The Hungarian Revolution And War Of Independence 1848 1849 A Military History East European Monographs:

The Hungarian Revolution and War of Independence, 1848-1849 Gábor Bona,1999 Parliamentarism in Northern and East-Central Europe in the Long Eighteenth Century István M. Szijártó,Wim Blockmans,László Kontler,2022-09-30 This volume investigates the history of the representative assemblies of Sweden the riksdag Poland the sejm and Hungary the diaeta in the final period of the ancien régime It concentrates on the practices and ideas of parliamentarism and constitutionalism and examines the ideologies that motivated the members of these parliaments Attempts at the suppression as well as the restoration of the estates power in all these three countries are examined as well as in the case of Hungary the establishment of popular representation that eventually replaced the estates These three early modern representative assemblies have never before been explored systematically in a comparative framework

19th-Century Hungarian Political Thought and Culture Ferenc Hörcher,Kálmán Tóth,2023-06-15 This volume presents the ideas of the main actors of the political scene in the Hungarian Kingdom during the long 19th century 1790 1920 Organised around key political thinkers the book considers the most significant paradigms of thought associated with these figures and the critical political events of the day Beginning with an introductory overview of 19th century Hungary in a European context which includes the main features of Hungarian political thought 19th Century Hungarian Political Thought and Culture explores the fundamental characteristics of the country's political system and the geopolitical background to political discourse in the region at the time The contributors reflect on the stories of some of the most influential voices as well as their networks impacts and legacies Through this the book is able to offer novel insights into how Western political culture was perceived and adapted in a country long considered by many to belong to the European periphery Bibliographic Guide to Slavic, Baltic, and Eurasian Studies ,2000

1956: the Hungarian Revolution and War for Independence Lee Congdon,Béla K. Király,Károly Nagy,2006 This comprehensive history follows the trajectory of the Hungarian Revolution of 1956 including essays from a range of noted scholars and historians and reactions from leading non Hungarian intellectuals of the time such as Albert Camus and Jean Paul Sartre An appendix reprints the texts of crucial primary sources Slavic Review ,1985 Coverage of Russian Eurasian and East European issues Gifts from Jerusalem Jews to the Austro-Hungarian Monarchs Lily Arad,2022-06-21 Presentations of offerings to the emperor king on anniversaries of his accession became an important imperial ritual in the court of Franz Joseph I This book explores for the first time the identity constructions of Orthodox Jewish communities in Jerusalem as expressed in their gifts to the Austro Hungarian Kaisers at the time of dramatic events It reveals how the beautiful gifts their dedications and their narratives were perceived by gift givers and recipients as instruments capable of acting upon various social cultural and political processes Lily Arad describes in a captivating manner the historical narratives of the creation and presentation of these gifts She analyzes the iconography of these gifts as having transformative effect on the self identification of the Jewish communities and examines their reception by the Kaisers and in the Austrian and the Palestinian Jewish press This groundbreaking book unveils Jewish cultural and political strategies aimed to create local Eretz Israel identities demonstrating distinct positive communal identification which at times expressed national sentiments and at the same time preserved European identification The Emperor and the Peasant Kenneth Janda, 2018-01-12 There was more to World War I than the Western Front This history juxtaposes the experiences of a monarch and a peasant on the Eastern Front Franz Josef I emperor of Austria Hungary was the first European leader to declare war in 1914 and was the first to commence firing Samuel Mozolák was a Slovak laborer who sailed to New York and fathered twins taken as babies and U S citizens to his home village before being drafted into the Austro Hungarian army and killed in combat The author interprets the views of the war of Franz Josef and his contemporaries Kaiser Wilhelm II and Tsar Nicholas II Mozolák's story depicts the life of a peasant in an army staffed by aristocrats and also illustrates the pattern of East European immigration to America The Emancipation of the Serfs in Eastern Europe Emil Niederhauser, 2004 This volume by Hungary's preeminent scholar of Eastern European social history illustrates the similarities and differences among the region's social and governmental structures by focusing on the cases of Prussia Mecklenburg the Habsburg Empire the Russian empire and Romania East European Accessions Index, 1958

