The British Pop Dandy Stan Hawkins, 2017-07-05 Who are pop dandies Why are stars like David Bowie Jarvis Cocker Pete Doherty and Robbie Williams so dandified Taking up a wide range of British pop stars Hawkins seeks to find out why so many have cast themselves in roles that often take style to absurd extremes In this study male pop artists are mapped against a cultural and historical background through a genealogy of personalities such as Oscar Wilde W H Auden Andy Warhol No Coward Derek Jarmen David Beckham and countless others A critical analysis of issues and approaches to musical performance through masculinity becomes the focal point of this fascinating study Ranging from the sixties to beyond the twentieth century The British Pop Dandy considers the construction of the male pop icon through the spectacle of videos live concerts and films Why do we derive pleasure from the performing body and how is entertainment linked to categories of gender and sexuality The author insists that pop performances can be understood through human characteristics that relate to the particulars of dandyism camp and glamour and this he theorizes through the work of Charles Baudelaire One of the political objectives of the dandy is to liberate himself through a denial of the structures that assume fixed identity Not least it is acts of queering in pop music that characterize entire generations of male artists in the UK Setting out to discover what distinguishes the British pop dandy Hawkins considers the role of music and performance in the articulation of hyperbolic display It is argued that the recorded voice is a construction that idealizes self representation and absorbs the listener s attention Particularly camp address in singing practice is taken up in conjunction with a discussion of intimacy which forms part of the strategy of the performer In a range of songs and videos selected for music analysis Hawkins points to the uniqueness of the voice as it expresses a transgressive quali

Patron Saint of Eyeliner Jeremy Reed, 2000 Jeremy Reed s new rich energised collection of millennial poetry finds him once more engaging with the intensely imaginative world he has made expressly his own Drawing inspiration from everything from Surrealist art and SF novels to gay pop icons and erotic photography Reed celebrates the weird the wild and the wonderful in equal measure metaphoring a distinctly post modern world with individualistic genius Patron Saint Of Eyeliner is not only poetry for the new millennium but poetry for a new consciousness in which the glamour iconography of the 20th century fuses and is then detonated into glittering futuristic shards of language
