Lepage,2012-12-05 This book examines the revival of antique philosophy in the Renaissance as a literary preoccupation informed by wit Humanists were more inspired by the fictionalized characters of certain wise fools including Diogenes the Cynic Socrates Aesop Democritus and Heraclitus than by codified systems of thought Rich in detail this study offers a systematic treatment of wide ranging Renaissance imagery and metaphors and presents a detailed iconography of certain classical philosophers Ultimately the problems of Renaissance humanism are revealed to reflect the concerns of humanists in the twenty first century Historicizing Theory Peter C. Paxson, 1994-02-25 Literary personification has long been taken for granted as an important aspect of Western narrative Paul de Man has given it still greater prominence as the master trope of poetic discourse James Paxson here offers a much needed critical and theoretical appraisal of personification in the light of poststructuralist thought and theory The poetics of personification provides a historical reassessment of early theories together with a sustained account of how literary personification works through an examination of narratological and semiotic codes and structures in the allegorical texts of Prudentius Chaucer Langland and Spenser The device turns out to be anything but an aberration oddity or barbarism from ancient medieval or early modern literature Rather it works as a complex artistic tool for revealing and advertising the problems and limits inherent in narration in particular and poetic or verbal creation in general
