The Language Of Literature American Literature Literary Analysis Transparencies:

The Politics of Transparency in Modern American Fiction Paula Martín Salván, Sascha Pöhlmann, 2024 A much needed contribution to and critique of debates in the newly emerging field of transparency studies from the perspective of American literary studies In the twenty first century transparency has become an ambiguous buzzword both in the public and the private realms e g Wikileaks and the Snowden affair social media This volume takes its cue from the emerging field of transparency studies recent scholarly work in sociology political theory and cultural studies that identifies a hegemonic rhetoric of transparency in public and political life While scholars in this new field routinely gesture toward literature as the realm where secrecy may be productive they rarely engage with literature directly and literary studies itself remains notably absent from their debates This collection of essays seeks to redress that state of affairs by focusing on literary texts written in an American cultural tradition steeped in the interplay between transparency and exposure fear and secrecy security and surveillance and information and disinformation The essays draw on authors ranging from Whitman James and Ellison to Pynchon Morrison and Eggers to argue that American literature complicates theoretical assumptions about transparency made in other disciplines They question the field s strong theoretical emphasis on present day technopolitical practices and discourses as the location of hegemonic discourse on transparency and instead historicize such phenomena and extend them to discursive spheres that have so far been neglected such as issues of sexuality and race Edited by Paula Martín Salván and Sascha Pöhlmann Contributors Tomasz Basiuk Jesús Blanco Hidalgo Cristina Chevere San Julia Faisst Michel Feith Julián Jimenez Heffernan Tiina Kakkela Juan López de Luque Umberto Rossi Jelena Sesnić Toon Staes Julia Straub Alice Sundman

Commanding Words Lynda Chouiten, 2016-04-26 In a twenty first century which celebrates freedom and equality while also beginning to question the lax attitudes and methods which have triumphed since the late Sixties reflecting on the concept of authority is as necessary as ever What role does and should authority play in political social and academic organization Should one plead for stricter or more flexible authority Where does the frontier between authority and authoritarianism lie In examining these and other related questions this volume postulating the interconnectedness between authority and discourse also discusses the rhetorical strategies whereby authority is constructed manifested and resisted Pertaining to subjects as various as politics culture literature history and pedagogy the twenty chapters which constitute this book offer an interdisciplinary yet thematically coherent coverage of the question under discussion and encompass a wide historical and spatial scope which ranges from the Islamic Middle Ages to twenty first century America passing through
