Hope Kawerk, 197? The Land Cries Out Salim J. Munayer, Lisa Loden, 2011-10-21 Our theology does not exist in a vacuum but must relate to the world we inhabit and must influence our moral and ethical actions This is especially true when discussing theology of the land in the context of a violent territorial conflict The Holy Land has seen so much bloodshed that the earth itself is crying out to God The chapters presented in this book form a unique collection of voices speaking from different perspectives on the issue of the theology of the land These voices include Messianic Jewish and Palestinian Christian theologians and scholars who live in the Holy Land as well as others from around the world The various chapters re ect a wide spectrum of opinion and reveal how much disagreement still exists among followers of Christ However the dialogue generated by having these opposing voices side by side speaking to each other rather than past each other is encouraging This book is both challenging and inspirational and contributes in an innovative way to this important discussion The Land of Milk and Honey Alphonse Courlander, 19??
