Skrimpsli is the second fantasy adventure from author Nicola Davies set in a world where animals and humans can sometimes share their thoughts. It traces the early life of Skrimpsli the tiger sea captain who stole readers' hearts in The Song that Sings Us. He and his friends Owl and Kal must escape the clutches of the tyrannical circus owner Kobret Majak and his twin assassin acrobats, then stop a war and save the ancient forest where the Tiger and the Owl are sacred guardians. Skrimpsli and his friends are helped by the Palatine desert princess and her eagle, a chihuahua who thinks she's a wolf, a horse with heart of gold, and the crew of a very unusual ship. This is a story full of excitement and danger that explores themes of friendship, loyalty, identity, and love in the context of some of humanity's toughest problems.

A frantic call from a rescue group compels her to fly to Wyoming in the western part of the United States. She is stunned when she discovers the injured leopard is more than he seems. Walkyr is shocked when the human female caring for him connects with his leopard and recognizes who he is. Now he has to contend with the assassins who followed him, his leopard who wants to claim the woman, and find out why all the clues in his search for the Heart of the Cat are pointing to a planet so far from home. When Walkyr discovers the secret that Trescina has been hiding, he is forced to make a difficult decision: let her go or kidnap her and return with her to his world. Can Walkyr convince Trescina that their lives are bound in more ways than one, or will she flee, taking her secret and the future of the Sarafin species with her?
