The Siren and the Seashell Octavio Paz, 2013-05-15 Octavio Paz has long been known for his brilliant essays as well as for his poetry Through the essays he has sought to confront the tensions inherent in the conflict between art and society and to achieve a unity of their polarities The Siren and the Seashell is a collection of Paz's essays focusing on individual poets and on poetry in general The first five poets he treats are Latin American Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Rubén Darío José Juan Tablada Ramón López Velarde and Alfonso Reyes Then there are essays on Robert Frost and E. E. Cummings Saint John Perse Antonio Machado and Jorge Guillén Finally there are Paz's reflections on the poetry of solitude and communion and the literature of Latin America Each essay is more than Paz's impressions of one person or issue each is the occasion for a wider discussion of cultural historical psychological and philosophical themes The essays were selected from Paz's writing between 1942 and 1965 and provide an overview of the development of his thinking and an exploration of the ideas central in his works

Poetry from the Seasons of My Life CeCe Penne,2012-04-28 One of the most precious and priceless gifts in the world is the heart of a woman A beautiful kaleidoscope of raw emotions experiences and memories a womans heart knows no boundaries or limitations regarding her cherished and sacred love Whether old young rich poor black or whitew have all craved love from another We are ordinary women but possess extraordinary love At one period in time we each have loved whether or not love actually decided to pay us a visit stay around for a while or unselfishly love us back It may not always reciprocate or manifest itself how we desire Sometimes it may be followed by hurt disappointment loss or death but we still keep on loving When permitted to give wholly and freely a womans satiable heart is unadulterated and her love is both timeless and unconditional Her love is naked and pure resilient and determinedpatient and forgiving In the quest to find her destiny every woman will inevitably experience powerful and unpredictable seasons on her journey called Life as love etches indelible lines of poetry across her impressionable heart I invite you to enter into my heart and share my poetry from the seasons of my life
