The Language Of News Media:

The Language of News Media Allan Bell, 1991-01-01 Written by a linguist who is himself a journalist this is a uniquely informed account of the language of the news media New Media Language Jean Aitchison, Diana M. Lewis, 2003 Investigating how changes to the world's media have affected and been affected by language this book explores a wide range of topics looking at the important and wide ranging implications of these changes on the world and our world view

Introducing the Language of the News M. Grazia Busa, 2013-08-15 Introducing the Language of the News is a comprehensive introduction to the language of news reporting Assuming no prior knowledge of linguistics the book provides an accessible analysis of the processes that produce news language and discusses how different linguistic choices promote different interpretations of news texts Key features include comprehensive coverage of both print and online news including news design and layout story structure the role of headlines and leads style grammar and vocabulary a range of contemporary examples in the international press from the 2012 Olympics to political events in China and the Iraq War chapter summaries activities sample analyses and commentaries enabling students to undertake their own analyses of news texts a companion website with extra activities further readings and web links Written by an experienced researcher and teacher this book is essential reading for students studying English language and linguistics media and communication studies and journalism New Media Language Jean Aitchison, Diana M. Lewis, 2003 From newspapers and television to email the Internet and text messaging there are ever increasing media conduits for the news The Language of the News Martin Conboy, 2013-12-16 The Language of the News investigates and critiques the conventions of language used in newspapers and provides students with a clear introduction to critical linguistics as a tool for analysis Using contemporary examples from UK USA and Australian newspapers this book deals with key themes of representation from gender and national identity to race and looks at how language is used to construct audiences to persuade and even to parody It examines debates in the newspapers themselves about the nature of language including commentary on political correctness the sensitive use of language and irony as a journalistic weapon Featuring chapter openings and summaries activities and a wealth of examples from contemporary news coverage including examples from television and radio The Language of the News broadens the perceptions of the use of language in the news media and is essential reading for students of media and communication journalism and English language and linguistics The U.S. Military in the Print News Media Dr. Luke Peterson, 2024-04-02 This book provides an innovative and critical view into the linkages between discourse and politics and between culture and policies within the United States looking at various critical moments in the history of the development of the American Empire Ultimately this book provides insight into the complex interrelationships between policy the military discourse and culture focusing upon the power centres of discourse creation while connecting previously disjointed lines of historical and media research considering the U S military and its undisputed global impact throughout the twentieth and