The Hungarian Revolution and War of Independence Gábor Bona, 1999 The Ideas of the Hungarian Revolution Lee Congdon, Béla K. Király, 2002 Taking as its starting point the long standing characterization of Milton as a Hebraic writer Milton and the Rabbis probes the limits of the relationship between the seventeenth century English poet and polemicist and his Jewish antecedents Shoulson's analysis moves back and forth between Milton's writings and Jewish writings of the first five centuries of the Common Era collectively known as midrash In exploring the historical and literary implications of these connections Shoulson shows how Milton's text can inform a more nuanced reading of midrash just as midrash can offer new insights into Paradise Lost Shoulson is unconvinced of a direct link between a specific collection of rabbinic writings and Milton's works He argues that many of Milton's poetic ideas that parallel midrash are likely to have entered Christian discourse not only through early modern Christian Hebraicists but also through Protestant writers and preachers without special knowledge of Hebrew At the heart of Shoulson's inquiry lies a fundamental question When is an idea a theme or an emphasis distinctively Judaic or Hebraic and when is it Christian The difficulty in answering such questions reveals and highlights the fluid interaction between ostensibly Jewish Hellenistic and Christian modes of thought not only during the early modern period but also early in time when rabbinic Judaism and Christianity began Evolution of the Hungarian Economy, 1848-2000 György Csáki, Gábor Karsai, 2001 After describing the overall macroeconomic development of the Hungarian economy the volume focuses on privatization foreign direct investment inflows the development of the corporate sector and the country's preparation for accession to the European Union Finally the book provides a short term forecast for 2002 Hungary in the Dual Monarchy, 1867-1914 László Katus, 2008 Under the Austro Hungarian Dual Monarchy both countries had economic autonomy but because of their alliance they shared a common market and monetary system This arrangement was a decisive element in Hungary s development during this dynamic era which was characterized by a surge in the country s economy population modernization and cultural civil and legal institutions L szl Katus covers the major political parties and social trends of this period as well as the changes in its ethnic and religious population which later proved detrimental to the monarchy

Hungary in the Age of the Two World Wars, 1914-1945 Mária Ormos,2007 Maria Ormos focuses on the Horthy Period and assesses the immeasurable human and material costs caused by Arrow Cross rule and the Soviet dominate provisional wartime administration This book clarifies all the historical factors that affected Hungarian society during this era including the worldwide financial crisis of the Great Depression Ormos analyzes Hungary s economic and market ties with Germany and the subsequent exploitation of Hungarian resources She also identifies 1932 as a year when limited economic recovery and diplomatic success shifted to the exploitation of Hungary for German war preparation Finally this volume analyzes the process of realignment of Hungarian society in the context of vital areas of land tenure and educational scientific and social policy

Evolution of the Hungarian Economy, 1848-1998 János Kornai,2000 Historical Abstracts ,2000 Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998

The Hungarian Parliament, 1867-1918 András Gerő,1997 The Hungarian Parliament 1867 1918 A Mirage of Power analyses parliamentary representation in Hungary under the Austro Hungarian Monarchy It offers an insight into the workings of a specifically Central European form of liberalism by describing the legal social national and cultural aspects of the representation mechanism and depicting the atmosphere in which a legitimation process characterised by both conservative and liberal elements gradually unfolded This book attempts to discover why the first modern attempt to establish a constitutional state in Central Europe was so unsuccessful while nevertheless creating a solid and liberal framework for pre Trianon multinational Hungary and the region as a whole for over half a century

Hungarians in the Voivodina, 1918-1947 Enikő A. Sajti,2003 This work exposes the effects of the following factors on minority policies in the Viovodina Yugoslav Hungarian relations the Hungarian Party in Yugoslavia founded in 1922 the agrarian reforms the three changes of supreme power for example the Kingdom of Yugoslavia until 1941 the Hungarian state until 1945 and the Tito regime until 1947 It presents details of the first atrocities of the Hungarian armed forces at Novi Sad in 1941 1942 as well as the ethic cleansing committed by the Yugoslav partisans against Hungarians after 1945
