The Husbands Story:

The Husbands Story David Graham Phillips, 1911 The Husband's Story Norman Collins, 1979 A Perverse History of the Human Heart Milad Doueihi, 1997 The heart has a history as long and complex and often as sordid as that of the secret life it once signified This is the fascinating history that Milad Doueihi tells in a book that follows the adventures of the human heart from the myth of Dionysos to works of Dante Boccaccio and Francis Bacon from the Eucharist to the emergence of medicine from antiquity to early modern times Thrice Told Tales Diane Holmberg, Terri L. Orbach, Joseph Veroff, 2003-10-03 Researchers have studied marriage for decades but how is the transition to married life actually experienced by the couples involved From an insider's perspective Thrice Told Tales examines married couples' own stories of their relationship A representative sample of 199 African American and 177 White married couples were asked to tell the story of their relationship It provides accounts of courtships weddings honeymoons their adjustment in the early years and hopes for the future These stories were first collected a few months after their weddings and again in the third and seventh years of their marriages What features of their relationship do the couples highlight as central in the early years How do their stories change over time What can we learn about couples' marital well being by analyzing their stories How do the stories of men and women and of White and African American couples differ These questions were systematically addressed using extensive coding schemes and comprehensive quantitative analyses Details of the coding system and procedures are included making this volume a useful reference for any researcher contemplating analysis of narrative data However the key points are also explained in simple prose and illustrated with quotes from the couples' own stories making the book accessible to anyone with an interest in how young couples experience married life today The Conservator, 1910 Essays on Eddic Poetry John McKinnell, Donata Kick, John D. Shafer, 2014-01-01 Essays on Eddic Poetry presents a selection of important articles on Old Norse literature by noted medievalist John McKinnell While McKinnell's work addresses many of the perennial issues in the study of Old Norse this collection has a special focus on the interplay between heathen and Christian world views in the poems Among the texts examined are Hvamil which includes an elegantly cynical poem about Odin's sexual intrigues and a more mystical one about his self sacrifice on the world tree in order to gain magical wisdom Völundarkviða which recounts an elvish smith's revenge for his captivity and maiming and Hervararkviða where the heroine bravely but foolishly raises her dead father to demand the deadly sword Tyrfingr from him Originally published between 1988 and 2008 these twelve essays cover a wide range of mythological and heroic poems and have been revised and updated to reflect the latest scholarship Carnal Israel Daniel Boyarin, 1993-09-17 Beginning with a startling endorsement of the patristic view of Judaism that it was a carnal religion in contrast to the spiritual vision of the Church Daniel Boyarin argues that rabbinic Judaism was based on a set of assumptions about the human body that were profoundly different from those of Christianity The body specifically the sexualized body could not be renounced for the Rabbis believed as a religious principle in the generation of offspring and hence in intercourse sanctioned by marriage This belief bound men and women together and made impossible the various modes of gender separation practiced by early Christians The commitment to coupling did not imply a resolution of the unequal distribution of power that characterized relations between the sexes in all late antique societies But Boyarin argues strenuously that the male construction and treatment of women in rabbinic Judaism did not rest on a loathing of the female body Thus without ignoring the currents of sexual domination that course through the Talmudic texts Boyarin insists that the rabbinic account of human sexuality different from that of the Hellenistic Judaisms and Pauline Christianity has something important and empowering to teach us today The Film Renter and Moving Picture News, 1926

Gender, Race, and Class in Media Gail Dines, 2003 Gender Race and Class in Media examines the mass media as economic and cultural institutions that shape our social identities Through analyses of popular mass media entertainment genres such as talk shows soap operas television sitcoms advertising and pornography students are invited to engage in critical mass media scholarship A comprehensive introductory section outlines the book's integrated approach to media studies which incorporates three distinct but related areas of investigation the political economy of production textual analysis and audience response The readings include a dozen new original essays edited for maximum accessibility The book provides A comprehensive critical introduction to Media Studies An analysis of race that is integrated into all chapters Articles on Cultural Studies that are accessible to undergraduates An extensive bibliography and section on media resources Expanded coverage of queer representations in mass media A new section on the violence debates A new section on the Internet Together with new section introductions these provide a comprehensive critical introduction to mass media studies

Women, Wellbeing, and the Ethics of Domesticity in an Odia Hindu Temple Town Usha Menon, 2013-03-01 This book is a detailed ethnography of traditional predominantly upper caste sequestered Hindu women in the temple town of Bhubaneswar in Odisha a state in eastern India It elaborates on a distinctive paradigm of domesticity and explicates a particular model of human wellbeing among this category Part of the growing literature in third wave or multicultural feminism it seeks to broaden the parameters of feminist discourse by going beyond questions of individual liberty or gender equality to examine the potential for female empowerment that exists in the context of these women's lives Its aims are twofold first to represent these women in ways that they themselves would recognize and second to interpret rather than merely translate the beliefs and practices of the temple town such that their underlying logic becomes readily accessible to readers even those unfamiliar with the Hindu world

The Fiction of Alice Munro Brad Hooper, 2008-06-30 As a short story writer Alice Munro has achieved high critical and popular regard in both her native Canada and in the United States Indeed Munro has been adopted by the entire English speaking world as one of its own and her work has received many awards and honors In the U S she is roundly regarded as one of the best if not the best contemporary writers of the short story and one of the greatest living fiction writers Here Brad Hooper takes readers through her fiction work by work discussing the themes forms techniques and styles she employs to make her work come alive Munro has founded her own brand of the short story longer than traditionally practiced in the short story form and encompassing broader time frames Her stories are primarily character studies that explore the impact of physical and mental isolation in adolescence middle age and into elder years Hooper traces Munro's evolving definition of the short story form and surveys the fiction in an effort to elucidate the works for newcomers and enthusiasts alike

