Ransom, Revenge, and Heroic Identity in the Iliad Donna F. Wilson, 2002-05-27 From beginning to end of the Iliad Agamemnon and Achilles are locked in a high stakes struggle for dominance based on their efforts to impose competing definitions of loss incurred and the nature of compensation thereby owed This typology of scenes involving apoina or ransom and poine or revenge is the basis of Donna Wilson's detailed anthropology of compensation in Homer which she locates in the wider context of agonistic exchange Wilson argues that a struggle over definitions is a central feature of elite competition for status in the zero sum and fluid ranking system characteristic of Homeric society This system can be used to explain why Achilles refuses Agamemnon's compensation in Book 9 as well as why and how the embassy tries to mask it Ransom Revenge and Heroic Identity in the Iliad thus examines the traditional semantic cultural and poetic matrix of which compensation is an integral part