twenty first century EBOOK: Developing Scientific Literacy: Using News Media in the Classroom Ruth Jarman, Billy McClune, 2007-03-16 This is an excellent source of ideas on using the media to enrich science teaching and engage pupils It contains numerous ideas on using newspapers and other sources in science and how to encourage young people to read them carefully and critically Prof Jerry Wellington School of Education University of Sheffield UK Throughout the book all the ideas content suggestions and arguments are supported by in depth research and solid referencing making this an authoritative yet eminently readable reference volume for current and would be secondary science teachers School Science Review Science related news stories have great potential as a resource for teaching and learning about science and its impact on society By demonstrating the relevance of the subject in everyday life they can form a valuable bridge between the school classroom and the real world Worldwide those advocating science education reform stress the need to promote scientific literacy among young people and typically this includes equipping students to critically engage with science reports in the media However very little guidance exists for those who wish to do so Developing Scientific Literacy addresses this gap offering a much needed framework for teachers wishing to explore science in the media in secondary schools or colleges It suggests how teachers across a number of subject areas can collaborate to promote among young people an aptitude and ability to engage thoughtfully with science in the media Drawing on research and development work the authors Describe key characteristics of science news reporting Discuss its potential as a resource for teaching and learning about science and for developing young people s criticality in respect of such reports Identify appropriate instructional objectives and suggest activities through which these might be achieved This timely book is a source of valuable ideas and insights for all secondary science teachers It will also be of interest to those with responsibilities for initial teacher training and continuing professional development News Media Translation Federico Zanettin, 2021-11-11 The translation of information is of central concern to scholars and researchers in the humanities and social sciences Based on interdisciplinary research this book provides a wide ranging accessible introduction to research in translation practices processes and products in the news media present and past Palestine-Israel in the Print News Media Luke Peterson, 2014-10-24 Israel Palestine in the Print News Media Contending Discourses is concerned with conceptions of language knowledge and thought about political conflict in the Middle East in two national news media communities the United States and the United Kingdom Arguing for the existence of national perspectives which are constructed distributed and reinforced in the print news media this study provides a detailed linguistic analysis of print news media coverage of four recent events in the Palestinian Israeli conflict in order to examine ideological patterns present in print news media coverage The two news communities are compared for lexical choices in news stories about the conflict attribution of agency in the discussion of conflict events the inclusion or exclusion of historical context in explanations of the conflict and reliance upon essentialist elements during and within print representations of Palestine Israel The book also devotes space to first hand testimony from journalists with extensive experience covering the conflict from within both news media institutions Unifying various avenues of academic enquiry reflecting upon the acquisition of information and the development of knowledge this book will be of interest to those seeking a new approach to the Palestinian Israeli conflict Language in the News Roger Fowler,2013-10-08 Newspaper coverage of world events is presented as the unbiased recording of hard facts In an incisive study of both the quality and the popular press Roger Fowler challenges this perception arguing that news is a practice a product of the social and political world on which it reports Writing from the perspective of critical linguistics Fowler examines the crucial role of language in mediating reality Starting with a general account of news values and the processes of selection and transformation which go to make up the news Fowler goes on to consider newspaper representations of gender power authority and law and order He discusses stereotyping terms of abuse and endearment the editorial voice and the formation of consensus Fowler s analysis takes in some of the major news stories of the Thatcher decade the American bombing of Libya in 1986 the salmonella in eggs affair the problems of the National Health Service and the controversy of youth and contraception

The News Media C.W. Anderson,Leonard Downie Jr,Michael Schudson,2016-08-11 The business of journalism has an extensive storied and often romanticized history Newspaper reporting has long shaped the way that we see the world played key roles in exposing scandals and has even been alleged to influence international policy The past several years have seen the newspaper industry in a state of crisis with Twitter and Facebook ushering in the rise of citizen journalism and a deprofessionalization of the industry plummeting readership and revenue and municipal and regional papers shuttering or being absorbed into corporate behemoths Now billionaires most with no journalism experience but lots of power and strong views are stepping in to purchase newspapers both large and small This addition to the What Everyone Needs to Know series looks at the past present and future of journalism considering how the development of the industry has shaped the present and how we can expect the future to roll out It addresses a wide range of questions from whether objectivity was only a conceit of late twentieth century reporting largely behind us now how digital technology has disrupted journalism whether newspapers are already dead to the role of non profit journalism the meaning of transparency in reporting the way that private interests and governments have created their own advocacy journalism whether social media is changing journalism the new social rules of old media outlets how franchised media is addressing the problem of disappearing local papers and the rise of citizen journalism and hacker journalism It will even look at the ways in which new technologies potentially threaten to replace journalists News Talk Colleen Cotter, 2010-02-11 Written by a former news reporter and editor News Talk gives us an insider's view of the media showing how journalists select and construct their news stories Colleen Cotter goes behind the scenes revealing how language is chosen and shaped by news staff into the stories we read and hear Tracing news stories from start to finish she shows how the actions of journalists and editors and the limitations of news writing formulas may distort a story that was prepared with the most determined effort to be fair and accurate Using insights from both linguistics and journalism News Talk is a remarkable picture of a hidden world and its working practices on both sides of the Atlantic It will interest those involved in language study media and communication studies and those who want to understand how media shape our language and our view of the world

