Rabe,2006-05-26 In the first published account of the massive U S covert intervention in British Guiana between 1953 and 1969 Stephen G Rabe uncovers a Cold War story of imperialism gender bias and racism When the South American colony now known as Guyana was due to gain independence from Britain in the 1960s U S officials in the Kennedy and Johnson administrations feared it would become a communist nation under the leadership of Cheddi Jagan a Marxist who was very popular among the South Asian mostly Indian majority Although to this day the CIA refuses to confirm or deny involvement Rabe presents evidence that CIA funding through a program run by the AFL CIO helped foment the labor unrest race riots and general chaos that led to Jagan s replacement in 1964 The political leader preferred by the United States Forbes Burnham went on to lead a twenty year dictatorship in which he persecuted the majority Indian population Considering race gender religion and ethnicity along with traditional approaches to diplomatic history Rabe s analysis of this Cold War tragedy serves as a needed corrective to interpretations that depict the Cold War as an unsullied U S triumph The West Indies, with British Guiana and British Honduras George Manington,1925 Lands and Peoples of the World , Guyana: from Slavery to the Present Ramesh Gampat,2015-04-15 It is common knowledge that slavery and indenture were characterized by long hours of physical labor restriction of movement and other basic human freedoms and severe punishment for violations of draconian labor laws Less well known is the fact that nutrition was very deficient and a range of infectious diseases maimed debilitated and killed on a large scale In trying to narrow the knowledge gap with respect to Guyana Ramesh Gampat shows that extremely poor sanitary conditions awful hygiene and malnutrition hastened widespread infections and created a vicious cycle The British protected its own soldiers officials and colonists by establishing a medical enclave that lasted until Emancipation in 1838 Former slaves were then quarantined to neglected and decaying villages and Indians to plantations Concern with health conditions appeared only during periods of epidemics and even then it was essentially for the protection of Europeans Colonial medicine opened the way for stereotyping labeling racialization of disease neutralization of potential leaders in the struggle for justice and crystallization of the view that Europeans were superior to Blacks and Indians Shorter stature and shorter life expectancy are good indications that slaves and indentured immigrants fared considerably less well than Europeans Several infectious diseases sickened and fell Blacks and Indians including malaria and undefined fevers pneumonia and bronchitis diarrhea and enteritis tuberculosis pneumonia and hookworm The conquest of malaria in the early 1950s accelerated the epidemiological transition from communicable to chronic noncommunicable diseases and today NCDs account for some three quarters of all deaths in Guyana Malaria has reemerged fueled by a gold boom that consumes huge amounts of mercury The potentially adverse public health consequences of this relatively new dynamic the combined trio have been neglected
