Huntington Corral, 1980 Speaking of Love: The Love Dialogue in Italian and French Renaissance Literature

Reinier Leushuis, 2017-03-27 Re evaluating the dialogue's place in the literary landscape of the Italian and French Renaissance Speaking of Love presents the love dialogue at the intersection of a revival of the form and the period's philosophies of love and desire Between 1540 and 1580 authors such as Speroni Tullia d'Aragona the Venetian poliglotta Tyard Le Caron Pasquier Taillemont Marguerite de Navarre and Louise Labé feature interlocutors not only deliberating on love but imitating the experience of love in their dynamics of speaking These love dialogues allow early modern ideologies and discourses of love to be imitated by the reader and rival lyric poetry in conveying amorous experience validating dialogue as an authentic literary form rather than a tool of philosophical thinking Love in the Post-Reconceptualist Era of Curriculum Work Allan Michel Jales Coutinho, 2023-03-08 By employing the autobiographical method of currere and bifocalization this book sheds light on the significance of love and the ethics of caregiving as means to transform curriculum studies into a post-reconceptualist and collective endeavor Advancing an understanding of curriculum as a collective public moral enterprise it critically asks whether we can build a world where love is not negotiated but only proliferated Through the creation of short and interconnected autobiographical narratives about the meanings of love the author provides pivotal insights for curricularists who labor in conflicting and paradoxical contexts As such the book seeks to demonstrate how the labor of love fortification may be accomplished in a world of agonistic antagonistic and competitive becoming's Highlighting the role of caregiving this book questions the role of evaluations in post-reconceptualization and provides insights for educators and policymakers on how to promote actualization and reconciliation in schools in contexts across the global north and south Engaging with a long scholarly tradition that ultimately seeks to understand the meanings of love in our lives and in our work supporting the historicization of the field of curriculum and with an international focus this book will appeal to scholars and students with interests in curriculum studies and curriculum theory The Laws of Love P.

Daphne Rose Kingma,1999-01-19 The future of relationships is moving us toward the vaulting awareness of who we really are as human beings something we have managed to avoid for a very long time by being so thoroughly committed to convention This is the future of love vast love love beyond boundaries love without preconceptions and judgments love without outdated myths love which can actually be experienced At a time when over half of all marriages are ending in divorce Daphne Rose Kingma a well known therapist and relationship expert has recognized that our familiar ways of thinking about relationships are no longer working I have written this book because it is clear that many of our previous assumptions about relationships need to be dismantled writes Kingma As we go through this process we will discover a number of new ideas that our relationships can have different forms than we ever imagined that they will serve different purposes that they will require different offerings from us They will also bring us new gifts We are in the midst of a sea change in which not only are many traditional relationships failing but unexpected new arrangements are beginning to appear gay marriages are surfacing step families abound and many people are consciously choosing to live alone As Kingma explains these transformations should not be feared instead they represent a real opportunity In the past conventional relationships were often destroyed by an overemphasis on the nuts and bolts of psychology on working to achieve the unattainable perfect relationship while ignoring our most vital selves our souls The glorious message of The Future of Love is that the disturbing changes we are all experiencing are actually part of the soul s plan as it breaks down outdated conventions to bring us a new fuller understanding of love Proceedings of the Nineteenth Annual Convention of the ... Discovering Sexuality in Dostoevsky Susanne Fusso, 2008-01-29 Most discussions of sexuality in the work of Dostoevsky have been framed in Freudian terms But Dostoevsky himself wrote about sexuality from a decidedly pre Freudian perspective By looking at the views of human sexual development that were available in Dostoevsky s time and that he an avid reader and observer of his own social context absorbed and reacted to Susanne Fusso gives us a new way of understanding a critical element in the writing of one of Russia s literary masters Beyond discovering Dostoevsky s own views and representations of sexuality as a reflection of his culture and his time Fusso also explores his artistic treatment of how children and adolescents discover sexuality as part of their growth Some of the topics Fusso considers are Dostoevsky s search for an appropriate artistic language for sexuality a young narrator s experimentation with homoerotic desire and unconventional narrative in A Raw Youth and Dostoevsky s approach to a young man s sexual development in A Raw Youth and The Brothers Karamazov She also explores his complex treatment of a child s secret sexuality in his account of the Kroneberg child abuse case in A Writer s Diary and his conception of the ideal family a type of family that appears in his works mainly by negative example Focusing mainly on sexual practices considered deviant in Dostoevsky s time both because these are the practices that his young characters confront and because they offer the most intriguing interpretive problems Fusso decodes the author s texts and their social contexts In doing so she highlights one thread in the intricate thematic weave of Dostoevsky s novels and newly illuminates his artistic process
