Origins of the Korean War, 1945-1950 Kathryn Weathersby,1993

Frontier Contact Between Choson Korea and

Tokugawa Japan James B. Lewis,2005-11-02 East Asia from 1400 to 1850 was a vibrant web of connections and the southern coast of the Korean peninsula participated in a maritime world that stretched to Southeast Asia and beyond Within this world were Japanese pirates traders and fishermen They brought things to the Korean peninsula and they took things away The economic and demographic structures of Kyongsang Province had deep and wide connections with these Japanese traders Social and political clashes revolving around the Japan House in Pusan reveal Korean mentalities towards the Japanese connection This study seeks to define Korea by examining its frontier with Japan The guiding problems are the relations between structures and agents and the self definitions reached by pre modern Koreans in their interaction with the Japanese Case studies range from demography to taxation to trade to politics to prostitution The study draws on a wide base of primary sources for Korea and Japan and introduces the problems that animate modern scholarship in both countries It offers a model approach for Korea s northern frontier with China and shows that the peninsula was and is a complex brocade of differing regions The book will be of interest to anyone concerned with pre 1900 East Asia Korea in particular and especially Korea s relations with the outside world Anyone interested in early modern Japan and its external relations will also find it essential reading

A Monograph of the Existing Crinoids Austin Hobart Clark, 1941 A Monograph of the Existing Crinoids: The comatulids. (v.) Austin Hobart Clark, 1941

Bulletin , 1941 The Law of the Sea and Northeast Asia Park Hee Kwon, 2021-10-25 The Law of the Sea is a vast and multi faceted area of international law The 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea and the Agreement relating to the implementation of Part XI of the Convention constitute essential instruments of the law of the sea governing a new maritime order for the international community With its entry into force on November 16 1994 the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea has virtually become the Magna Carta of the Oceans or the

Constitution for the Oceans Testifying to its success is the number of Parties adhering to it now totaling 132 States including one international organization the European Community The world is entering the era of a New Maritime Order based on near universal adherence to the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea In the wake of the Convention s entry into force and its ratification by many States in Northeast Asia a new maritime order is emerging in the region The littoral States have enacted and promulgated new national legislation to incorporate the provisions of the UN Convention into their domestic legal order The three littoral States China Japan and South Korea concluded or initialed bilateral fisheries agreements based on the new concept of extended jurisdiction set forth by the UN Convention The UN Convention will however present even more challenges than opportunities for the littoral States of Northeast Asia in their quest for a new maritime order The maritime security situation in the region has been and will continue to be extremely volatile due to conflicting claims disputed boundaries unregulated pollution of the marine environment and widespread illegal activities at sea The author has set the both pragmatic and ambitious aim of outlining the emerging maritime order in Northeast Asia As a practitioner of the law of the sea who has participated in bilateral and multilateral negotiations on maritime affairs the author sheds light on the new maritime order in the making at the international and regional levels The author also delineates the main issues and disputes hindering the establishment of a new maritime order in the region and present policy options that could contribute to erecting a solid maritime order in the region by peaceful and cooperative means Finally the author presents a compilation of relevant legal texts most of which were produced after the entry into force of the UN Convention in the hope that this collection will prove useful for desk officers in charge of ocean affairs in promoting peaceful and constructive solutions for maritime issues in Northeast Asia This work serves as a realistic analysis of the current law and State practice as well as of the progressive development of the law of the sea and its codification in the wake of the entry into force of the 1982 UN Convention

Cultural Influences on the Law of the Sea ,2025-03-27 Cultural norms underpin oceans law and policy shaping rules for everything from maritime shipping to deep seabed mining The doctrine of freedom of the seas for instance is an expression of Western European notions of liberty as much as it reflects geopolitical interests Similarly Latin American concepts of dependency theory and anti colonialism support expansive coastal state rights while envisioning ocean resources as the common heritage of mankind reflects African communitarianism The East Asian belief in Confucian social hierarchy reflects deference to authority stability and structure Drawing on evidence from the origins of civilization to the present this volume examines how cultural norms have impacted international maritime law It brings together an expert cast of contributors representing both the Global South and North to explore how different regions culturally express and understand the law of the sea Its chapters offer a breadth of perspectives on major elements of the law of the sea including marine environmental protection marine resource conservation sustainable development maritime security and freedom of navigation

Navigational Restrictions within the New LOS Context Alexander M.

Lewis,2016-12-12 In 1986 Lewis M Alexander a world renowned marine geographer prepared for the U S Department of Defense a report Navigational Restrictions within the New LOS Context Geographical Implications for the United States Edited by J Ashley Roach the reformatted report is presented in five sections and includes 20 maps illustrating the world s international straits and major ocean navigation routes Forty three tables present the most comprehensive descriptions of the world s straits used for international navigation as well as identify various categories of maritime claims What made the Report extraordinarily valuable in 1986 and which makes it equally valuable today is the compilation of geographic data not available elsewhere describing the world s straits used for international navigation and illustrations of the chokepoints and major international shipping trade routes Roach has faithfully reproduced Alexander s seminal work by retaining the original structure and references A table of defined terms and an index have been added The A to Z of the Russo-Japanese

War Rotem Kowner,2009-08-20 Every war leaves an imprint in history but few have had such a pervasive impact in so many respects as the Russo Japanese War of 1904 1905 Politically it fatally weakened the Russian Empire while allowing Japan to follow more dangerous paths Diplomatically it shook the power balance in Europe and reshaped it in the form of two coalitions leading to World War I With regard to the art of warfare it emphasized the use of trench warfare and machine guns on land and the deployment of battleships and the use of torpedoes at sea Yet despite its importance at the time it has become very much a forgotten war The A to Z of the Russo Japanese War provides considerable breadth and depth of coverage based on Japanese Russian and Western sources The breadth is accomplished through a wide ranging introduction a detailed chronology and an extensive bibliography The depth comes in the hundreds of entries on military and political leaders major battles and lesser encounters tactics and strategy as well as the weaponry and of course the causes and consequences The result is the first major reference work on the Russo Japanese War in English and the largest in any language The Proceedings of the Symposium on the Straits Used for International Navigation Bayram Öztürk,Reşat Özkan,2002
