The Language Of Love And Guilt Motherdaughter Relationships From A Crosscultural Perspective:

The Language of Love and Guilt Ruth Wodak, Muriel Schulz, 1986 Although mother and daughter are two central female roles they have rarely been investigated The relationship is specific certainly different than the mother son or father daughter relationships And this difference manifests itself in sex specific language behavior Despite eternal features of the mother daughter relationship its quality is affected by individual psychological and by sociocultural variables Thus investigations took place in two big cities with very different structures and traditions Vienna and Los Angeles This is the first cross cultural study which reflects and combines multiple linguistic socio psycholinguistic and text linguistic categories approaches and methods to be able to investigate such an important topic as family relationships and the place of women nowadays in our societies

Mothers and Daughters Alice H. Deakins, Rebecca Bryant Lockridge, Helen M. Sterk, 2012-06-21 Family stories of the ties between mothers and daughters form the foundation of Mothers and Daughters Complicated Connections Across Cultures Nationally and internationally known feminist scholars frame analyze and explore mother daughter bonds in this collection of essays Cultures from around the world are mined for insights which reveal historical generational ethnic political religious and social class differences This book focuses on the tenacity of the connection between mothers and daughters impediments to a strong connection and practices of good communication Mothers and Daughters will interest those studying communication women s studies psychology sociology anthropology counseling and cultural studies

Mothers and Their Adult Daughters Karen L. Fingerman, Ph.D, 2009-12-02 The mother daughter tie takes on unique characteristics as daughters enter midlife and mothers enter old age Incorporating vivid descriptions by mothers and daughters about their relationships this book addresses both the rewards and the difficulties mothers and daughters experience in maintaining their relationships into old age Based on interviews with 48 mothers over age 70 and their adult daughters Dr Fingerman begins with an overview of this relationship which she points out can be distinguished from other social ties by the strength of the mother daughter bond Next she discusses the positive features of this bond and various theories about its social and psychological nature This discussion is followed by an examination of problems encountered between mothers and daughters The last section looks at reactions of mothers and daughters to tensions conflicts communication problems and other difficulties This excellent study will be of interest not only to researchers in women s and family studies but any mother and daughter Aging Mothers and Their Adult Daughters Karen L. Fingerman, PhD,2001-01-04 As far as I am aware there is no other scholarly book on adult mother daughter relationships particularly one that incorporates data from pairs of mothers and daughters I believe that the contents provide useful material for instructors researchers and therapists alike Rosemary Blieszner PhD Professor of Gerontology and Family Studies Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University The mother daughter tie is one that persists well past childhood and it takes on unique characteristics as daughter enter midlife and mothers enter old age Incorporating vivid descriptions by mothers and daughters about their relationships this book addresses both the rewards and the costs that mothers and daughters incur in maintaining their relationships into old age For psychologists gerontologists and sociologists as well as academics and researchers in women s and family studies Mothers and Daughters in Arab Women's Literature Dalya Abudi,2010-11-11 This study explores the mother daughter relationship as the most fundamental and most intimate female relationship It draws on both early and contemporary writings of Arab women to illuminate the traditional and evolving nature of mother daughter relationships in Arab families and how these family dynamics reflect and influence modern Arab life Women's Narratives of Ageing and Care Emily Jeremiah, Shirley Jordan,2025-03-03 Care is fundamental to human survival yet it is often overlooked undermined undervalued and thought of as women s work Care of the old is particularly low in status and is too readily occluded This volume asks why and how cultures of care for older people are negatively configured It examines some of the powerful responses to relationships of intergenerational care in recent creative works by women It thereby contributes to the contemporary imperative to transform care by investigating some of the ways in which care might be redefined and reconceptualized Taking as its focus the representation or narrativization of care in theory literature visual culture and performance it engages with contemporary female authored works from diverse cultural contexts encouraging the development of comparative cross cultural perspectives Narrative is key here for it is in stories about ageing and care that the complexities and ambiguities of care relationships are made available and that simplified ideas about them are challenged This volume will be of interest to scholars in literary and cultural studies gender studies critical age studies the medical and health humanities and all who are interested in care A Feminist Companion to Ruth and Esther Athalya Brenner-Idan,1999-04-01 The second series of Feminist Companions moves beyond the confines of sex and gender specific issues and studies of biblical women Biblical feminist critics now address contemporary life situations marginalization and a range of questions once not thought accessible to such critique Feminist theory has also continued a rapid evolution Among the topics included in this volume are composition Torah Ruth the Cat female networking together with much else to inform and stimulate female and male biblical scholars and non scholars Constructing Inequality in Multilingual Classrooms Luisa Martín Rojo,2010-07-30 In her groundbreaking and innovative study the author takes us on a fascinating journey through some of Madrid's multilingual and multicultural schools and reveals the role played by linguistic practices in the construction of inequality through such processes as what she calls de capitalization and ethnicization Through a critical sociolinguistic and discourse analysis of the data collected in an ethnographic study the book shows the exclusion caused by monolingualizing tendencies and ideologies of deficit in education and society The book opens a timely discussion of the management of diversity in multilingual and multicultural classrooms both for countries with a long tradition of migration flows and for those where the phenomenon is relatively new as is the case in Spain This study of linguistic practices in the classroom makes clear the need to rethink some key linguistic concepts such as practice competence discourse and language and to integrate different approaches in qualitative research The volume is essential reading for students and researchers working in sociolinguistics education and related areas as well as for all teachers and social workers who deal with the increasing heterogeneity of our late modern societies in their work

