A Feminist Perspective on Human Trafficking of Women and Girls Nancy M. Sidun, Deborah L. Hume, 2019-05-16

Focusing on the trafficking of women and girls from a feminist perspective this book examines how social structures and gender influence human trafficking While women and girls are not the only victims of trafficking they tend to be disproportionately represented Structural inequities including poverty gender based violence racism class and caste based discrimination and other forms of oppression and marginalization place some individuals at substantially greater risk to be trafficked The contributors explore topics including trauma informed assessment of and therapy with survivors of human trafficking issues facing children of trafficked women when they are reintegrated into their communities post trafficking the intersection of trafficking with racial and cultural oppression critical aspects of international sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children The book concludes with a discussion of how human trafficking intersects with both intracountry adoption and brokered marriages This book was originally published as a special issue of Women Therapy
