Treaty No. 9 John Long,2010 Restoring nearly forgotten perspectives to the historical record. John Long considers the methods used by the government of Canada to explain Treaty No 9 to Northern Ontario First Nations. He shows that many crucial details about the treaty's contents were omitted in the transmission of writing to speech while other promises were made orally but not included in the written treaty. Reproducing the three treaty commissioners' personal journals in their entirety Long reveals the contradictions that suggest the treaty parchment was never fully explained to the First Nations who signed it. pub website
