The Industrial Archaeology Of Glasgow:

The Industrial Archaeology of Glasgow John R. Hume,1974 The Industrial Archaeology of Scotland John Butt,1967 The Historical Geography of Scotland Since 1707 David Turnock,2005-08-04 This is the first book to take a comprehensive view of the historical geography of Scotland since the Union The period is divided into sections separated by the Napoleonic Wars and the First World War and each section offers a general view followed by detailed studies giving a balanced coverage of regional and urban rural criteria and the economic infrastructure The book contains a number of original researches and Dr Turnock attempts to set the Scottish experience in a framework of general ideas on modernisation

The Industrial Archaeology of Scotland: The lowlands and the borders John R. Hume,1976 The Oxford Handbook of Industrial Archaeology Eleanor Casella,Michael Nevell,Hanna Steyne,2022 Through international and multi period chapters this volume explores the origins and development of industrialization from its emergence in 18th century Europe to its contemporary ubiquity It interrogates the widespread exploitation of natural resources that forged industrialization and its environmental and social legacy in our globalized world Twentieth Century Industrial Archaeology Michael Stratton,Barrie Trinder,2014-04-04 This book examines the industrial monuments of twentieth century Britain Each chapter takes a specific theme and examines it in the context of the buildings and structure of the twentieth century The authors are both leading experts in the field having written widely on various aspects of the subject In this new and comprehensive survey they respond to the growing interest in twentieth century architecture and industrial archaeology The book is well illustrated with superb and unique illustrations drawn from the archives of the Royal Commission on the Historical Monuments of England It will mark and celebrate the end of the century with a tribute to its remarkable built industrial heritage Walking Through Glasgow's Industrial Past Ian R Mitchell,2024-08-19 Walking Through Glasgow

s Industrial Past sets out to retrieve the hidden architectural cultural and historical riches of some of Glasgow s industrial and working class districts Many who enjoy the fruits of Glasgow s recent gentrification may be surprised and delighted by the gems which Ian Mitchell has uncovered beyond the usual haunts The Industrial Archaeology of Northern Ireland William Alan McCutcheon,1984 A major study of the growth and decline of transport and industry in Ulster this extremely detailed and comprehensive book throws new light on the infrastructure of corn grinding spade forging paper making and other industries and examines the mechanics of early road bridge and canal construction more than 850 photographs and charts are contained in this volume Perspectives on Industrial Archaeology Neil Cossons,2000 Today we are surrounded by the physical legacy of over two centuries of industrialisation factories canals industrial towns and cities By the 1950s some of these relics of early industry began to take on a new significance they were seen as an archaeological and historical reflection that needed to be captured by recording and occasionally preservation Industrial archaeology arose out of a widespread recognition of this need In this book distinguished authors review developments in industrial archaeology in

Britain from the mid 1950s when the term first appeared in print to the present and offer some prospects for the future Publication coincided with the International Congress on the Conservation of the Industrial Heritage held in Britain in 2000

