The Idea Of Man An Anthology Of Literature:

The Idea of Man Edmund Fuller, O. B. Davis, 1967      The Internationality of National Literatures in Either America Armin Paul Frank, Helga Essmann, 1999      Modernism, Middlebrow and the Literary Canon Lise Jaillant, 2015-10-06 In the 1920s and 1930s the Modern Library series began to bring out cheap editions of modernist works Jaillant provides a thorough analysis of the series mix of highbrow and popular literature and argues that the availability and low cost of modernist works helped to expand modernism's influence as a literary movement      New Formalisms and Literary Theory V. Theile, L. Tredennick, 2013-04-11 Bringing together scholars who have critically followed New Formalism's journey through time space and learning environment this collection of essays both solidifies and consolidates New Formalism as a burgeoning field of literary criticism and explicates its potential as a varied but viable methodology of contemporary critical theory      Inscribed Objects and the Development of Literature in Early Japan Joshua Frydman, 2023-06-26 The introduction of writing enables new forms of literature but these can be invisible in works that survive as manuscripts Through looking at inscriptions of poetry on garbage and as graffiti we can glimpse how literature spread along with writing This study uses these lesser studied sources including inscriptions on pottery architecture and especially wooden tablets known as mokkan to uncover how poetry and literature more broadly was used shared and thrown away in early Japan Through looking at these disposable and informal sources we explore the development of early Japanese literature and even propose parallels to similar developments in other societies across space and time      In-between Places Diane Glancy, 2005 There is a map you decide to call a book A book of the territories you've traveled A map is a meaning you hold against the unknowing The places you speak in many directions For Diane Glancy there are books that you open like a map In between Places is such a book a collection of eleven essays unified by a common concern with landscape and its relation both to our spiritual life and to the craft of writing Taking readers on a trip to New Mexico a voyage across the sea of middle America even a journey to China Glancy has crafted a sustained meditation on the nature and workings of language stories and poems on travel and motion as metaphors for life and literature and on the relationships between Native American and Judeo Christian ways of thinking and being in the world Reflecting on strip mines in Missouri as long as there is anything left to take human industry will take it and hog barns in Iowa writing about them from the hogs perspective Glancy speaks in the margins of cross cultural issues and from the places in between as she explores the middle ground between places that we handle with the potholder of language She leaves in her wake a dance of words and the structures left after the collision of cultures A writer who has often examined her native heritage Glancy also asks here what it means to be part white What does whiteness look like viewed from the other especially when that other is also within oneself And in considering the legacy of Christianity she ponders how it is when the Holy Ghost enters your life like a brother in law you know is going to be there a while Insightful and provocative In between Places is a book for anyone interested in a sense of place and in the relationship between religion and our stance toward nature It is also a book for anyone who loves thoughtful writing and wishes to learn from a modern master of language     The Obsolete Empire Philip Tsang, 2021-11-02 Modernist literature at the end of the British empire challenges conventional notions of homeland heritage and community Finalist of the MSA First Book Prize by The Modernist Studies Association The waning British empire left behind an abundance of material relics and an inventory of feelings not easily relinquished In The Obsolete Empire Philip Tsang brings together an unusual constellation of writers Henry James James Joyce Doris Lessing and V S Naipaul to trace an aesthetics of frustrated attachment that emerged in the wake of imperial decline Caught between an expansive Britishness and an exclusive Englishness these writers explored what it meant to belong to an empire that did not belong to them Thanks to their voracious reading of English fiction and poetry in their formative years all of these writers experienced a richly textured world with which they deeply identified but from which they felt excluded The literary England they imagined frozen in time and out of place with the realities of imperial decline in turn figures in their writings as a repository of unconsummated attachments contradictory desires and belated exchanges Their works arrest the linear progression from colonial to postcolonial from empire to nation and from subject to citizen Drawing on a rich body of scholarship on affect and temporality Tsang demonstrates how the British empire endures as a structure of desire that outlived its political lifespan By showing how literary reading sets in motion a tense interplay of intimacy and exclusion Tsang investigates a unique mode of belonging arising from the predicament of being conscripted into a global empire but not desired as its proper citizen Ultimately The Obsolete Empire asks What does it mean to be inside or outside any given culture How do large scale geopolitical changes play out at the level of cultural attachment and political belonging How does literary reading establish or unsettle narratives of who we are These questions preoccupied writers across Britain s former empire and continue to resonate today     The Novel After Theory Judith Ryan, 2014-01-01 Novels began to incorporate literary theory in unexpected ways in the late twentieth century Through allusion parody or implicit critique theory formed an additional strand in fiction that raised questions about the nature of authorship and the practice of writing Studying this phenomenon provides fresh insight into the recent development of the novel and the persistence of modern theory beyond the period of its greatest success In this book Judith Ryan opens these questions to a range of readers drawing them into debates over the value of theory Ryan investigates what prompted fiction writers to incorporate and respond to theory nearly thirty years ago Designed for readers unfamiliar with the complexities of theory Ryan s book introduces the discipline s major trends and controversies and notes the salient ideas of a carefully selected set of individual thinkers Ryan follows novelists adaptation to and engagement with arguments drawn from theory as they translate abstract ideas into language structure and fictional strategy At the core of her book is a fascinating microstudy of French poststructuralism in its dialogue with narrative fiction Investigating theories of textuality psychology and society in the work of Don DeLillo Thomas Pynchon J M Coetzee Margaret Atwood W G Sebald and Umberto Eco as well as Monika Maron Alain Robbe Grillet

