Prout,Melanie J. Wadkins,2014-03-27 This is the only comprehensive text to focus on the development of practical interviewing and counseling skills for master s level mental health counseling students It is structured around the goals established by the CACREP s 2009 document on standards for MHC programs and uniquely encompasses both theory and practice from the perspectives of a diverse array of theoretical schools and practice strategies The benefits of integrating complementary therapy approaches according to the needs of the client and the importance of multicultural considerations in interviewing and counseling are consistent themes throughout

The book's hands-on guidance regarding interviewing and counseling skills along with its embrace of different therapeutic modalities will enable students to learn how to provide care to clients that is tailored to their specific needs. Each chapter includes a highlighted section that draws students' attention to topics related to diversity and strategies for working with clients from a variety of populations. Issues related to race, ethnicity, immigration, and country of origin are highlighted along with age, gender, sexual orientation, religion, language, and physical and cognitive abilities. The use of case examples from multiple theoretical orientations offers a realistic view of what actually occurs in a consulting room. The book also addresses working with clients who have serious emotional or psychological difficulties and covers evidenced-based practice, assessment, and diagnosis, and when and how to terminate treatment. An instructor's guide and PowerPoint slides are also included.

Key Features: Provides a balanced, integrated theoretical and practical approach to interviewing and counseling with a focus on skills development. Teaches the fundamental skills of empathy, active listening, treatment planning, and developing a strong therapeutic alliance. Includes Spotlight on Culture sections with case studies to emphasize how diversity informs sensitive and effective psychotherapy. Provides exercises to help students discover their own blind spots in regard to diversity. Offers a realistic window into the profession through numerous case examples.

A Contemporary Comprehensive Economic Science Stefano Spalletti, Francesca Spigarelli, 2025-11-18

Covering Maffeo Pantaleoni's key areas of contribution to economics, this book provides a comprehensive study of one of the foremost economic thinkers of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Called the prince of Italian economists by Piero Sraffa, among others, Maffeo Pantaleoni (1857-1924) was an original and innovative thinker but also bizarre and extravagant. As a result, he did not produce an inherently continuous and systematic work, but his contributions oscillate between a shifting idealism and heterogeneous operational criteria. Contrasting with the specialisation which pervades the economic sciences today, rereading Pantaleoni one hundred years after his death, it is clear that he excelled in pure as much as in applied economics, in public economics as in statistical or historical economic studies. Overall, his expertise spanned fields of economics that are now considered disaggregated and distant from each other. Thus, the Pantaleonian spirit, which was innovative and completist and could not be confined within any enclosure, was lost a century ago. This volume brings together a group of specialists capable of identifying the many points of contact between Pantaleoni's multiform thought and the disciplinary plurality of his economics, thus providing a Complete Economic Science of which Pantaleoni would be proud. The book will be of interest to economists, readers in history of economic thought, intellectual history, Italian history, more broadly, and scholars with diverse profiles of interest.
