Due to its age, it may contain imperfections such as marks, notations, marginalia, and flawed pages. Because we believe this work is culturally important, we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting, preserving, and promoting the world's literature in affordable, high-quality modern editions that are true to the original work. The spirit of Islam, a history of the evolution and ideals of Islam Maulavi Saiyid Amir 'Ali, 1922 Ismailism and Islam in Modern South Asia Soumen Mukherjee, 2017-02-07 This book explores the evolution of a Shia Ismaili identity and crucial aspects of the historical forces that conditioned the development of the Muslim modern in late colonial South Asia. It traces the legal process that since the 1860s recast a Shia Imami identity for the Ismailis and explicates the public career of Imam Aga Khan III amid heightened religious internationalism since the late nineteenth century, the age of religious internationals. It sheds light and elaborates on the enduring legacies of questions such as the Aga's understanding of colonial modernity, his ideas of India restructured modalities of community governance, and the evolution of Imamate-sponsored institutions. Key strands in scholarship that characterized the development of the Muslim and Shia Ismaili modern and Muslim universality vis-à-vis denominational particularities that often transcended the restraints of the modular nation and state structure. The Spirit of Islām Syed Ameer Ali, 1923 The Moslem World Samuel Marinus Zwemer, 1913 The Islamic Review, 1922

Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland, 1924 Has appendices Mystical Dimensions of Islam Annemarie Schimmel, 2011-08-08 Thirty-five years after its original publication, Mystical Dimensions of Islam still stands as the most valuable introduction to Sufism, the main form of Islamic mysticism. This edition brings to a new generation of readers Annemarie Schimmel's historical treatment of the transnational phenomenon of Sufism from its beginnings through the nineteenth century. Schimmel's sensitivity and deep understanding of Sufism, its origins, development, and historical context, as well as her erudite examination of Sufism as reflected in Islamic poetry, draw readers into the mood, the vision, and the way of the Sufi. In the foreword, distinguished Islam scholar Carl W. Ernst comments on the continuing vitality of Schimmel's book and the advances in the study of Sufism that have occurred since the work first appeared. Moslem World, 1923 Mystical Dimensions of Islam Annemarie Schimmel, 1975 Includes bibliographical references and index Modernity and the Ideals of Arab-Islamic and Western-Scientific Philosophy A. Z. Obiedat, 2022-07-08 This is the first study to compare the philosophical systems of secular scientific philosopher Mario Bunge (1919-2020) and Moroccan Islamic philosopher Taha Abd al-Rahman (b. 1945). In their efforts to establish the philosophical underpinnings of an ideal modernity, these two great thinkers speak to the same elements of the human condition despite their opposing secular and religious worldviews. While the differences between Bunge's critical realist epistemology and materialist ontology on the one hand and Taha's spiritualist ontology and revelational mystical epistemology on the other are fundamental there is remarkable common ground between their scientific and Islamic versions of humanism Both call for an ethics of prosperity combined with social justice and both criticize postmodernism and religious conservatism The aspiration of this book is to serve as a model for future dialogue between holders of Western and Islamic worldviews in mutual pursuit of modernity's best case scenario

Diverging Approaches of Political Islamic Thought in Iran since the 1960s Seyed Mohammad Lolaki, 2019-11-14 This book argues that Political Islam in the Iranian context evolved into three main schools of thought during the 1960s and 1970s Jurisprudential Islam led by Ayatollah Khomeini Leftist Islam led by Shariati and Liberal Islam led by Bazargan Despite the fact that all schools seek an Islamic state their chosen methods and philosophical approaches diverge considerably The synthesis of these three contrasting socio political views is structured here to provide a coherent interpretation by means of ongoing comparison This method has so far not been presented in academic studies within the field of Political Islam Furthermore this book provides a critical analysis of the aforementioned Political Islam schools in Iran their similarities and differences relative success or failure their contribution to the revolution of 1979 and how they have evolved from the pre revolution era to the present

Waning Crescent Faisal Devji, 2025-08-26 A compelling examination of the rise of Islam as a global historical actor Until the nineteenth century Islam was variously understood as a set of beliefs and practices But after Muslims began to see their faith as an historical actor on the world stage they needed to narrate Islam's birth anew as well as to imagine its possible death Faisal Devji argues that this change sparked by the crisis of Muslim sovereignty in the age of European empire provided a way of thinking about agency in a global context an Islam liberated from the authority of kings and clerics had the potential to represent the human race itself as a newly empirical reality Ordinary Muslims now recognized as the privileged representatives of Islam were freed from traditional forms of Islamic authority However their conception of Islam as an impersonal actor in history meant that it could not be defined in either religious or political terms Its existence as a civilizational and later ideological subject also deprived figures like God and the Prophet of their theological subjectivities while robbing the Muslim community of its political agency Devji illuminates this history and explores its ramifications for the contemporary Muslim world

Islam, Christianity and the Mystic Journey Ian Richard Netton, 2011-04-30 This distinctive comparison of Islamic and Christian mysticism focuses on the mystic journey in the two faith traditions

Comparative Religion and Islamic Studies whose keen interest in the mystical dimensions of faith was influenced by his extensive travels in the Middle East and his interactions with scholars and practitioners His background in linguistics also allowed him to engage with original texts in a nuanced manner providing authenticity and depth to his descriptions of the figures presented in this work This book is an essential read for those intrigued by spirituality and the intricate tapestry of Islamic faith Field s insightful analysis and narrative prowess make Mystics and Saints of Islam not only informative but also a captivating journey into the heart of Sufi traditions appealing to both academic audiences and general readers alike

Becker,2013-10-18 The editors working with a team of 325 renowned authorities in the field of ethics have revised expanded and updated this classic encyclopedia Along with the addition of 150 new entries all of the original articles have been newly peer reviewed and revised bibliographies have been updated throughout and the overall design of the work has been enhanced for easier access to cross references and other reference features New entries include Cheating Dirty hands Gay ethics Holocaust Journalism Political correctness and many more Sacrifice in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam David L. Weddle,2017-09-19 An examination of the practice and philosophy of sacrifice in three religious traditions In the book of Genesis God tests the faith of the Hebrew patriarch Abraham by demanding that he sacrifice the life of his beloved son Isaac Bound by common admiration for Abraham the religious traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam also promote the practice of giving up human and natural goods to attain religious ideals Each tradition negotiates the moral dilemmas posed by Abraham s story in different ways while retaining the willingness to perform sacrifice as an identifying mark of religious commitment This book considers the way in which Jews Christians and Muslims refer to sacrifice not only as ritual offerings but also as the donation of goods discipline suffering and martyrdom Weddle highlights objections to sacrifice within these traditions as well presenting voices of dissent and protest in the name of ethical duty Sacrifice forfeits concrete goods for abstract benefits a utopian vision of human community thereby sparking conflict with those who do not share the same ideals Weddle places sacrifice in the larger context of the worldviews of Judaism Christianity and Islam using this nearly universal religious act as a means of examining similarities of practice and differences of meaning among these important world religions This book takes the concept of sacrifice across these three religions and offers a cross cultural approach to understanding its place in history and deep rooted traditions
