The Imperial Experience In Sub Saharan Africa Since 187:

The African Colonial State in Comparative Perspective Crawford Young, 1994-01-01 In this comprehensive and original study a distinguished specialist and scholar of African affairs argues that the current crisis in African development can be traced directly to European colonial rule which left the continent with a singularly difficult legacy that is unique in modern history Crawford Young proposes a new conception of the state weighing the different characteristics of earlier European empires including those of Holland Portugal England and Venice and distilling their common qualities He then presents a concise and wide ranging history of colonization in Africa from the era of construction through consolidation and decolonization Young argues that several qualities combined to make the European colonial experience in Africa distinctive The high number of nations competing for power around the continent and the necessity to achieve effective occupation swiftly yet make the colonies self financing drove colonial powers toward policies of ruthless extractive action The persistent virulent racism that established a distance between rulers and subjects was especially central to African colonial history Young concludes by turning his sights to other regions of the once colonized world comparing the fates of former African colonies to their counterparts elsewhere In tracing both the overarching traits and variations in African colonial states he makes a strong case that colonialism has played a critical role in shaping the fate of this troubled continent

Nationalism and the State John Breuilly, 1982 Since its publication this important study has become established as a central work on the vast and contested subject of modern nationalism Placing historical evidence within a general theoretical framework John Breuilly argues that nationalism should be understood as a form of politics that arises in opposition to the modern state In this updated and revised edition he extends his analysis to the most recent developments in central Europe and the former Soviet Union He also addresses the current debates over the meaning of nationalism and their implications for his position Breuilly challenges the conventional view that nationalism emerges from a sense of cultural identity Rather he shows how elites social groups and foreign governments use nationalist appeals to mobilize popular support against the state Nationalism then is a means of creating a sense of identity This provocative argument is supported with a wide ranging analysis of pertinent examples national opposition in early modern Europe the unification movement in Germany Italy and Poland separatism under the Hapsburg and Ottoman empires fascism in Germany Italy and Romania post war anti colonialism and the nationalist resurgence following the breakdown of Soviet power Still the most comprehensive and systematic historical comparison of nationalist politics Nationalism and the State is an indispensable book for anyone seeking to understand modern politics

Divide and Rule H. L. Wesseling, 1996-07-30 Describes the history of the European partition of Africa emphasizing the role of individuals and concrete rather than abstract factors Contains sections on the occupation of Tunisia and Egypt the Congo and the creation of the Free State Germany and Great Britain in East Africa France and Great Britain in West Africa the Long March to Fashoda Boers and Britons in South Africa and the partition of

Tarbert,1979 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1977 British Books in Print ,1980 Africa Insight ,1988 Education Marginalization in Sub-Saharan Africa Obed Mfum-Mensah,2018-08-15 This book focuses on education policy framework for educating marginalized children in sub Saharan Africa It uses marginality as a critical discourse to highlight the complicated ways education policy making in sub Saharan Africa have constructed and perpetuated marginality in the region since Africa s encounters with Europe The book is organized around two parts each of which discusses a specific dimension of the marginality and education policy nexus Part I focuses on theorizations of marginality and education The theoretical framework on marginality and education outlines the definitional and conceptual backgrounds on marginality the complicated ways policies of the Christian missionaries colonial governments and postcolonial governments constructed and perpetuated marginality in the region Part II focuses on addressing the issue of marginality from theory to practice These chapters highlight the ways policies shaped the educational development schooling processes and educational outcomes of selected marginalized communities and groups Attention is given to schooling in rural communities the complexities of girls education in rural contexts education of Zongo Muslim communities violence in school in rural contexts and education collaboration in rural traditional communities The book argues that education policies in sub Saharan Africa fail to address the educational needs of marginalized children because current policy frameworks ae not based on examination of colonial policies which created the existing marginality In order to implement policies that address policy gaps and meet the educational needs of marginalized children strong synergies are necessary between education policy makers other education stakeholders and marginalized communities The Politics of Economic Reform in Ghana Richard Aidoo,2019-05-13 This book explores the significant economic transformation of Ghana over the three decades since the end of the Cold War focusing on the role of political economic change and reform The Politics of Economic Reform in Ghana presents a range of perspectives from scholars drawn from both academia and policy making on the way Ghanaian economic reforms have been shaped by various political and economic actors First it establishes and debates the uniqueness of Ghana as a case study in Africa and the developing world Second the book offers a broad account of how global and domestic political or institutional actors have contributed to shaping economic development in Ghana Drawing on theoretical perspectives the volume assesses how major political economic changes have affected Ghana s economic development This book will be of interest to students scholars policymakers and organizations interested in the economic and political advancement of Africa as well as African Politics and Economics Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997