Monographs on Industrial Archaeology Mary A. Vance,1984 Industrial Archeology Jean E. Koch,1979 Scottish Industrial Archaeology & Transport Weekend ,1967 The Archaeology of Ironbridge Gorge in 20 Digs Michael Nevell,2023-12-15 Published with the blessing and full cooperation of the Ironbridge Gorge Museums Trust this book explores the archaeology of the birthplace of the Industrial Revolution The Scottish Glass Industry 1610-1750 Jill Turnbull,2001 Glassmaking was one of the earliest manufacturing industries to be set up in Scotland but one about which little information has been published This monograph aims to rectify that situation by documenting the early days of Scottish glass production from the granting of the first patent in 1610 up to the mid 18th century Turkey Red Julie Wertz,2024-01-25 This multi disciplinary study examines the exceptional Turkey red textile dyeing process and product Prized for its brilliant colour and durability yet notoriously difficult to produce the textile was consumed locally and exported around the world Considered one of the first instances of industrial espionage the expansion of the Turkey red industry is closely linked to the Industrial Revolution and the emergence of a new global economy Significant technological advances in chemistry and dyeing were motivated by the demands of Turkey red dyers and printers who were located primarily in the west of Scotland the north of England and around Mulhouse Switzerland This book explores the arc of the Turkey red industry the evolution of the process through key producers and technical developments the complicated printing process and finishes with an examination of significant Turkey red collections and a selection of object case studies The chemistry of the process is described in an accessible contextual manner highlighting the significance of the distinctive technique that yielded the best red attainable on cotton Drawing on both historical and contemporary study Turkey Red presents significant new research on the material characterisation of this fascinating eye catching textile and offers an in depth historical example of the global effect of textile consumption Industry in the Landscape, 1700-1900 Peter Neaverson,Marilyn Palmer,2002-01-31 Two hundred years of industry have transformed the British landscape This book enables the reader to reconstruct the landscape of past industry The authors are industrial archaeologists of national standing whose concern is to use surviving material evidence and contemporary sources to study the former working conditions of men and women Comprehensive in coverage the book examines fuels metals clothing food building and transport It makes clear the tangible elements which form the basis for recreation of past landscapes and demonstrates both their function and the context in which they should be considered Manufacturing the Cloth of the World Roger Holden,2017 This well illustrated book is the first comprehensive study of the weaving sector of the Lancashire cotton industry to be published The focus is on the development of weaving mills against the background of the economic development and organisation of the industry Hand loom weaving was carried out in domestic premises or small workshops Early power looms were installed in multi storey mills combined with spinning the characteristic form of single storey shed with north light roof used solely for weaving developing later The construction power systems and layout of these mills are considered in detail The book is based on original research looking at both the mills themselves and documentary sources including plans and company records

Glasgow's East End Through Time Gordon Adams,2014-10-15 This fascinating selection of photographs traces some of the many ways in which Glasgow s East End has changed and developed over the last century Geographies of

Post-Industrial Place, Memory, and Heritage Mark Alan Rhodes II,William R. Price,Amy Walker,2020-11-23 All industrialization is deeply rooted within the specific geographies in which it took place and echoes of previous industrialization continue to reverberate in these places through to the modern day This book investigates the overlap of memory and the impacts of industrialization within today s communities and the senses of place and heritage that grew alongside and in reaction to the growth of mines mills and factories The economic and social change that accompanied the unchecked accumulation of wealth and exploitation of labor as the industrial revolution spread throughout the world has numerous lasting impacts on the socioeconomics of today Likewise the planet itself is now reeling The memory and heritage of these processes reach into the communities that owe the industrial revolution their existence but these populations also often suffered adverse impacts to their health and environment through the large scale and rapid extraction of natural resources and production of goods Through the themes of memory community and place working post industrial landscapes and the de romanticization of industrial pasts this book examines the endurance and decline of these communities the spatial processes of industrial byproducts and the memory and heritage of industrialization and its legacies While based in the traditions of geography this collection also draws upon and will be of great interest to students and scholars of cultural anthropology archaeology sociology history architecture civil engineering and heritage memory museum and tourism studies Using global examples the authors provide a uniquely geographic understanding to industrial heritage across the spaces places and memories of industrial development The Routledge Handbook of Memory and Place Sarah De Nardi,Hilary

Orange,Steven High,Eerika Koskinen-Koivisto,2019-08-20 This Handbook explores the latest cross disciplinary research on the inter relationship between memory studies place and identity In the works of dynamic memory there is room for multiple stories versions of the past and place understandings and often resistance to mainstream narratives Places may live on long after their physical destruction This collection provides insights into the significant and diverse role memory plays in our understanding of the world around us in a variety of spaces and temporalities and through a variety of disciplinary and professional lenses Many of the chapters in this Handbook explore place making its significance in everyday lives and its loss Processes of displacement where people s place attachments are violently torn asunder are also considered Ranging from oral history to forensic anthropology from folklore studies to cultural geographies and beyond the chapters in this Handbook reveal multiple and often unexpected facets of the fascinating relationship between place and memory from the individual to the collective This is a multi and intra disciplinary collection of the latest most influential approaches to the interwoven and dynamic issues of place and memory It will be of great use to researchers and academics working across Geography Tourism Heritage Anthropology Memory Studies and Archaeology
