Hofer, 2013-08-29 Christ in the Life and Teaching of Gregory of Nazianzus is the first full length book devoted to an overview of the Christology of this fourth century Father of the Church Andrew Hofer examines the breadth of Gregory s corpus orations letters and poems often neglected in doctrinal studies to argue that Gregory s writing on Christ can be best understood in tandem with his autobiography This study begins with an articulation of Gregory s theology of the Word in which words come from the Word who became incarnate Hofer then offers a close reading of how Gregory writes to or about Christ in the poetry known as on himself Within a three part study of autobiographical Christology Hofer explores the philosophical background of Gregory s rhetoric for what he calls the mixtures of Christ and himself He then elucidates this autobiographical concern in Gregory s famous Ep 101 a landmark text in the Christological controversies Thirdly Hofer considers how Gregory celebrates the mysteries of Christ in the festal orations Before the book s epilogue a chapter describes how Gregory wrote of Christ for his pastoral ministry Throughout the work Hofer demonstrates the importance in Gregory s writings of the language of blending such as in the Greek word krasis rejected by the Council of Chalcedon to describe the Incarnation This book thus offers a unique perspective on the one known as the Theologian in Chalcedon's acts and in subsequent Christian tradition

A Byzantine Settlement in Cappadocia Robert G. Ousterhout, 2005 Based on four seasons of fieldwork this book presents the results of the first systematic site survey of a region rich in material remains From architecture to fresco painting Cappadocia represents a previously untapped resource for the study of material culture and the settings of daily life within the Byzantine Empire

Performing the Gospels in Byzantium Roland Betancourt, 2021-05-13 Tracing the Gospel text from script to illustration to recitation this study looks at how illuminated manuscripts operated within ritual and architecture Focusing on a group of richly illuminated lectionaries from the late eleventh century the book articulates how the process of textual recitation produced marginalia and miniatures that reflected and subverted the manner in which the Gospel was read and simultaneously imagined by readers and listeners alike This unique approach to manuscript illumination points to images that slowly unfolded in the mind of its listeners as they imagined the text being recited as meaning carefully changed and built as the text proceeded By examining this process within specific acoustic architectural spaces and the sonic conditions of medieval chant the volume brings together the concerns of sound studies liturgical studies and art history to demonstrate how images texts and recitations played with the environment of the Middle Byzantine church

The Portrait in Byzantine Illuminated Manuscripts, Icons and Power Bissera V. Pentcheva, 2010-11-01 Pentcheva demonstrates that a fundamental shift in the Byzantine cult from relics to icons took place during the late tenth century Centered upon fundamental questions of art religion and politics Icons and Power makes a vital contribution to the entire field of medieval studies

Byzantine Dress J. Ball, 2016-09-23 In Byzantium there were two overlapping systems of dress a semiotic one whereby dress was a code for rank and wealth and a fashion system where dress was based on the desire to look a certain way This book explains secular dress from the eighth to the twelfth centuries through an examination of painted representations

Sacred Shock: Framing Visual Experience in Byzantium Glenn Peers, 2004 Sacred Shock attempts to lay bare the inner workings of Byzantine art by looking closely at the marginal or subsidiary areas in works of art

Color and Culture John Gage, 2025-01-28 A groundbreaking award winning analysis of color in Western culture from the ancient Greeks to the late twentieth century by one of the most foremost authors on the subject What does the language of color tell us Where does one color begin and another end Is it a radiant visual stimulus an intangible function of light or a material substance to be molded and arrayed Color is fundamental to art yet so diverse that it has hardly ever been studied in a comprehensive way Art historian John Gage considers every conceivable aspect of the subject in this groundbreaking analysis of color in Western culture from the ancient Greeks to the late twentieth century Gage describes the first theories of color articulated by Greek philosophers and subsequent attempts by the Romans and their Renaissance disciples to organize it systematically or endow it with symbolic power He unfolds its religious significance and its use in heraldry as well as how Renaissance artists approached color with the help of alchemists He explores the analysis of the spectrum undertaken by Isaac Newton and continued in the nineteenth century by artists such as Georges Seurat traces the influence of Johann Wolfgang von Goethe's color theory and considers the extraordinary theories and practices that attempted to unite color and music or make color into an entirely abstract language of its own. A seminal undertaking to suggest answers to many perennial questions about the role of color in Western art and thought. Color and Culture throws fresh light on the hidden meanings of many familiar masterpieces.