Language

Research in Multilingual Settings Lubie Grujicic-Alatrisme, 2020-02-29 This book describes the steps undertaken by language researchers to disseminate their findings at sites of practice It discusses questions that arise from such efforts and provides meaningful real life first hand accounts of both interactions with practitioners and practitioners feedback The authors use narrative accounts case studies and semi ethnographies of focus groups and workshops to draw a full picture of dissemination its intricacies multiple stakeholder interests reflexivity challenges and future relevance and responsibility for all parties involved It is an attempt to fill the gap between the end of research domains and the places of dissemination of research findings and the book will be of interest to applied linguistics researchers students and scholars of organisational discourse and practitioners working in multilingual settings

Sex, Race, and Family in Contemporary American Short

Stories M. Bostrom, 2007-08-06 This book reveals a female sexual economy in the marketplace of contemporary short fiction which locates a struggle for sexual power between mothers and daughters within a larger struggle to pursue that object of the American dream whiteness

Family Businesses in the Arab World Sami Basly, 2017-05-18 This book focuses on topics such as the cultural specificity of Arab family businesses with regard to shaping their governance and management the influence that specific values in the Arab world could exert on the management of family businesses how spiritual and religious values influence business in Arab family firms and the role of emotions in the management of family firms in the Arab World Presenting a collection of contributions addressing management finance strategy and succession in Arab Family businesses this book constitutes a novel and unique contribution to the research field of family businesses

Gender and

Discourse Ruth Wodak, 1997 Discourse and Gender demonstrates the considerable contribution of feminist linguistics and critical discourse analysis to the understanding of gender and sex making clear the relevance of theoretical insights for social research in general

Whose Language? Jacob Mey, 1985-01-01 For the colonized person objectivity is always directed against him Frantz Fanon Colonized persons do not live on what we call or used to call the colonies alone In general objective reality or the facts of life are very different depending on the kind of life you can afford This goes for language as well and it explains both the title of this book and gives it its raison d'être It deals with power in language and asks Who is really in command when we use our language And why does it make sense to talk about a language of power or lack of it The powerful are the colonizers the colonized are the powerless in language as in geopolitics Colonizers and colonized alike however are subject to the social and economic conditions prevailing in society and therefore a thorough analysis of these conditions is a must for any socially oriented theory of language use