The News Media In National And International Conflict Andrew Arno, Wimal Dissanayake, 2019-07-11 Ironically as telecommunications technology the embodiment of modernity advances bringing people in different nations into more direct contact during conflict situations traditional cultural factors become increasingly important as differing ways of thinking and acting collide The mass media can be seen as a factor in the creation of international conflict they also claim many scholars are the key to control and resolution of those problems Whichever side of the coin one chooses to look at mass communication as cause or cure of conflict there is no doubt that the news media are no longer peripheral players on the global scene they are important participants whose organizational patterns of behavior values and motivations must be taken into account in understanding national and international conflict In this volume a distinguished group of authors explores the variety of ways the news media newspapers radio and television are involved in conflict situations Conflicts between the United States and Iran India and Pakistan and the United States and China are examined and national level studies in Sri Lanka Iran Hong Kong and the United States provide varied contexts in which the authors look at the complex interrelationships among government news media and the public in conflict situations The News Media in Puerto Rico Federico Subervi-Vélez, Sandra Rodríguez-Cotto, Jairo Lugo-Ocando, 2020-10-27 The News Media in Puerto Rico offers a synopsis as well as a critical analysis of the Island's news media system with emphasis on the political and economic factors that most influence how the media operate The authors also document the impact of Hurricane Maria on the media structures and the changing media landscape given the political economic and colonial strictures Building on interviews with news media professionals the book further presents detailed insights about journalism and journalism education in these times of crises The final chapters include theoretical frameworks and methodological guidelines for the analysis of other colonial post colonial and neo colonial media systems with research recommendations valuable for future studies of the Island s media as well as for cross national comparisons This book will be an essential read for students and scholars interested in learning not only about the Puerto Rican and Latin American mass media but also the media systems of other colonial neo colonial countries

Corporate Reputation and the News Media Craig Carroll,2010-09-01 This volume examines agenda setting theory as it applies to the news media s influence on corporate reputation It presents interdisciplinary international and empirical investigations examining the relationship between corporate reputation and the news media throughout the world Providing coverage of more than twenty five countries contributors write about their local media and business communities representing developed emerging and frontier markets including Argentina Brazil Chile China Germany Greece Japan Nigeria Spain and Turkey among others The chapters present primary and secondary research on various geo political issues the nature of the news media the practice of public relations and the role of public relations agencies in each of the various countries Each chapter is structured to consider two to three hypotheses in the country under discussion including the impact of media visibility on organizational prominence top of mind awareness and brand name recognition the impact of media favorability on the public s organizational images of these firms how media coverage of specific public issues and news topics relates to the associations people form of specific firms Contributors contextualize their findings in light of the geopolitical environment of their home countries the nature of their media systems and the relationship between business and the news media within their countries borders Incorporating scholarship from a broad range of disciplines including advertising strategic management business political communication and sociology this volume has much to offer scholars and students examining business and the news media

News, Publics and Politics in Globalising India Sahana Udupa,2015-06-11 The first ethnography to examine the role of urban transformation caste and language in shaping India s contemporary news culture

The Independence of the News Media Loïc Ballarini,2020-10-16 This book explores the different ways Francophone research on news media has faced the challenges of dependence and independence from three complementary perspectives The first is economics how can sustainable business models be developed and to what extent can crowdfunding help to maintain the financial and editorial independence of newsrooms Secondly in a time where the role of journalism in the public sphere is more questioned than ever the authors evaluate to what extent news media can embody the needs of their readers Thirdly the authors consider the historical and political context of publication in the light of the Arab Spring This book deals with major contemporary evolutions of news media bringing together research that considers the media in France Canada and the Arab region notably Tunisia Algeria Morocco and Egypt Using numerous case studies this book helps to define how complex the question of independence is today

News Media and the Indigenous Fight for Federal Recognition Cristina Azocar,2022-04-05 Federal recognition enables tribes to govern themselves and make decisions for their citizens that have the power to retain their cultures But over the last forty years the news media coverage of the federal recognition of tribes has perpetuated ignorance and stereotypes about tribal sovereignty This book examines how past coverage has prioritized gaming over sovereignty and interfered in Tribes ability to be federally recognized Scholars of journalism mass communication media studies and indigenous studies will find this book of particular interest The Emerald Handbook of Computer-Mediated Communication and Social Media Jeremy Harris Lipschultz, Karen Freberg, Regina Luttrell, 2022-06-27 Uniquely relating social media communication research to its computer mediated communication foundation as well as digital and emerging media trends this handbook is an indispensable resource whether you re a graduate student or a seasoned practitioner