Women's Rights and the Bible Richard H. Hiers, 2012-05-03 In this volume Richard Hiers challenges the popular assumption that the Bible has a low view of women and that biblical law either ignores women or requires them to be subject and subservient to men He does so by identifying and carefully examining hundreds of biblical texts and allowing them to speak for themselves Among the findings that biblical tradition generally represents women positively as strong and independent persons that no text represents wives as subject to their husbands and that no biblical law requires such subjection that biblical laws provide many protections for women's rights and interests in several instances rights equal to those enjoyed by men The book focuses particularly on the Old Testament and Old Testament law and argues that Old Testament laws and their underlying values provide important resources for Christian ethics and social policy today

Cultural, Social, and Political Perceptions in the Folktales of Libyan Jews Rachel Simon, 2024-08-30 This study of the folktales of Libyan Jews examines their views regarding a wide range of social and cultural issues some of which could not be expressed openly due to social and cultural inhibitions as well as the fear of the reaction of the surrounding Muslim majority The study examines relationships between couples how they got married and relations between the spouses within the family between parents and children and among siblings the position of women and attitudes towards the Other mainly Muslims as well as Christians Jews from other locations and non humans

How to be the Goddess of Your Home Judith E. Walsh, 2005 In the late nineteenth century as dominance of British power in India led to the imposition of an alien culture on indigenous life ways the entire world of local domestic life and its most intimate relationships became contested ground This anthology offers translated selections from nine Bengali domestic manuals written by both men and women in the course of these debates and contestations In simple and often colloquial language these how to do it books act as guides to conducting relations within a family context child rearing and household management Often presented in the form of an intimate dialogue between husband and wife in the dead of the night the translations provide an unusual insight into the home of the Bengali bhadralok in colonial times As one hurtles from one representation of middle class reformism to another it becomes clear that this anthology is an invaluable addition to the rather thin collection of translated primary sources of this period The book will be of interest to students and scholars of gender studies history sociology lay readers interested in the culture of the colonial period as well as all informed women readers

A Husband's Story, The Witch Studies Reader Soma Chaudhuri, Jane Ward, 2025-02-21 Stories about witches are by their nature stories about the most basic and profound of human experiences healing sex violence tragedies aging death and encountering the mystery and magic of the unknown It is no surprise then that witches loom large in our cultural imaginations In academia studies of witches rarely emerge from scholars who are themselves witches and or embedded in communities of witchcraft practitioners The Witch Studies Reader brings together a diverse group of scholars practitioners and scholar practitioners who examine witchcraft from a critical decolonial feminist perspective that decenters Europe and departs from exoticizing and pathologizing writing on witchcraft in the global South The authors show how witches are keepers of suppressed knowledges builders of new futures exemplars of praxis and theorists in their own right Throughout they account for the vastly different national political economic and cultural contexts in which the witch is currently being claimed and repudiated Offering a pathbreaking transnational feminist examination of witches and witchcraft that upends white supremacist colonial patriarchal knowledge regimes this volume brings into being the interdisciplinary field of feminist witch studies Contributors Maria Amir Ruth Asimwe Bernadette Barton Ethel Brooks Shelina Brown Ruth Charnock Soma Chaudhuri Carolyn Chernoff Saira Chhibber Simon Clay Krystal Cleary Adrianna L Ernstberger Tina Escaja Laurie Essig Marcelitte Failla D Ferrett Marion Goldman Jaime Hartless Margaretha Haughwout Patricia Humura Apoorva Joshi Govind Kelkar Oliver Kellhammer Ay a Kurto lu Helen Macdonald Isabel Machado Brandy Renee McCann Dev Nathan Mary Jo Neitz Amy Nichols Belo Allison or AP Pierce Emma Quilty Anna Rogel Karen Schaller Jacquelyn Marie Shannon Shashank Shekhar Sinha Gabriella V Smith Nathan Snaza Shannon Hughes Spence Eric Steinhart Morena Tartari Nicole Trigg Katie Von Wald Tushabe wa Tushabe Jane Ward The Quarterly Register of Current History ,1895 Kiviuq Kira Van Deusen,2009-03 How do shape shifting shamans a giant cannibalistic bumblebee and human marriage with animals speak to Canadian Inuit and Siberian indigenous peoples today How can artists present ancient legend in live performance and film with sensitivity to the source Why are long multi layered stories essential for adults and children in an age of commercial television Women and the Family in Chinese History Patricia Buckley Ebrey,2003 This is a collection of essays by one of the leading scholars of Chinese history it explores features of the Chinese family gender and kinship systems and places them in a historical context Women's Bible Commentary Carol Ann Newsom, Sharon H. Ringe,1998-01-01 In the critically acclaimed best seller Women s Bible Commentary an outstanding group of women scholars introduced and summarized each book of the Bible and commented on those sections of each book that have particular relevance to women focusing on female characters symbols life situations such as marriage and family the legal status of women and religious principles that affect relationships of women and men Now this expanded edition provides similar insights on the Apocrypha presenting a significant view of the lives and religious experiences of women as well as attitudes toward women in the Second Temple period This expanded edition sets a new standard for women s and biblical studies
