dimension of objects in horror cinema Inspired by object oriented ontology and the nonhuman turn in philosophy Olivier places objects in film on par with humans arguing for example that a sleeper sofa is as much the star of Sisters as Margot Kidder that The Exorcist is about a possessed bed and that Rosemary's Baby is a conflict between herbal shakes and prenatal vitamins Household Horror reinvigorates horror film criticism by investigating the unfathomable being of objects as seemingly benign as remotes radiators refrigerators and dining tables Olivier questions what Hitchcock's Psycho tells us about shower curtains What can we learn from Freddie Krueger's greatest accomplice the mattress Room by room Olivier considers the dark side of fourteen household objects to demonstrate how the objects in these films manifest their own power and connect with specific cultural fears and concerns Provides a lively and highly original contribution to horror studies As a work on cinema it introduces the reader to films that may be less well known to casual fans and scholars more conspicuously it returns to horror staples gleefully reanimating works that one might otherwise assume had been critically done to death Psycho The Exorcist The Shining Allan Cameron University of Auckland      Evaluation of Elastomers as Gasket Materials in Pneumatic and Hydraulic Systems C.
