The Last Days Of Chez Nous Two Friends:

The Last Days of Chez Nous & Two Friends Helen Garner, 2016-06-27 The Last Days of Chez Nous Two Friends showcases the range of one of Australia's greatest writers. These two scripts for films The Last Days of Chez Nous was directed by Gillian Armstrong in 1991 and Two Friends by Jane Campion in 1986 are funny sharp observations of relationships and friendships that are as intimate and engrossing as Helen Garner's acclaimed novels. This edition comes with a new introduction by the internationally renowned screenwriter Laura Jones winner of the inaugural Australian Writers Guild Lifetime Achievement Award in 2016. Helen Garner is an award-winning author of novels, stories, screenplays, and works of non-fiction. In 2006 she received the inaugural Melbourne Prize for Literature and in 2016 a Windham Campbell Prize for Non-Fiction. Her novel The Spare Room published in 2008 won the Victorian Premier's Literary Award for Fiction, the Queensland Premier's Award for Fiction, and the Barbara Jefferis Award, and has been translated into many languages. Her non-fiction book This House of Grief won the Ned Kelly Award for Best True Crime of 2015. Helen Garner's most recent book is Everywhere I Look. Garner's humour and pathos shine. The stories are absorbing, the preface quite fascinating. BookMooch

Australian National Cinema Tom O'Regan, 2005-08-10 Situates Australian cinema in its historical and cultural perspective, offering detailed critiques of key films from 1970 onwards and using them to illustrate the recent theories on the cinema industries. Jane Campion Dana Polan, 2019-07-25 With the phenomenal success of The Piano 1993, Jane Campion became revered by many as the leading female film director of the 1990s. In this book, Dana Polan examines the phenomenon of The Piano and how it develops from the early shorts and first features which evoke an often surreal and critical distanced style of looking at everyday issues. Looking at all of Campion's work before and since, including Holy Smoke 1999 which returned again to the battleground of gender politics, the author concludes his survey of the director's work by offering some hypotheses about the erotic thriller The Cut 2001 whilst asking what variety of approaches to the study of directors might now be fruitful. A Writing Life Bernadette Brennan, 2017-04-03 This is literary critique and biography at its finest.

Australian Financial Review Helen Garner is one of Australia's most important and most admired writers. She is revered for her fearless honesty in the pursuit of her craft. But Garner also courts controversy, not least because she refuses to be constrained by the rules of literary form. She has never been afraid to write herself into her nonfiction, and many of her own experiences help to shape her fiction. But who is the I in Helen Garner's work? Bernadette Brennan's A Writing Life is the first full-length study of Garner's forty years of work, a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life. Brennan has had access to previously unavailable papers in Garner's archive, and she provides a lively and rigorous reading of the books, journals, and correspondence of one of Australia's most beloved women of letters. Dr Bernadette Brennan is an academic and researcher in contemporary Australian writing, literature, and ethics. She is the author of a number of publications, including a monograph on Brian Castro and two edited collections, Just Words: Australian Authors Writing for