The Maccabean Martyrs Jewish heroes from the era of the persecution of Antiochus IV Epiphanes were incorporated into the IVth century Christian martyrology. Two Church Fathers Gregory Nazianzen and John Chrysostom wrote panegyrics in their honour which are studied and translated in this book. The first part shows how since the beginning the Church referred to these martyrs as biblical examples known through 2 and 4 Maccabees. The second part describes through the eulogies of Gregory and John the circumstances surrounding the creation of the Christian Feast. The third part analyzes the preaching built around the story of the Maccabean martyrs where following the 4 M model Eleazar the seven brothers and their mother are established as examples of virtue and asceticism for the edification of all Christians. The book investigates an original aspect of the cult of martyrs: the christianisation of Jewish martyrs killed defending the Law and sheds light on the sometimes contradictory preaching choices of Gregory and John to respond to the Jewish roots of this cult.

Les martyrs Maccabées Les héros juifs de la persécution d'Antiochus IV Epiphane furent intégrés dans le martyrologe chrétien au IV<sup>e</sup> siècle. La même époque en Orient deux Pères de l'Eglise Grégoire de Nazianze et Jean Chrysostome ont prononcé des discours panegyriques en leur honneur traduits dans ce livre. La première partie montre comment depuis l'origine l'Eglise citait comme exemples bibliques ces martyrs connus par le Deuxième et le Quatrième livre des Maccabées. La deuxième partie décrit au travers des panegyriques de Grégoire et de Jean les circonstances qui ont marqué l'instauration de la fête chrétienne de ces martyrs. La troisième partie analyse la prédication adressée aux fidèles partant de l'épisode maccabéen. Elazar les sept frères et leur Mère devenant sur le modèle de 4 M des exemples de vertus et d'ascèse proposés à l'imitation de tous. Le livre explore ainsi un aspect original du culte des martyrs: la christianisation de martyrs juifs morts pour la défense de la Loi et met en lumière les choix de prédication parfois opposés de Grégoire et de Jean face à l'enracinement juif de ce culte.

From Homer to Hatzi-Yavrouda Marianthi Kaplanoglou, George Katsadoros, Birgit Olsen, Christos Zafiroopoulos, 2024-12-17

From Homer to Hatzi Yavrouda Aspects of Oral Narration in the Greek Tradition provides a multidisciplinary discussion of the concept of orality in the framework of Greek narrative tradition from Antiquity to the 21st century. Orality is a prominent concept in contemporary folkloristics, philology and other related fields and a basic concept for the study of culture in a historical and critical perspective. Its definition has long been debated as has its communicative value and use. This volume presents different perspectives and academic fields: classics, byzantine studies, folklore studies, comparative literature and discusses topics such as interrelationship with written literature, cross-cultural and trans-historical influences, different genres as well as specific narrators and their role in their communities Orality is viewed as a tool for research a body of texts an entity of vernacular practices or as a series of communication strategies The Greek tradition is taken as a point of departure for a diachronic analysis of orality from Homer to the female storyteller Hatzi Yavrouda from Kos It is the hope that the analysis of the Greek case will contribute to discussions about the concept on a larger scale This volume also shows that orality both in its old and new forms is continuously present in modern and post modern discourse and still dominates everyday communication despite our growing dependence on digital and iconic universes Colour and Culture John

