encounter religious meaning Not where they used to In ten lively and wide ranging essays William Closson James examines various derivations of the sacred in contemporary Canadian culture Most of the essays focus on the religious aspects of modern Canadian English fiction for example in essays on the fiction of Hugh MacLennan Morley Callaghan Margaret Atwood and Joy Kogawa But James also explores other non literary events and activities in which Canadians have found something transcendent or revelatory Each of the chapters in Locations of the Sacred can be read independently as a discrete analysis of its subject Taken as a whole the essays make up a powerful argument for a new way of looking at the religious in contemporary Canada not in the traditional ways of being religious but in activities and locations previously thought to be secular Thus the domains and modes of the religious are expanded not restricted From Cohen to Carson Ian Rae, 2008-03-26 From Cohen to Carson provides the first book length analysis of one of Canada's most distinctive fields of literary production Ian Rae argues that Canadian poets have turned to the novel because of the limitations of the lyric but have used lyric methods puns symbolism repetition juxtaposition to create a mode of narrative that contrasts sharply with the descriptive conventions of realist and plot driven novels International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Failure's Opposite Norman Ravvin, Sherry Simon, 2011 A M Klein has remained an enduring but elusive presence in the Canadian literary consciousness since his death in 1972 Klein's legacy has been mixed his literary achievement sometimes overshadowed by his reclusiveness and withdrawal from the literary world Failure's Opposite presents a fresh perspective on Klein's reception and legacy exploring why he has remained a compelling figure for critics and readers His experimentalism drew upon strong traditions and fluency in several languages English French Yiddish and Hebrew allowing him to develop a multilingual modernist Jewish voice that is a touchstone for understanding Canada's multicultural identity His struggle with the emotional and historical dimensions of diaspora is of considerable importance throughout his work and is investigated through the lenses of translation voice and his relationship to other Jewish writers Contributors also re evaluate Klein's connection to Montreal and the original ways in which he captured the atmosphere of his jargoning city Failure's Opposite reflects the many ways A M Klein is being remade refashioned and reconstructed in the twenty first century both as a bridge to the past and a model for contemporary critical
