

WOMEN IN THE INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION: Annotated Bibliography using Primary and Secondary Sources

THESIS:

Though the Industrial Revolution led to the formation of modern gender stereotypes, it also introduced the proper circumstances for social reform and feminism, a long-term solution to gender discrimination.

In this work, Horrell and Humphries clearly articulate their more optimistic argument regarding the Industrial Revolution and the impact on women; that despite some negative effects on women and their labor participation at the time, there was some improvement and independence born from the Industrial Revolution. They center their argument around the one made by Ivy Pinchbeck: the independence lost from the Industrial Revolution meant domestic improvements made by women and was still beneficial. In comparison to other sources, this one uses numerical evidence regarding the participation rate of women and wage contribution, analyzing it over time for more numerical explanations rather than theoretical.
