Complete Book of Dreams and Complete Guide to Astrological Self Care Landscapes of Decadence Alex

Murray, 2016-12-01 The challenges posed by Decadence to Victorian moral conventions particularly sexual have been well documented but this book makes the case for understanding Decadence as a response to the ways in which place was accorded moral value in the period The book uses landscape as a key trope for exploring Decadent writing's approach to location and identity Drawing on a wide range of fin de siècle literature organised around a series of locations from Naples to New York Murray argues that Decadent writers developed a form of landscape and place based writing using a series of stylistic features to challenge the increasing homogenisation of both place and literary culture Decadence and the literature of the fin de siècle are re framed as a politically engaged form of landscape writing This is an ambitious and richly researched study The Dream of an Absolute Language Lynn Rosellen Wilkinson, 1996-01-01 Traces the reception of Swedenborg's doctrine of correspondences in French literature and culture from the late 1700s to 1870 The English Novel, Vol II Richard. W. F. Kroll, 2014-07-21 The English Novel Volume II Smollett to Austen collects a series of previously published essays on the early eighteenth century novel in a single volume reflecting the proliferation of theoretical approaches since the 1970s The novel has been the object of some of the most exciting and important critical speculations and the eighteenth century novel has been at the centre of new approaches both to the novel and to the period between 1750 and 1800 Richard Kroll's introduction seeks to frame the contributions by reference to the most significant critical discussions These include the general importance of sentimentalism as a cultural movement after 1750 its relationship to the emergence of the Gothic novel as a specific genre or mode the rapid rise in the number of women novelists in the later eighteenth century the relationship between the novel as mediator of social relations and the idea of the public sphere the relationship between novelistic codes and the massive growth of a consumerist society the class conflicts of writers like Smollett the effect on the novel of the new British nation and the effects of the French Revolution and the subsequent political debates on writers like Wollstonecraft Godwin and Austen This collection will be of interest to students of the later enlightenment and also to all who are interested in late eighteenth century radicalism and the general relationship between literature history and politics

Changing Bodies in the Fiction of Octavia Butler Gregory Jerome Hampton, 2010-10-14 Changing Bodies in the Fiction of Octavia Butler Slaves Aliens and Vampires is a timely text that critically situates Butler's fiction in several fields of study including American African American gender and science fiction studies This book attempts to avoid excluding as many readers as possible by evading esoteric jargon while still engaging the interdisciplinary discourses that respond to Butler's fiction The study asserts that Butler's fiction transforms the way the body is imagined with reference to race and gender This text examines how Butler's fiction is able to cross several genre boundaries while simultaneously reshaping the genre of science fiction This book makes the claim that Butler's fiction is crucial for contemporary and future investigations of identity formation Discussions of race class and sex are reoccurring topic that are inextricable to any understanding of body politics and theory This book is filled with exciting and insightful discussions that raise questions about what constitutes humanity in Butler's fiction and in the real world Ultimately the purpose of the text is to add to the scholarship surrounding Butler and to bring her to the attention of audiences that might otherwise overlook her work This book is an invitation for readers inside and outside of the academy to discover the fiction of Octavia Butler
