Johnson, 2018-05-10 A central question in Christian ethics is the relationship between the moral principles we should follow within the Christian community and the ethics followed in the secular societies in which we live Our dilemma is that we have received a revelation of God's moral will in the Bible and in creation which must shape the identity of believers over against unbelieving cultures while our neighbors follow the ethics of other world views which concern us deeply Remember the Holocaust where the ethics of a secular ideology wreaked destruction in an entire society How should we as Christians whom God has called to a distinct identity participate in the moral considerations that will shape our cultures and communicate some of our convictions in a way that brings moral light into our worlds Johnson offers the insight gained by 20 years of teaching ethics in secular universities in Europe and North America First he addresses questions of sex marriage and family then questions of work and economics and finally theological and philosophical foundations Psychology & Christianity Integration Daryl H. Stevenson, Brian E. Eck, Peter C. Hill, 2007 The Reality of Christian Learning Harold Heie, David L. All Things Wise and Wonderful E. Janet Warren, 2021-01-19 The Covid 19 pandemic provoked many questions It is human nature to want to know how and why things happen The sovereign God has created a beautiful intricate world in which multiple factors interact to cause an event We are called to properly understand creation but often fail because we tend to be lazy fearful and self serving We make judgments based on often incorrect assumptions about cause and effect relations and we seek reassuring explanations for both trivial and serious events Christians have the added complication of figuring out God s role in making things happen All Things Wise and Wonderful examines what the Bible and Christian theology say about cause and effect how science views causation in the world and how human mind brains judge causation Using illustrations from everyday life it offers guidance for Christians to think and act wisely with respect to how and why things happen in creation
