Cattanaach, Richard Page Wheeler, 1980 Land and Longhouse Rob A. Cramb, 2007 Land and Longhouse examines the role of community market and state in the historic transformation of upland livelihoods in Southeast Asia Focusing on the Saribas Iban of Sarawak the book combines in depth generation long village case studies with an account of changes in land use and tenure at the regional level spanning a century and a half This analysis demonstrates that far from being passive victims of globalization the Iban have been active agents in their own transformation engaging with both market and state while retaining community values and governance R A Cramb makes a significant new contribution to debates about economic social and environmental change and conflict in upland Southeast Asia His book offers a fascinating empirically rich account of interest to scholars development practitioners and the general reader alike This study is certain to become a major reference point for future work on land use tenure and agrarian change in Upland Southeast Asia Clifford Sather University of Helsinki Rob Cramb has written an excellent book with a much needed longitudinal perspective on agrarian change The book is an important contribution to the urgent need for understanding the dynamics and consequences both environmental and social of upland transformation in Southeast Asia Ole Mertz University of Copenhagen Rob Cramb s study raises provocative questions about Iban society the nature of the Southeast Asia uplands and agrarian history He presents a work distinguished by the depth of its scholarship and the breadth of the questions addressed by it Michael R Dove Yale University Native American Architecture Peter Nabokov, Robert Easton, 1990-10-25 The collaboration between an architect and an anthropologist Native American Architecture presents the first book length fully illustrated exploration of North American Indian architecture to appear in over a century Peter Nabokov and Robert Easton together examine the building traditions of the major tribes in nine regional areas of the continent from the huge plank house villages of the Northwest Coast to the moundbuilder towns and temples of the Southeast to the Navajo hogans and adobe pueblos of the Southwest Going beyond a traditional survey of buildings the book offers a broad clear view into the Native American world revealing a new perspective on the interaction between their buildings and culture Looking at Native American architecture as more than buildings villages and camps Nabokov and Easton also focus on their use of space their environment their social mores and their religious beliefs Inside Austronesian Houses James J. innovative world of craftsmanship as well as an extensive trade network During this period the unique and monumental halls with the largest being 47 m long and 10 m wide dominated the hilltops east of Gudme lake Just to the south a smaller building accompanied the large hall and had been purposely demolished and rebuilt several times at the exact same spot The unusually large entrances to the two adjoined buildings lead straight from one to the other thus witnessing a duality of buildings that came to define the aristocratic localities throughout Scandinavia in the following 800 years Hence Gudme represents a starting point for a significant type of architectural ideal as well as a first generation of central places

Report on the Iban Derek Freedman, 2021-01-07 The Iban or the Sea Dayaks of Sarawak have probably been the best known of the indigenous peoples of Borneo for well over a century Much has been written about them but until the results of Dr Freeman's field research were published by the Government of Sarawak and by Her Majesty's Stationery Office in 1955 there was little information on their methods of agriculture and their social system The book has become a landmark in the studies of shifting cultivation and of cognatic kinship organization and the ideas around which it is written have proved over the years to be a continuing and powerful stimulus in the development of kinship theory The field work on which the account is based was undertaken from 1949 to 1951 Although fundamental changes have taken place in the life of the Iban since the book was first published it has been decided to republish it substantially unaltered Hiking the Allegheny National Forest Jeff Mitchell, 2006-12-20 Covers 50 dayhikes and 5 backpacking trails with tips times vistas and maps
