CAVENOMICS: Turning Towards Light Binu Peniel, 2018-07-04 The allegory of the cave by Plato is the genre of this book Plato claims that knowledge gained through the senses is no more than opinion and in order to have real knowledge we must gain it through philosophical reasoning A journey through this book is intended to create a lasting influence in the lives of people through creating values I believe that enlightenment is possible only through awareness and through a mind shift This work brings value to your life which is Christ centered innovative motivational and empowering and it is a journey towards light There are many people who journey with me in this process of healing recovery and restoration from a labor trafficking situation I truly believe no one can be a slave until and unless one gives up ones willpower and ones own desire to be set free

Cavenomics is an attempt to enlighten your mind your spirit your soul and your being Liberation freedom recovery and restoration is possible Cavenomics is the mantra for success R.A.C.E. Mentoring Through Social Media Donna Y. Ford,Michelle Trotman Scott,Ramon B. Goings,Tuwana T. Wingfield,Malik S. Henfield,2016-12-01 The Ivory Tower is and can often be a lonely place for faculty of color Social injustices run deep and are entrenched within academia Faculty of color FOC more specifically Black and Hispanic often lament about the Black Brown tax that frequently takes its toll both personally and professionally and pushes them out of the academy Similar to trends in P 12 settings educators of color in postsecondary contexts represent less than 10% of the profession In essence we are an anomaly and the implications of this are clear and dire as evidenced by persistent achievement access and expectation gaps within the academy Scholars of color SOC at all stages but particularly during doctoral training frequently struggle to not just survive but to thrive in the academy Too many fail to earn their doctoral degree with many wearing the All But Dissertation ABD as a badge of honor Although ABD is not a degree many scholars of color receive inadequate mentoring often substandard in comparison to the hand holding White students receive which leaves far too many doctoral students of color lost bewildered angry indignant and defeated This righteous indignation is justified but excused away using the myth of meritocracy and colorblind notions of success followed by a myriad of problems steeped with victim blaming as noted in the classic Presumed Incompetent The Intersections of Race and Class for Women in Academia Gutierrez y Muhs Niemann Gonzalez Harris 2012 The aforementioned work was not the first treatise on higher education and how the non status quo along with those grappling with oppression and double standards experience the profession called higher education Moreover The Chilly Climate Sandler Silverberg Hall 1996 report which focused on females was also telling but not enough was addressed and disclosed about females of color until version two But these issues do not stop with females of color but instead extend to all faculty of color R A C E Mentoring a social media Facebook group with several subgroups see Figures 1 and 2 was created by Donna Y Ford Michelle Trotman Scott and Malik S Henfield in 2013 to tackle the numerous thorny and contentious issues and challenges in higher education We began by intentionally attending to the needs of students enrolled at mostly White universities as well as those who attended historically Black colleges and universities while keeping the unique nuances and challenges of each setting in mind We wanted scholars of color to thrive in both Fondly and affectionately called RM our charge and challenge is to affirm the dignity and worth of scholars of color Additionally we recognize that there are scholars outside of academe and their contributions as well to impact and affect change for Black and Brown people inside and outside of academe need to be acknowledged These scholars are community organizers activists P 12 teachers and families It truly takes a village Total Family Makeover Melissa Spoelstra,2016-09-20 God calls us as parents to be key disciple makers in our children s lives but if we re honest some days it s a battle just to get them dressed and ready for school on time How can you mold their hearts when sometimes you can t even find their shoes In Total Family Makeover author Melissa Spoelstra gives parents a way a sort of spiritual track to run on when it comes to building family discipleship She focuses on eight key habits of growth Spending Time in Prayer Reading God's Word Growing Through a Mentoring Relationship Finding Community in the Church Serving Others Taking Time to Rest Giving Back to God Sharing Your Faith Disciples are made not born Whether your children are babes in arms or teenagers getting ready to leave the nest making disciples at home starts with you Give your family a makeover with this practical approach to helping your children learn what it means to be a follower of Jesus

The Return Of The Mentor Brian J. Caldwell, Earl M.A. Carter, 2003-09-02 This is a book on the good practice of mentoring written by scholars and practitioners in education health and industry It considers the roles of the mentor mentee in changing workplaces affected by external forces including technology the economy and the dismantling of middle management structures and offers guidelines for those who seek good practice and the nurturing of the individual in a caring and collaborative culture A brief history of mentoring and its subsequent usage is presented with special attention paid to the gender issues New concepts such as shadowing and reflective interviewing are introduced and explained and strategies are presented in such a way that they can be applied and adapted in any setting The whole process therefore aims to empower the professional in a school university or industrial level and with others towards a more effective and perceptive practice All those involved in education and training of individuals at a school college or industrial level training will find this useful

The Myth of Black Corporate Mobility Ulwyn L. Pierre, 2021-11-18 First Published in 1999 This book addresses one such needed change in the corporate arena the continuing inequality of opportunities for success that blacks experience relative to their similarly qualified white peers in the U S Through interviews and research the author tries to find the answers that still need explanation due to the stereotypes of blacks and other minorities that were kept alive through various media