Empire Under the Microscope Emilie Taylor-Pirie,2021-11-26 This open access book considers science and empire and the stories we tell ourselves about them Using British Nobel laureate Ronald Ross 1857 1932 and his colleagues as access points to a wider professional culture Empire Under the Microscope explores the cultural history of parasitology and its relationships with the literary and historical imagination between 1885 and 1935 Emilie Taylor Pirie examines a wealth of archival material including medical lectures scientific publications popular biography and personal and professional correspondence alongside novels poems newspaper articles and political speeches to excavate the shared vocabularies of literature and medicine She demonstrates how forms such as poetry and biography genres such as imperial romance and detective fiction and modes such as adventure and the Gothic together informed how tropical diseases their parasites and their vectors were understood in relation to race gender and nation From Ancient Greece to King Arthur s Knights to the detective work of Sherlock Holmes parasitologists manipulated literary and historical forms of knowledge in their professional self fashioning to create a modern mythology that has a visible legacy in relationships between science and society today

Decolonising Media and Communication Studies Education in Sub-Saharan Africa Selina Linda Mudavanhu, Shepherd Mpofu, Kezia Batisai, 2023-10-27 The book provides insights on decolonising media and communication studies education from diverse African scholars at different stages of their careers These academics located on the continent and in the diaspora share an interest in decolonising higher education broadly and media and communication studies teaching and learning in particular Although many African countries gained flag independence from different European colonial powers between the 1950s and the 1970s this book argues that former colonies remain ensnared in a colonial power matrix Many African universities did not jettison ways of teaching and learning established during colonialism and even those journalism communication and media studies training programmes which were established after the attainment of flag independence did not place decolonial agendas at the front and centre when setting them up Starting with big picture thematic questions around decolonisation the book goes on to consider what the implications of change would be for students and instructors before reflecting on how far it is possible to decolonise curricula and syllabi and what this might look like in practice across a range of subject areas and country contexts Overall this book presents a nuanced picture of what a decolonised media and communication studies education could look like in sub Saharan Africa This book is essential for researchers in Africa in disciplines such as media and communication studies journalism film studies cultural studies and higher education studies More broadly the concepts and ideas on decolonising teaching and learning discussed in the book are relevant to instructors in any discipline who are interested in doing the decolonial work of contesting coloniality

Apartheid's Reluctant Uncle Thomas Borstelmann, 1993 Borstelmann history Cornell U brings to light the neglected history of Washington s strong but hushed backing for the white supremacist National Party government that won power in South Africa in 1948 and for its formal establishment of apartheid Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Africa ,1991 The Soviet Union in the Third World, 1980-85: an Imperial Burden on Political Asset? ,1985 The NGO Game Patrice C. McMahon,2017-06-13 In most post conflict countries nongovernmental organizations are everywhere but their presence is misunderstood In The NGO Game Patrice McMahon investigates the unintended outcomes of what she calls the NGO boom in Bosnia and Kosovo Using her years of fieldwork and interviews McMahon argues that when international actors try to rebuild and reconstruct post conflict countries they often rely on and look to NGOs Although policymakers and scholars tend to accept and even celebrate NGO involvement in post conflict and transitioning countries they rarely examine why NGOs have become so popular what NGOs do or how they affect everyday life After a conflict international NGOs descend on a country local NGOs pop up everywhere and money and energy flow into strengthening the organizations In time the frenzy of activity slows the internationals go home local groups disappear from sight and the NGO boom goes bust Instead of peace and stability the embrace of NGOs and the enthusiasm for international peacebuilding turns to disappointment if not cynicism For many in the Balkans and other post conflict environments NGOs are not an aid to building a lasting peace but are part of the problem because of the turmoil they foster during their life cycles in a given country The NGO Game will be useful to practitioners and policymakers interested in improving peacebuilding the role of NGOs in peace and development and the sustainability of local initiatives in post conflict countries The Emergent African Union Law Olufemi Amao,Michèle Olivier,Konstantinos D. Magliveras,2021-10-07 This book is a groundbreaking study of the emergence of a unique African Union legal system with contributions from a diverse collection of scholars and practitioners It highlights how law stands at the heart of the successful regional integration effort in Africa and explores among other issues the extent to which African Union law is having an impact on domestic laws This trend has been particularly noticeable in the area of human rights the rule of law democratic principles and aspects of constitutional law Furthermore the book examines how the African Union is engendering new norms from its legal order such as the non indifference norm the norm on unconstitutional change of government free trade free movement of people economic regulation and democratic constitutionalism The book also analyses how the African Union legal order has led to the emergence of a continental level judicial system The quasi judicial system put in place under the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights and administered by the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights is now complemented by the African Court on Human and Peoples Rights This book contends that the continental level judicial system is playing a crucial role in the moulding of emergent norms