Marguerite Duras Marilynne Robinson David Foster Wallace and Christa Wolf Ryan identifies subtle negotiations between author and theory and the richness this dynamic adds to texts Resetting the way we think and learn about literature her book reads current literary theory while uniquely tracing its shaping of a genre     A History of Japanese Literature, Volume 2 Jin'ichi Konishi, 2017-03-14 The second of live volumes planned to give a systematic account of Japanese literature from its beginnings to the death of the modern novelist Mishima this book establishes the character of the literature of the early Middle Ages from the ninth to the mid twelfth century Originally published in 1986 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

New Perspectives on International Comparative Literature Cao Shunqing, Theo D'haen, Liang Chang, Zhou Shu, 2022-07-25 Bringing together 17 articles by renowned scholars from around the globe this volume offers a multi dimensional view of comparative and world literature Drawing on the scope of these scholars collective intellects and insights it connects disparate research contexts to illuminate the multi dimensional views of related areas as we step into the third decade of the 21st century The book will be of particular interest to scholars working in comparative literary and cultural studies and to readers interested in the future of literary studies in a cross culturized world     Encyclopedia of Feminist Literary Theory Elizabeth Kowaleski-Wallace, 2009-03-23 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company     Bulgarian Literature as World Literature Mihaela P. Harper, Dimitar Kambourov, 2020-11-12 Bulgarian Literature as World Literature examines key aspects and manifestations of 20th and 21st century Bulgarian literature by way of the global literary landscape The first volume to bring together in English the perspectives of prominent writers translators and scholars of Bulgarian literature and culture this long overdue collection identifies correlations between national and world aesthetic ideologies and literary traditions It situates Bulgarian literature within an array of contexts and foregrounds a complex interplay of changing internal and external forces These forces shaped not only the first collaborative efforts at the turn of the 20th century to insert Bulgarian literature into the world s literary repository but also the work of contemporary Bulgarian diaspora authors Mapping histories geographies economies and genetics the contributors assess the magnitudes and directions of such forces in order to articulate how a distinctly national minor literature produced for internal use and nearly invisible globally until the last decade transforms into world literature today     Feeling in Theory Rei Terada, 2009-07-01 Because emotion is assumed to depend on subjectivity the death of the subject described in recent years by theorists such as Derrida de Man and Deleuze would also seem to mean the death of feeling This revolutionary work transforms the burgeoning interdisciplinary debate on emotion by suggesting instead a positive relation between the death of the subject and the very existence of emotion Reading the writings of Derrida and de Man theorists often seen as emotionally contradictory and cold Terada finds grounds for construing emotion as nonsubjective This project offers fresh interpretations of deconstruction s most important texts and of Continental and Anglo American philosophers from Descartes to Deleuze and Dennett At the same time it revitalizes poststructuralist theory by deploying its methodologies in a new field the philosophy of emotion to reach a startling conclusion if we really were subjects we would have no emotions at all Engaging debates in philosophy literary criticism psychology and cognitive science from a poststructuralist and deconstructive perspective Terada s work is essential for the renewal of critical thought in our day

The Institution of English Literature Barbara Schaff,Johannes Schlegel,Carola Surkamp,2016-11-07 The contributions investigate the ways in which numerous institutions of English literature shape the literary field While they cover an extensive historical field ranging from the Early Modern period to the 18th century to the contemporary they focus not only on literary texts but also on extra literary ones including literary prizes literary histories and anthologies and highlight the various ways in which these negotiate the processes that constitute the literary field All contributions assert that there is no such thing as literature outside of institutions Great emphasis is therefore put on different acts of mediation     An Introduction to Literature, Criticism and Theory Andrew Bennett,Nicholas Royle,2023-03-23 Lively original and highly readable An Introduction to Literature Criticism and Theory is the essential guide to literary studies Starting at The Beginning and concluding with The End chapters range from the familiar such as Character Narrative and The Author to the more unusual such as Secrets Pleasure and Ghosts Now in its sixth edition Bennett and Royle s classic textbook successfully illuminates complex ideas by engaging directly with literary works so that a reading of Jane Eyre opens up ways of thinking about racial difference for example while Chaucer Monty Python and Hilary Mantel are all invoked in a discussion of literature and laughter The sixth edition has been revised and updated throughout In addition four new chapters Literature Loss Human and Migrant engage with exciting recent developments in literary studies As well as fully up to date further reading sections at the end of each chapter the book contains a comprehensive bibliography and an invaluable glossary of key literary terms A breath of fresh air in a field that can often seem dry and dauntingly theoretical this book will open the reader s eyes to the exhilarating possibilities of reading and studying literature     The Idea of the Canterbury Tales Donald R. theorists Using selections from works including poetry by Christina Rossetti and Annie Proulx's Brokeback Mountain Connors unites theory with practice revealing how enjoyable it is to think about reading The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1907 The Encarta Book of Quotations Bill Swainson, 2000-09-30 Here are 25 000 quotations drawn from the history politics literature religions science and popular culture of the world ranging from the earliest Chinese sages through Shakespeare to the present day The Literary and Cultural Reception of Charles Darwin in Europe Thomas F.
