Pilgrimage to Jerusalem and the Holy Land, 1187-1291 Denys Pringle,2016-04-08 This book presents new translations of a selection of Latin and French pilgrimage texts and two in Greek relating to Jerusalem and the Holy Land between the fall of Jerusalem to Saladin in 1187 and the loss of Acre to the Mamluks in 1291 It therefore complements and extends existing studies which deal with the period from Late Antiquity to Saladin s conquest Such texts provide a wealth of information not only about the business of pilgrimage itself but also on church history topography architecture and the social and economic conditions prevailing in Palestine in this period Pilgrimage texts of the 13th century have not previously been studied as a group in this way and because the existing editions of them are scattered across a variety of rather obscure publications they tend to be under utilized by historians despite their considerable interest For instance they are often more original than the texts of the 12th century representing first hand accounts of travellers rather than simple reworkings of older texts Taken together they document the changes that occurred in the pattern of pilgrimage after the fall of Jerusalem in 1187 during its brief reoccupation by the Franks between 1229 and 1244 and during the period from 1260 onwards when the Mamluks gradually took military control of the whole country In the 1250s 60s for example because of the difficulties faced by pilgrims in reaching Jerusalem itself there developed an alternative set of holy sites offering indulgences in Acre The bringing of Transjordan southern Palestine and Sinai under Ayyubid and later Mamluk control also encouraged the development of the pilgrimage to St Catherine s monastery on Mount Sinai in this period The translations are accompanied by explanatory footnotes and preceded by an introduction which discusses the development of Holy Land pilgrimage in this period and the context dating and composition of the texts themselves The book concludes with a comprehensive list of sources and a detailed index Pilgrimage to Jerusalem and the Holy Land, 1187-1291 Professor Denys Pringle,2013-07-28 This book

Pilgrims' Castle ('Atlit), David's Tower (Jerusalem) and Qal'at ar-Rabad ('Ajlun) C.N. Johns, Denys Pringle, 2019-05-23 First published in 1997 this collection includes papers on Crusader era architecture in Palestine with a focus on Atlit the castle of Ajlun and on the Citadel of Jerusalem both the papers and sites of which have previously been difficult to access The volume is presented partly to repair the very real deficit in the literature on Crusader architecture and partly as a fitting memorial to the author who died in 1992 Atlit in particular held a special significance for C N Johns being the site of his first major project as a field archaeologist His Guide to Atlit a masterly summary of his findings remains the most complete and comprehensive account of the castle and its suburb The studies collected here pay tribute to their author s enduring contribution to the medieval archaeology of the Near East The first part of the book deals with the Pilgrim s Castle the great Templar fortress and town at Atlit The significance of Johns excavations at this site has been relatively neglected because it remains in a military area inaccessible to visitors and because almost the entire stock of his major publication was lost in 1947 This Guide to Atlit a synthesis of historical archaeological and architectural research on the monument is reprinted here together with all the interim reports relating to the medieval period Also included are Johns studies on the Citadel of Jerusalem the Tower of David and on the Islamic castle of Ajlun Together they represent a fundamental contribution to the study of the period of the Crusades and to the military architecture of the Middle Ages The notes by Denys Pringle bring the accounts up to date in the light of recent research
