and success Arts Methods for the Self-Representation of Undergraduate Students Miranda Matthews, 2023-04-07

This timely book explores the transitional experiences of undergraduates in minority groups studying at university and how arts methods and practices can play an important role in facilitating these transitions Based on research from UK universities this volume is the first to draw together the experiences of educators in the humanities and social sciences who integrate sensory methodologies in taught curriculum in relation to arts educators who add extra curricular arts practice It offers an original contextualised analysis of how to enable university structures to adapt to complexity difference and diversity taking the view that arts practice forms meeting points for confident interconnection and spaces of self representation It outlines the novel concept of sensory transition in how arts practices can be used to address issues of inclusion diversity and self representation for minority groups Each chapter offers an in depth analysis of significant issues such as dimensions of race gender and class and the specificities of social and cultural group experiences as they occur in arts practice The book reflects on the decolonisation of university structures and curriculum and demonstrates how universities can support students and build spaces for self representation in academic courses Accessible and investigative this book is essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the field of higher education inclusion and arts methods It will also be of great interest to higher education staff interested in decolonisation diversity and university futures Teacher Education and Teacher Professional Development in the COVID-19 Turn Nur Arifah Draji, Kristian Adi Putra, 2022-11-29 These proceedings present a selection of papers from the ICTTE 2021 conference While face to face classroom instruction is brought back there are a lot of lessons learned from the COVID 19 pandemic that schools teacher training and education institutions and government have to take into account There is a need to reconsider what additional knowledge and skills pre service teachers and in service teachers need to be prepared for to anticipate such a similar unexpected situation in the future Additionally there is also a need to listen to in service teacher experiences during the emergency remote teaching and integrate the positive lessons that they have gained such as the use of technology into the current post pandemic face to face classroom instruction This proceeding is designed for teacher educators researchers in service teachers and pre service teachers in the field of language education math and science education and social science education who are interested in these topics
