermore in light of the double legacy of both the church and youth as resisting injustice this publication seeks to explore the many perspectives from which the Christian faith race and inequality amongst youth can be brought to light

Christian Faith and Social Justice: Five Views Vic McCracken, 2014-06-19 The Judeo Christian tradition testifies to a God that cries out demanding that justice roll down like waters righteousness like an ever flowing stream Amos 5:24 Christians agree that being advocates for justice is critical to the Christian witness And yet one need not look widely to see that Christians disagree about what social justice entails What does justice have to do with healthcare reform illegal immigration and same sex marriage Should Christians support tax policies that effectively require wealthy individuals to fund programs that benefit the poor Does justice require that we acknowledge and address the inequalities borne out of histories of gender and ethnic exclusivity Is the Christian vision distinct from non Christian visions of social justice Christians disagree over the proper answer to these questions In short Christians agree that justice is important but disagree about what a commitment to justice means Christian Faith and Social Justice makes sense of the disagreements among Christians over the meaning of justice by bringing together five highly regarded Christian philosophers to introduce and defend rival perspectives on social justice in the Christian tradition The positions advocated and critiqued are libertarianism political liberalism liberation theology feminism and virtue ethics While it aspires to offer a lucid introduction to these theories the purpose of this book is more than informative It is purposefully dialogical and is structured so that contributors are able to model for the reader reasoned exchange among philosophers who disagree about the meaning of social justice The hope is that the reader is left with a better understanding of range of perspectives in the Christian tradition about social justice

African Women's Theologies, Spirituality, and Healing Oduyoye, Mercy Amba, 2019 African women come from a long tradition as practitioners of healing Drawing on this tradition and on her own pastoral and theological work Mercy Amba Oduyoye a distinguished Methodist theologian from Ghana discusses the spirituality that undergirds Christian healing practices in Africa with a special focus on diseases that predominantly affect women

Sámi Nature-Centered Christianity in the European Arctic Tore Johnsen, 2022-07-22 Sámi Nature Centered Christianity in the European Arctic unpacks the theological significance of North Sámi indigenous Christianity demonstrating how the tension between Sámi nature centered Christianity and official Norwegian Lutheranism has broad theological relevance Focusing on Christian cosmological orientation the author argues that this is not fully given within the Christian faith itself It is partly shaped by the religious philosophical frameworks that various historical receptions of Christianity were filtered through The author substantiates that two different types of Christian cosmological orientation are negotiated in the North Sámi Christian experience one reflecting a Sámi historical reception of Christianity primarily filtered through the egalitarian world intuition of the Sámi indigenous tradition another reflecting official Norwegian Lutheranism primarily filtered through a Greek hierarchical world construct passed down among European intellectual elites The argument is developed through thick description of local everyday Christianity among reindeer herding river and sea Sámi communities in Finnmark Norway through critical engagement with historical and contemporary Lutheranism and through constructive dialogue with African and Native American theologies The author suggests that the egalitarian multi relational logic of Sámi nature centered Christianity points beyond the hierarchical binaries delimiting much of the theological imagination of dominant Christian theologies
