Smothered Words:

Smothered Words Sarah Kofman, 1998 In Smothered Words the philosopher Sarah Kofman acknowledges her personal history evoking for the first time in a published work her father's deportation and death in Auschwitz Kofman juxtaposes readings of the work of Maurice Blanchot reflections on The Human Race Robert Antelme's account of his deportation to a German prison also available from Northwestern University Press and her recognition of having outlived her father and survived the Holocaust Her consideration of these three figures and the texts associated with them serves as a meditation on the contrasting imperatives of history autobiography and critical writing Kofman committed suicide in 1995 Smothered Words addresses both the effects on representation of the emotional suffering of the survivors and the ethical questions raised in representing the Holocaust Kofman explores the relationships and tensions among autobiographical historical and philosophical approaches to writing the Holocaust

Sources of Holocaust Insight John K. Roth, 2020-01-29 Sources of Holocaust Insight maps the odyssey of an American Christian philosopher who has studied written and taught about the Holocaust for more than fifty years What findings result from John Roth's journey what moods pervade it How have events and experiences scholars and students texts and testimonies especially the questions they raise affected Roth's Holocaust studies and guided his efforts to heed the biblical proverb Whatever else you get get insight More sources than Roth can acknowledge have informed his encounters with the Holocaust But particular persons among them Elie Wiesel Raul Hilberg Primo Levi and Albert Camus loom especially large Revisiting Roth's sources of Holocaust insight this book does so not only to pay tribute to them but also to show how the ethical philosophical and religious reverberations of the Holocaust confer and encourage responsibility for human well being in the twenty first century Seeing differently seeing better sound learning and teaching about the Holocaust aim for what may be the most important Holocaust insight of all Take nothing good for granted allowed to remain lest resolution deceive us will our awareness of the Holocaust and its implications be as full as possible