The SAGE Handbook of Sociolinguistics Ruth Wodak, Barbara Johnstone, Paul E Kerswill, 2011 This Handbook answers a long standing need for an up to date comprehensive international in depth critical survey of the history trajectory data results and key figures involved in sociolinguistics The result is a work of unprecedented coverage and insight It is all here from the foundational contributions to the field to the impact of new media new technologies of communication globalization trans border fluidities and agendas of research

Latin American Women On/In Stages Margo Milleret, 2012-02-16 While a feminine perspective has become more common on Latin American stages since the late 1960s few of the women dramatists who have contributed to this new viewpoint have received scholarly attention Latin American Women On In Stages examines twenty four plays written by women living in Argentina Brazil Chile Costa Rica Mexico Puerto Rico and Venezuela While all of the plays critique the restraints placed on being female several also offer alternatives that emphasize a broader and healthier range of options Margo Milleret using an innovative comparative and thematic approach highlights similarities in the techniques and formats employed by female playwrights as they challenged both theatrical and social conventions She argues that these representations of women's lives are important for their creativity and their insights into both the personal and public worlds of Latin America

Writing Bonds Manuela Palacios, Laura Lojo, 2009 This book focuses on the emergence of women poets from the 1980s to the present in both Ireland and Galicia Departing from common ground in shared myths and comparable political and social circumstances each contributor to this volume looks into central aspects of Irish and Galician identity issues which range from configurations of the nation nature and feminine paradigms to the poets elaborations on their own literary practice The comparative approach followed shows both that questions raised in one community can find relevant answers in the other and that reciprocal knowledge helps to disseminate the writers work and the criticism of it beyond their respective national borders This collection of essays and interviews also provides both poets and critics with a mutual space in which to voice their concerns thus bringing down the barrier that is often raised artificially between these two literary activities

Feminist Critical Discourse Analysis M. Lazar, 2005-01-07 The first collection to bring together well known scholars writing from feminist perspectives within Critical Discourse Analysis The theoretical structure of CDA is illustrated with empirical research from a range of locations from Europe to Asia the USA to Australasia and domains from parliament to the classroom the media to the workplace

Lesbian Discourses Veronika Koller, 2008-02-19 Lesbian Discourses is the first book length treatment of lesbian text and discourse It looks at what changing images of community American and British lesbian authors have communicated since 1970 how this change can be traced in texts such as pamphlets magazines and blogs and why this change has taken place At the heart of the book is a detailed linguistic analysis which is embedded in a discussion of the relevant socio political contexts and discourse practices and supplemented by interview data The book can more generally be read as an example of how to do textual analysis in social research in particular how to engage in the discourse historical and socio cognitive study of collective identity Despite its text centered approach the book avoids being overly technical and will therefore be of interest not only to postgraduate students and researchers in linguistics but also to those in anthropology history and sociology especially women s gender studies

Methods of Text and Discourse

Analysis Stefan Titscher, Bryan Jenner, 2000-07-28 This volume is the most comprehensive overview to date of sociologically orientated approaches to text and discourse analysis and is worth reading even for those who are interested only in purely linguistic approaches to text and discourse Its main merit I think is that it introduces approaches which up to now have hardly been admitted into the universe of scientific discourse Discourse Studies Methods of Text and Discourse Analysis provides the most comprehensive overview currently available of linguistic and sociological approaches to text and discourse analysis Among the 10 linguistic and sociological models surveyed in this book some of the more important are Grounded Theory Content Analysis Conversation Analysis and Critical Discourse Analysis The book presents each approach according to a standardised format which allows for direct systematic comparisons The fully annotated lists of sources provide readers with an additional means of evaluation of the competing analytical methods Interdisciplinary and international in its aims Methods of Text and Discourse Analysis suggests the benefits both linguists and sociologists will derive from a more intimate knowledge of each others methods and procedures
