The I Of The Sermon Autobiography In The Pulpit Fortress Resources For Preaching:

The "I" of the Sermon Richard L. Thulin, 2004-11-22 The issues are clear If one preaches Christ how does one avoid preaching oneself How do you avoid the fall into Narcissus pond What allows one's humility to show How much does one dare reveal about oneself Thulin handles these questions with sensitivity and skill using his own and others sermons for examples and critique He carefully and incisively describes four types of personal story available to preachers the features and functions of each and the degree of the preacher's self disclosure allowed by each Most of his book deals with the personal story as self portrayal that type being the most comprehensive form of first person narrative An appendix includes three sermons one each by Edmund Steimle Martin Luther King Jr and John Vannorsdall often used to disclose the intent of Thulin's I in this book

A Preach Well Church Josh Taylor, 2023-04-12 Thirty eight percent of pastors have given serious thought to leaving full time ministry in the last year Between the COVID 19 pandemic and the unpredictable never done work of the ministry is it any wonder that many pastors have contemplated resigning Add to this church members unrealistic expectations and a knack for criticism and we see the toll this has taken on pastors and in one area in particular preaching Empty preachers are filling pulpits Is there anything church members can do to help their pastors with burnout and the essential stress of preaching week in week out After extensive research on the subject ninety seven pastors were asked What can your church members do to help you preach well Each chapter in this book is a commitment a clear concrete action developed from the study that church members can take to help their pastors preach well Each chapter also includes a section entitled A Word to Pastors that offers encouragement to those in ministry to help reduce their stress and become better preachers

The Living Church, 1968

The "I" of the Sermon Richard L. Thulin, 1989 Richard Thulin focuses on four types of personal story illustration reminiscence confession and self portrayal He describes the essential elements of each type and demonstrates how each can proclaim Christ place hearers under the judgment and grace of God be integrated parts of the sermon in which they appear and accurately express the biblical text The I of the Sermon contributes to a general understanding of narrative preaching and suggests ways by which the tellers of personal story can avoid narcissism privatism and the isolated tale Evaluations of actual sermon texts and guidelines for responsible use of personal story are included From publisher's description

Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R. Bowker Company, 1982

Preaching is Believing Ronald J. Allen, 2002-01-01 In Preaching Is Believing Allen calls for preachers to help congregations cultivate a systematic approach to

Christian faith and life by bringing systematic theology directly into the pulpit Making Your Way to the Pulpit Jerrilee Parker Lewallen, William Hoover Hethcock, 2010-10-15 Making Your Way to the Pulpit is a book for beginning preachers for preachers who will never have a seminary course called homiletics the art of preaching for preachers who studied homiletics with William Hethcock and want a review and for all preachers who are looking for a tested reliable approach to sermon preparation In short this is a book for those who preach regularly or occasionally and would like a clear guide for making their way to the pulpit At the School of Theology SoFT University of the South Sewanee Tennessee the Rev Dr William H Hethcock directed field education from 1979 to 1985 and taught homiletics from 1985 until his retirement in 1997 After retiring he continued to teach homiletics on semester contracts at the SoFT and the Virginia Theological Seminary VTS He remains active as a teacher speaker on the subject of preaching and preacher Assimilating the work of other scholars Hethcock developed his own process for approaching sermon preparation on a weekly basis This book summarizes and describes the Hethcock method When followed his process reliably gets the preacher to the pulpit with a biblical proclamation that resonates with individuals in today s congregations Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2001 Preaching and the Other Ronald J. Allen, 2008-11-01 Preaching and the Other introduces the reader to six major themes characteristic of the postmodern era that are important for preaching and explains their implications Themes discussed include perception as interpretation deconstruction otherness transgression pluralism and the importance of apologetics A House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation s history study their community s demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further Homiletical Handbook Donald L. Hamilton, 1992-10-01 Homiletical Handbook is a primer for those who are called to preach It is intentionally simple in its explanation of the homiletical task and straightforward in getting to the point It is solid in its theology and biblical in its approach Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston, 2021 Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching Donna Giver Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth century America Jarena Lee Frances Willard Louisa Woosley and Florence Spearing Randolph These women diverse in religion race class and culture each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit Preaching in the Purple Zone Leah D. Schade, 2019-04-23

Preaching in the Purple Zone is a resource for helping the church understand the challenges facing parish pastors while encouraging and equipping preachers to address the vital justice issues of our time. This book provides practical instruction for navigating the hazards of prophetic preaching with tested strategies and prudent tactics grounded in biblical and theological foundations. Key to this endeavor is using a method of civil discourse called deliberative dialogue for finding common values among politically diverse parishioners. Unique to this book is instruction on using the sermon dialogue sermon process developed by the author that expands the pastor's level of engagement on justice issues with parishioners beyond the single sermon. This book equips clergy to help their congregations respectfully engage in deliberation about hot topics, find the values that bind them together, and respond faithfully to God's Word. Kairos Preaching David Schnasa

Jacobsen, Robert Allen Kelly, Although lectionary and worship allow us to deepen our appreciation for the Bible and the themes and emphases of the Christian calendar, they sometimes fail to allow preachers to speak the gospel directly to the situations that occupy their congregations. This book is designed to help pastors and seminarians discover resources they already have to unpack situations and understand them theologically in light of their task of preaching the gospel. One Gospel Many Ears Ronald J. Allen, Joseph R. Jeter, Every time a congregation gathers for worship, many different people from different points in life with different needs and perspectives come together, each refracting messages through their own lenses. Each person processes communication in ways that are influenced by age, gender, race, personality type, ethnicity, education, and social and economic background. Jeter and Allen explore how these factors affect the ways in which members of the congregation receive and process sermons and how the preacher can optimize the opportunity for each to hear and understand the gospel and one another. Remembering the Body Sarah Travis, 2025-03-18

Debates about human sexuality have divided the church across denominations. The Body of Christ has been wounded by profound theological disagreement. Preaching can be a healing balm for those who have been bruised and harmed by these debates. This book asks the church to remember its own nature as a Body that has a baptismal identity rooted in the triune God. We remember the beauty and value of the human body, and we remember that we belong to a baptismal community with a distinctive ethic. Sermons are an opportunity to refresh and heal a Body that has been broken by division. By affirming sexuality and the body, preachers can build toward an affirmation of all sexual identities while making space for those whose theology is not affirming. In recovering the body as a focus for preaching, this book argues for a more equitable and inclusive understanding of Christian identity. Small Church, Excellent Ministry Jeffrey C. Farmer, 2017-12-21

Pastors of smaller membership churches have a huge calling. They are responsible for changing the world. Rather than look at the small number of members in their congregations as a limitation, pastors should view their congregations as an elite force able to impact their communities for the Kingdom of God Small Church Excellent Ministry is a handbook designed for pastors serving in smaller membership churches This book will help you to conduct your ministry with excellence Written by practitioners and professors the information provided in this book is on the vanguard of pastoral ministry and is useful for training pastors to be leaders of their churches Preaching Liberation James H. Harris, For all preachers who take seriously the church's role as a catalyst of social and spiritual transformation James Harris advocates the salient features of liberation preaching especially as exemplified in black church settings
