Inspiration and Authority Paul J. Achtemeier, 1999 In an evaluation of the Scriptures as the word of God inspiration is an essential element The long Protestant experience with this issue is both fruitful and painful for many have drawn false conclusions from the justified belief in inspiration Paul Achtemeier is a first rate scholar who combines scientific investigation with faith and his sensitivity and honesty make this a most useful book for all interested in the Bible A better practical book on the subject would be hard to find Raymond E Brown former Auburn Distinguished Professor Emeritus Union Theological Seminary New York if Achtemeier's book reaches that large body of Christians looking for a nonfundamentalistic doctrine of Scripture it could play a major role in creating a framework for them He comes across as possessing a deep love and respect for the Bible and for the Lord and eager for people to place their minds and lives beneath its authority He offers us in the end of the doctrine of a covenantal Scripture given by God to his people for their edification and renewal a dynamic document which can perform this service two thousand years after its completion confronting us with God's Word for our situation through the power of the Spirit I am highly grateful for this book and recommend it highly to others Clark H Pinnock Professor of Theology McMaster Divinity College The Inspiration and Authority of Holy