Gage,2024-10-24 What does the language of colour tell us Where does one colour begin and another end Is it a radiant visual stimulus an intangible function of light or a material substance to be moulded and arrayed Colour is fundamental to art yet so diverse that it has hardly ever been studied in a comprehensive way Art historian John Gage considers every conceivable aspect of the subject in this groundbreaking analysis of colour in Western culture from the ancient Greeks to the late twentieth century Gage describes the first theories of colour articulated by Greek philosophers and subsequent attempts by the Romans and their Renaissance disciples to organize it systematically or endow it with symbolic power He unfolds its religious significance and its use in heraldry as well as how Renaissance artists approached colour with the help of alchemists He explores the analysis of the spectrum undertaken by Newton and continued in the nineteenth century by artists such as Seurat traces the influence of Goethe s colour theory and considers the extraordinary theories and practices that attempted to unite colour and music or make colour into an entirely abstract language of its own The first ever undertaking to suggest answers to many perennial questions about the role of colour in Western art and thought this study throws fresh light on the hidden meanings of many familiar masterpieces East and West in the Medieval Eastern

Mediterranean Krijna Nelly Ciggaar,David Michael Metcalf,2006 Claude Cahen s book on Crusader Antioch cast a long shadow His thorough monograph seemingly leaves little more to be said Decades may pass before scholars return to the topic The long shadow fell even on the Wisconsin History of the Crusades which still seeks essentially to stitch the written sources together into traditional narrative history only to do it better But topics such as architecture or coins are optional extras and not much integrated into the whole picture A thorough analysis of political and military developments is indeed the essential groundwork of most medieval history But high politics was not the whole of life and charters and texts are not the only witnesses to that life Social and economic life has its own momentum and its own continuity Its moral and spiritual aspects deserve historical study and impose new historical disciplines Crusades studies have become more interdisciplinary and less monolithic That new style of enquiry is fully reflected in the range and variety of the papers tightly focussed on Antioch printed in this volume Corpus of dated illuminated Greek manuscripts to the year 1453

Spatharakis,2024-11-18 Experiencing the Last Judgement Niamh Bhalla,2021-09-30 Experiencing the Last Judgement opens up new ways of understanding a Byzantine image type that has hitherto been considered largely uniform in its manifestations and to a great extent frightening coercive and paralysing It moves beyond a purely didactic understanding of the Byzantine image of the Last Judgement as a visual eschatological text to be read and learned from and proposes instead an appreciation of each unique image as a dynamic site to be experienced Paintings icons and mosaics from the tenth to the fourteenth century from inside and outside of the Byzantine Empire are placed within their specific socio historical milieus their immediate decorative programmes and their architectural contexts to demonstrate that each unique image constituted a carefully orchestrated and immersive experience of judgement Each case study outlines the differences that exist in reality between these images that are often subsumed under one iconographic label making a case against condensing dynamic lived images into apparently static pictorial types Images of the Last Judgement needed the body mind and memory of the viewer for the creation of meaning and so the experience of these images was unavoidably spatial gendered corporeal mnemonic emotional rhetorical and most often liturgical Unpacking Byzantine images of judgement in light of these various facets of experience for the first time helps to elucidate the interaction of past individuals with the image and the ways in which such encounters were intended to benefit the communities that made and lived alongside them Urban and Religious Spaces in Late Antiquity and Early Byzantium Jean-Michel Spieser, 2024-12-11 Professor Spieser deals here with a number of the transformations that took place in the world of Late Antiquity and early Christianity focusing upon notions of space The first set of articles opening with a newly written introductory essay addresses the development of urban landscapes from the Roman period up to the iconoclast era in Byzantium In particular he looks at the consequences of christianisation and argues that the changing fortunes of the town cannot be attributed to a few causes such as war or natural disaster but resulted from a complex interplay between the economy and ideology religion and politics A second group concerned with the relationship of late antique man with his surroundings and therefore his perception of space sets out to explain how the decoration of churches on apses for example or on doors reflects new senses of how religious spaces should be organised Six of these studies have been translated into English for this volume and it ends with an important section of additional notes and comment Life and Works of Saint Gregentios, Archbishop of Taphar Albrecht Berger, 2012-02-13 In the late 10th century an anonymous author wrote the fictitious account of a religious dialogue between Archbishop Gregentios and the Jewish scribe Herban and included it in a life of Gregentios based on earlier sources which indicate that he was a missionary in Yemen in pre Islamic times Albrecht Berger examines and translates these texts and he presents a critical edition Key Features first edition of a large proportion of the extant texts critical edition using all known manuscripts including those which only recently have been discovered
